KICKOFF

VS

#NPLNSW

The Sharks games against Bonnyrigg are often open, entertaining affairs. It should be no different tonight. The competition table shows both teams are well down yet both teams are only one win away from sixth place and then vying for a semi-final spot.

We welcome the players, officials and supporters of the white Eagles on a night that has a lot hanging on the result. Both teams are coming off a loss with the Sharks losing 3-1 to a sharp Sydney United outfit and Bonnyrigg going down to a ten-man Sydney FC 2-1. Sharks will be looking for another strong performance from Josh Da Silva who was at his best last week in the middle of the park where he was a constant threat to United. But it was to be Nick Littler who scored the Shark's only goal towards the end of the game.

The under 20's were unlucky to go down by the odd goal after creating so many good chances on goal. Even though they have had a recent run of average performances they are still sitting at the top of the ladder ready for "the run home" and the finals series.

The under 18's continued their consistent form and ended their run of outs with a "gutsy" come from behind 2-1 win against Sydney United.

Our Youth teams and SAP teams continue to do well with strong performances last weekend .

We have our under 9 entertainment this week provided by Caringbah Redbacks, Cronulla RSL, Marton and our neighbours Miranda Magpies. These are all strong clubs from our junior Sutherland Shire association.

We all must get behind the Sharks tonight and cheer them home to victory!!

Blue is the colour!!

1ST GRADE MATCH PREVIEW

Sutherland Sharks will be desperate to keep their slim finals hopes alive with victory when they host Bonnyrigg White Eagles on Saturday.

The Grant Lee coached side sit in 10th position on the ladder five points outside the top five.

Last week the Sharks slumped to their third straight defeat with a 3-1 loss on the road against Sydney United 58.'

Their opponents this week Bonnyrigg are also coming into the match on the back of a defeat after they went down 2-1 in a shock loss to bottom side Sydney FC.

Despite showing positive signs earlier in the campaign, Sutherland has slumped in the second half of the season and has lacked the spark and discipline displayed during the opening 12 matches.

One player who could be a game changer for the Sharks is midfielder Josh Da Silva. His tricky feet and long range shooting could be the little bit of magic his team needs to break open a match.

For the White Eagles, Korean import Je Wook Woo will be the man to watch with his performances this season a shining light for an inconsistent Bonnyrigg side.

This is a very evenly matched contest and could go either way. It is a game which will likely be decided by one moment of brilliance.

Sydney United 58 FC 3 – Sutherland Sharks 1 at Sydney United Sports Centre

Sydney United 58 has cruised to a 3-1 win against Sutherland Sharks at Sydney United Sports Centre on Saturday night.

Goals to Glen Trifiro, Tariq Mair, and Mathew Sim helped the home side collect all three points in their second three goal effort in as many weeks.

Nick Littler netted a late goal for Sutherland but it proved to be mere consolation for Grant Lee's side.

The win moved United 58 into third spot on the ladder leapfrogging rivals Blacktown City FC.

Bonnyrigg White Eagles 1- Sydney FC 2 at Bonnyrigg Sports Club

A 10-man Sydney FC has ended their losing streak with a 2-1 victory against Bonnyrigg White Eagles on Saturday

It was an incredible performance from the Young Sky Blues who lost Luke Ivanovic to a red card in the 6th minute.

A crazy opening 10 minutes saw Sam McIlhatten put FC in front before Ivanovic saw red and Jaewook Woo then had the White Eagles level.

A second half strike by Jerry Skotadis saw Sydney FC take all three points.

After a surprising loss to Sydney United 58 last Saturday, Sutherland Sharks might want to thank Bonnyrigg White Eagles for holding Sydney FC to a point in Round 16, preserving their lead at the top of the ladder.

Instead, the Sharks will host Bonnyrigg at Seymour Shaw on Saturday afternoon, and will be hoping to follow up their 1-0 win in the reverse fixture in mid-April with a further three points to revive their stuttering campaign. Sutherland will be desperate for a win, knowing they can't rely on other sides to keep Sydney FC at bay should they fall to another defeat in the run-in.

Bonnyrigg, meanwhile, should travel to Seymour Shaw in good spirits ahead of their clash with the Sharks, having taken an unexpected point against Sydney FC to remain in the hunt for a spot in the finals. A win here would raise the possibility of a last-minute dash for the line, while a defeat would be near fatal for Bonnyrigg's top five chances, even with a game in hand.
