1ST GRADE MATCH PREVIEW

A big finish to the season is on the agenda for Bonnyrigg White Eagles and that starts with a win against the visiting Hakoah Sydney City East on Saturday night.

Ninth placed Bonnyrigg come into the clash still in with a slim chance of making the finals but the cards are stacked against them after a 2-1 loss to fierce rivals Sydney United 58 last week.

Under new coach Milan Susak, the White Eagles will need to win out their final three games and hope other results go their way.

But the first challenge will be getting all three points against a tough opponent in Hakoah.

Sadly for Gavin Rae's Easter Suburbs side, the wheels have fallen off as the season comes to a close with the team suffering defeat after defeat despite take early leads in matches.

Hakoah's inability to close out games is sure to be an area Susak will target and with the quality of Ray Miller and Jewook Woo, as well as Aaron Peterson off the bench, he has the players to get a result.

Bonnyrigg will need to watch out for Andre De Jong and Anthony Frangie as the two attacking players, on their day, are some of the best in the competition.

Hakoah's finals hopes are all but over and they are playing for pride in these last games of the campaign. That doesn't mean they won't be a challenge and could create plenty of problems for Bonnyrigg.

Sydney United 2 – Bonnyrigg White Eagles 1 at Sydney United Sports Centre

A late Patrick Antelmi strike has helped Sydney United 58 to victory against fierce rivals Bonnyrigg White Eagles at Sydney United Sports Centre on Saturday.

Antelmi's winner stretched third placed United 58's undefeated streak to five matches and cuts the gap to second placed Sydney Olympic to only one point.

An early goal to Adrian Vlastelica had the home side in front inside the first 10 minutes.

Bonnyrigg found a way back into the match through their captain Ray Miller before substitute Patrick Antelmi found the winner in the dying stages of the game.

Hakoah Sydney City East 1 – Blacktown City FC 2 at Hensley Athletic Field

Blacktown City came from behind to earn a hard fought three points against Hakoah Sydney City with a 2-1 at Hensley Athletic Field on Saturday.

A Joey Gibbs double in as many minutes was the difference for the visitors as Hakoah once again tasted defeat after leading.

Amaury Gauthier opened the scoring for Hakoah on the cusp of halftime to give the home side a 1-0 advantage going into the interval.

However, the home side couldn't contain a relentless Blacktown attack and Gibbs netted twice in two minutes.

Hakoah tried to fight back but it was too little too late as Blacktown scooped the three competition points.

Bonnyrigg White Eagles remain a mathematical chance of scraping into the finals after picking up a point against Sydney United 58 last week, but would still require both a monumental upswing in form and a miraculous set of results to go their way.

Bonnyrigg are winless since mid-June, their last victory coming in a 3-2 win over competition stragglers Rockdale in Round 15.

They'll look to pick themselves up on Saturday when they host Hakoah Sydney City East at Bonnyrigg Sports Club, where they'll be out to avenge a 1-0 defeat in the reverse of the same fixture earlier in the season.

Hakoah come into this one a week after going down 1-0 to competition leaders Blacktown City, a result that saw that saw them slip outside the five behind Wollongong Wolves on goal difference. Their final three games of the regular season appear winnable, though they can ill afford to drop points in any with several teams still hopeful of stealing into fifth.
