1ST GRADE MATCH PREVIEW

Can Hakoah Sydney City East end their run of heartbreaking defeats when they host Blacktown City on Saturday Night.

The Gavin Rae coached Hakoah have made losing close matches late in the contest their specialty this campaign much to the gaffer's frustration. That and the recent TAFE NSW Waratah Cup loss will certainly be in the back of the Scotsman's mind as the club hopes to change its fortunes around against a tough Blacktown City outfit.

It was the same story in Round 18 as Hakoah spurned an early 1-0 advantage to go down 3-1 to Sydney United 58.

It hasn't been plain sailing for traditional competition powerhouse Blacktown City with the side failing to reach the heights of the past few seasons.

One player key to Hakoah's chances is young striker Anthony Frangie.

Frangie is playing some of the best football of his near two seasons in the National Premier Leagues NSW competition and is a nightmare for opposition defenders.

Blacktown striker Joey Gibbs has been a consistent achiever for Mark Crittenden's team and has continued to fight for his side week in week out with a high work rate and selfless play.

Gibbs has asserted his authority up front more so ever since the unfortunate season ending injury to prized attacker Mitchell Mallia.

While Blacktown is all but assured of a place in the finals, Hakoah has to pretty much win their last four games to sneak into the post season.

This game has the makings of an upset.

Sydney United 58 FC 3 – Hakoah Sydney City East 1 at Sydney United Sports Centre

A brilliant Chris Payne double has helped Sydney United 58 to a 3-1 victory against Hakoah Sydney City East at Sydney United Sports Centre on Saturday.

The win stretches The Reds winning streak to four with Milro Vlastelica's side leapfrogging Blacktown City to take third place.

Payne was in inspired form for the home side with his goals in either half, alongside a Mat Sim strike, the difference for United 58 against a determined Hakoah outfit.

The visitors netted only six minutes into the contest through Anthony Frangie, but it would prove to be only a brief moment on top for Hakoah.

Payne levelled after 26 minutes before he found the net again alongside Sim in the second half to secure the win.

Marconi Stallions 0 – Blacktown City FC 0 at Marconi Stadium

Marconi Stallions have failed to cement their spot in the top five after they were held to a 0-0 draw in torrid encounter at Marconi Stadium on Sunday.

The home side will rue what should've been three competition points after veteran defender Michael Beauchamp's goal on the cusp of half time was disallowed for offside.

It proved to be one of the best chances of the afternoon with both sides struggling with the windy conditions.

Blacktown were forced to sit back and defend late int contest as the Stallions pushed for a winner, but it wasn't to be for Peter Tsekenis' side.

ENGLISH OFFICIALS TO HIT THE NPL NSW MEN'S COMPETITION

Overseas talent is nothing new on the fields of New South Wales football, but in Round 20 of the National Premier Leagues NSW Men's competition there will be a different kind of elite foreign talent.

Former English Premier League referees Michael Salisbury and David Webb will be officiating two of Round 20's top-tier NPL NSW Men's matches with Manly United taking on Wollongong Wolves and Blacktown City hosting Rockdale City Suns penned in as the matches the duo will take over.

Salisbury will take charge of the clash at Cromer Park while Webb will oversee the big encounter at Lily's Football Stadium.

They will also be officiating in the NPL Victorian Premier League as part of their Australian visit.

One of Salisbury's major achievements as an official was getting his first taste of officiating at Wembley Stadium in May 2010 when he was appointed onto the National League play-off final as an assistant for the match between Oxford United v York City.

As a result from his performances as an assistant referee, he was then promoted into the professional game with his first appointment coming at Macclesfield Town.

After his time in the English lower leagues, Salisbury was then promoted into the English Premier League for the 2014/15 season and was an assistant referee for two seasons as well as achieving a position on the FIFA International list in 2016.

One of his finest moments was ironically his final appointment before being promoted onto the EFL National Group of Referees where he was an assistant referee in the 2016 FA Cup Final between Manchester United and Crystal Palace.

Webb also comes with some quality pedigree.

After beginning his journey as a referee in 1999, he progressed through non-league football in the North East of England before being promoted to the EFL Assistant Referees list and the National League referees in 2008/09.

The last nine years has seen Webb referee in the Championship, League 1 and League 2 matches as well as major English Cup competitions.

Reflecting on his career, his major highlight thus far was officiating in the recent League 2 Play-Off Final at Wembley Stadium in front of 52,000 fans when Coventry City took on Exeter City.

This isn't the first time English Premier League referees have graced our football pitches in Sydney.

In 2016, Englishmen Stuart Atwell and Peter Banks both officiated in the NPL NSW Men's competition kick starting the relationship between our elite competition and the English game.

Hakoah Sydney City East remain two points ahead of Sydney United 58 FC in fifth place after a 2-1 win two weeks ago, but can scarcely afford to drop points as the competition turns into the final stretch.

This week they take on Blacktown City FC, now in second place after winning their game in hand over Bonnyrigg in the gap between Rounds 18 and 19.

Blacktown responded well to their loss to Marconi to bounce back against Bonnyrigg, and now turn their attentions to overhauling Sutherland at the top of the table.

They'll travel to Hensley Athletic Field this weekend with some confidence of a positive result, having taken all three points with a 1-0 win when these sides met in Round 8.
