ROUND 14 SEYMOUR SHAW 6.30PM SATURDAY 9TH JUNE 2018

The Sutherland Sharks today welcome Hakoah Sydney East FC. to Seymour Shaw. The Sharks are coming off a convincing win against Sydney FC last week and are hoping to consolidate their place in the top 5 with a win tonight. Hakoah last week had a 0-0 draw with last year's champions Manly United. The Sharks are gradually getting back to full strength with Felipe Zappata and Stephen Kayes returning through the 20's last week and Brad Bartels due back this week. Ryoga Suyama and Leroy Jennings were the goal scorers against Sydney FC last week while Adrian Vranic rattled the crossbar. The Sharks under the inspirational leadership of Jacob Tratt have been playing some exciting football. We hope to see that on display tonight.

Our under 20's remain on top of the competition despite suffering a 3-1 loss to Sydney FC last week. their winning ways. Tom Pappa bobbed up to score the Shark's only goal with a superbly placed glancing header. There will be strong competition for places as the injury toll improves, so expect them to get back to.

The under 18's had a 1-0 loss despite matching the strong Sydney side for most of the match. They have been most consistent and will be looking forward to today's game.

Local clubs : Gwawley Bay, Loftus, St Pats and Bonnet Bay have their under 9's in attendance today. They will play before the first grade game and again at half time. We thank them for their attendance tonight.

Let's hope it is a great day for the Sharks!!!

1ST GRADE MATCH PREVIEW

Sutherland Sharks are on track to finish the season in the top five but they must keep up their winning ways when they host Hakoah Sydney City East on Saturday.

Sutherland edged Sydney FC 2-0 last week to move back into fifth spot on the competition ladder but they have a number of teams hot on their tail.

Hakoah is one of those sides chasing finals football and come into the match on the back of a hard fought scoreless draw with Manly United.

Ryoga Suyama made his mark for the Sharks last week with his first goal of the season. A new player at Seymour Shaw this season, he will be out to cement his spot in the squad with another great performance this round.

Hakoah will be without their star player Andre De Jong for the second straight week with the Kiwi away on international duty with the All Whites in India.

De Jong's absence puts extra pressure on Hakoah's other attacking players including Amaury Gauthier, Oliver Green, Anthony Frangie and Harry Jones.

Sutherland will be favourites for this game with the home crowd behind them, but Hakoah are a tough side that can take the match to whoever they are up against.

Sydney FC 0 – Sutherland Sharks 2 at Lambert Park

Sutherland Sharks dug deep at Lambert Park to come away with a 2-0 win over Sydney FC on Saturday night.

A goal either side of halftime enough to see the visitors through to a valuable three points.

The hosts might have largely controlled the match but Sutherland made their chances count where they had them.

Ryoga Suyama and Leroy Jennings needed no second invitation when the opportunity to score presented itself as they netted in the 18th and 90th minute.

Sydney FC had their moments but were unable to trouble the scoresheet in a tough night for the Young Sky Blues.

Manly United 0 – Hakoah Sydney City East 0 at Cromer Park

Manly United and Hakoah Sydney City East played out a tight 0-0 draw at Cromer Park on Saturday night.

In a match which seemed destined for stalemate, clear cut chances were far and few between.

The hosts will feel hard done by after maintaining the majority of second half possession, but often failing with their final pass.

However if it were not for a couple of outstanding stops from Shaun Catlin, it may well have been Hakoah who travelled home with all three points.

Now sitting narrowly outside of the all-important top five, both teams will be looking to recapture their form in front of goal and return to the winner's circle next week.

Competition Sutherland Sharks need to get back on the horse but will face a tricky test in doing so when they host Hakoah Sydney City East this Saturday to kick off round 14 at Seymour Shaw.

The 2017 Premiers suffered back to back defeats for the first time in 12 months following losses to Rockdale City Suns and Sydney FC and could relinquish their current three point advantage over Blacktown City should they lose again.

The Sharks will be buoyed by the return of several key players from injury and suspension however, and should be hugely determined and motivated to deliver a strong response after a frustrating fortnight.

Visitors Hakoah enter the clash in fifth position having suffered what was the side's second loss in eight matches last weekend against Manly United. Outside their 4-1 loss to United last Saturday, Hakoah have been one of the most impressive performers throughout the season and continue to emerge as an unlikely outside challenger for the title.

But they'll need to pick up a result against the competition benchmark away from home on Saturday in order to prove their mettle again, and further consolidate their position in the top five.
