

ROUND 20 LILY HOMES STADIUM 3PM SUNDAY 29TH JULY 2018

KICKOFF

VS

Blacktown City FC (BCFC) welcomes its members, supporters, families and players to our Round 20 fixture. We would also like to welcome Rockdale City Suns FC to our home ground of Lily Homes Stadium.

We also take this opportunity to welcome junior players and officials from local grassroots club Parklea Soccer FC who will walk out with our first grade squad today and play small sided football at halftime.

The club is still leading the Club Championship with APIA Leichardt close behind. The club will be looking to secure maximum points today against a tough opposition.

Last weekend our senior teams took on Hakoah Sydney City East FC at Hensley Athletic Field. The First Grade fixture finished with a 2-1 win courtesy of a Joey Gibbs double in the second half. The three points collected keep us in fourth position on the ladder.

The Under 20's moved to the top of the table after they defeated Hakoah 1-0. The Under 18's had a comprehensive 5-0 win over Hakoah and are one point behind league leaders Sydney FC.

In the Boys Youth League last weekend we were at home to Rydalmere Lions and it was a successful day in all grades. The U13's won 3-0, the U14's won 3-2, the U15's won 6-0 and the U16's won 3-0.

In the Girls Conference League we took on Camden Tigers FC last weekend at home. The U14's lost 0-3, U15's won 1-0 and the U17's lost 0-1. In SAP, we also travelled out to Popondetta Park to take on Mt Druitt Town Rangers FC. Our young boys and girls continue to learn, develop and enjoy there football.

BCFC would like to pay special mention to our 2018 Platinum, Gold, Silver & Bronze corporate partners who are highlighted in today's match day program. We would also like to thank our individual player sponsors. Both Corporate & Individual player sponsorships are still available at the club. If you are interested in sponsoring the club, team or individual player please contact the Club by email at info@bcfc.com.au.

Finally, if you are looking for a drink or after match meal the club highly recommends heading for a short 100m walk from the ground to Lily's Restaurant Bar and Function Centre.

1ST GRADE MATCH PREVIEW

Blacktown City will be focused on hitting their best form ahead of the finals and it will start with victory against Rockdale City Suns on Sunday.

The Mark Crittenden coached side has not been at its clinical best this campaign but by no means are they out of the Championship race.

A win last round against Hakoah proved they can still take the game to their opposition and shouldn't be underestimated.

Rockdale on the other hand is in prime position to lock up the final spot in the playoffs with the fifth placed side needing a run of good results to close out the campaign.

Joey Gibbs is finding form at the best possible time with the striker coming into Round 20 after a match winning double against Hakoah. His goals will once again be vital if Blacktown are to claim all three points.

Rockdale could be without star forward Alec Urosevski for this crunch match after he was forced off early last round with injury.

If Urosevski is unavailable then the challenge will be for Bai Antoniou and Aleks Canak to fill the void.

Both teams are in a strong position ahead of the finals but need good results to ensure they finish the regular season in the best possible shape.

Blacktown will be the favourite but this game could very easily go either way.

Hakoah Sydney City East 1 – Blacktown City FC 2 at Hensley Athletic Field

Blacktown City came from behind to earn a hard fought three points against Hakoah Sydney City with a 2-1 at Hensley Athletic Field on Saturday.

A Joey Gibbs double in as many minutes was the difference for the visitors as Hakoah once again tasted defeat after leading.

Amaury Gauthier opened the scoring for Hakoah on the cusp of halftime to give the home side a 1-0 advantage going into the interval.

However, the home side couldn't contain a relentless Blacktown attack and Gibbs netted twice in two minutes.

Hakoah tried to fight back but it was too little too late as Blacktown scooped the three competition points.

Rockdale City Suns 2 – Marconi Stallions FC 1 at Illinden Sports Centre

Rockdale City Suns have edged closer to locking up a spot in the finals after a 2-1 win against Marconi Stallions at Illinden Sports Centre on Sunday

Goals to Bai Antoniou and Aleks Canak mid-way through the second stanza gave the Suns the upper hand.

Sean Rooney struck with a curling free-kick in the final ten minutes to halve the deficit but it proved to be nothing more than a consolation goal for the visitors.

Rockdale now have a firm grip on fifth spot with 29 points, five ahead of sixth placed Manly United.

On a roll after three wins in their last four games, Blacktown City will look to consolidate their lead at the top of the table when they welcome APIA Leichhardt Tigers to Lily Homes Stadium on Sunday afternoon.

Blacktown have been stuck behind Sutherland for much of the season but the Sharks have hit a rough patch of form in recent weeks to drop back into third, leaving Blacktown a point out in front of Sydney FC in first place.

Their opponents this week head west after an impressive 3-2 win at Wollongong Wolves in Round 19, a result which puts them within touching distance of a place in the finals should results go their way elsewhere.

In any case the Tigers will be eager to make up for their loss to Blacktown City at Lambert Park earlier in the season; Lachlan Rose and Dakota Askew scoring in a 2-0 win for the competition leaders.
