ROUND 19 SEYMOUR SHAW 6.30PM SATURDAY 21ST JULY 2018

CLUB WELCOME

#NPLNSW

The Sutherland Sharks would like to extend a warm welcome to all our supporters and the supporters, officials and players from Manly United tonight. Traditionally these games have always been closely contested affairs. It was no different in the first round clash when Manly scored a late goal to emerge 2-1 victors. The Sharks will be keen to avenge that loss on their home turf tonight. Our last home game saw the Sharks defeat Bonnyrigg White Eagles 2-1. It was a very good night for the club winning all three grades. The firsts and 20's are both coming off an away loss so will be hungry tonight. Nick Olsen and Ryoga Suyama both scored excellent goals. We hope to see similar exciting football with some tight defensive work led by Nick Littler and Jacob Tratt.

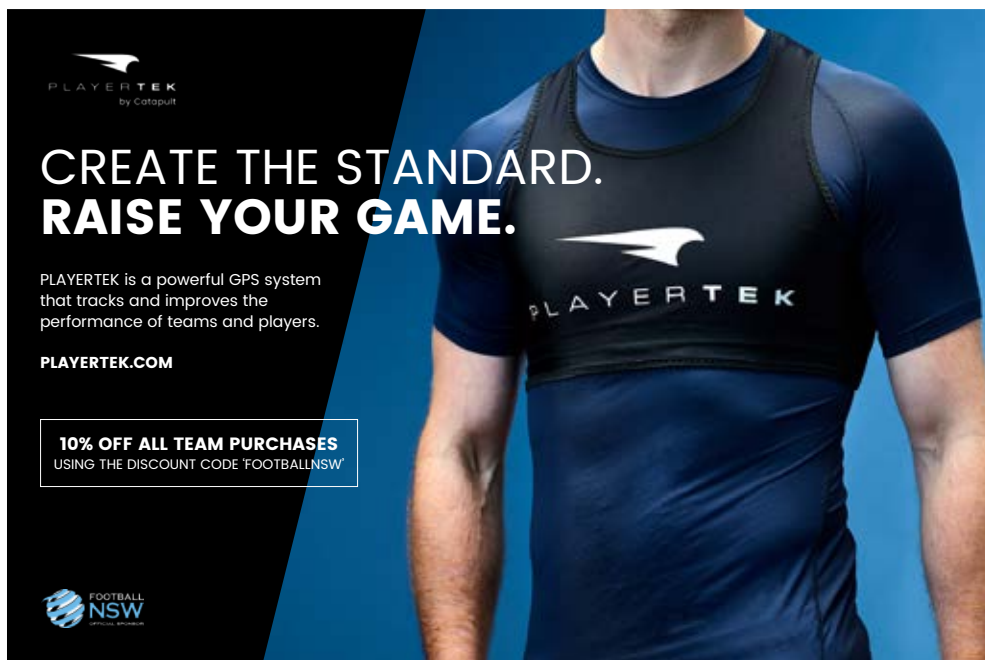

The under 20's remain on top of the competition ladder but need to return to their best form if they are going to get back to back titles. They have led the competition from Day 1 and with four games to go are still top of the leader board.

The 18's continued their good form with a convincing win against APIA. This young team continues to improve week by week and have picked up valuable club championship points. Most of the team are able to play 18's next year which augurs well for the club.

Our junior SSFA guests tonight come from the Bangor Brumbies Club. We'll see these future champions in the breaks as they show off their developing skills.

Let's support the Sharks tonight and hope for further Blues victories.

1ST GRADE MATCH PREVIEW

Sutherland Sharks will be determined to bounce back from last round's disastrous result when they host Manly United on Saturday.

The Sharks felt the full wrath of APIA Leichhardt Tiger's attacking force in a 6-2 loss.

Manly come into the match after a tough clash against Sydney FC and desperately need points to keep their slim finals hopes alive.

Grant Lee will hope a big week on the training paddock has helped revive his side from the malaise which cost them against title chasing APIA.

Manly will put their fitness and conditioning to the test with this match their second in four days.

With injuries playing a big part of their disappointing campaign, it will be interesting to see what coach Paul Dee has planned.

Both teams have a lot to play for and with only four games left in the season their is no room for error.

Expect a hard fought contest between these competitive outfits.

APIA Leichhardt Tigers FC 6 – Sutherland Sharks 2 at Lambert Park

A stunning Jordan Murray hat trick has helped APIA Leichhardt Tigers reclaim top spot in the National Premier Leagues NSW competition with a comprehensive 6-2 thrashing of Sutherland Sharks at Lambert Park on Sunday.

The competition's top scorer put APIA ahead early before the hosts were pegged back by Ryoga Suyama.

However, the Tigers pushed out to a 3-1 lead at halftime and never looked like going behind as they laid on another three after the break.

The result was a serious message of intent from the Lambert Park based side as they leapfrogged Sydney Olympic and move closer to an incredible defence of their Premiership title.

Manly United 1 – Sydney FC 0 at Cromer Park

Manly United held off a gallant Sydney FC side to secure a priceless 1-0 victory at Cromer Park last Wednesday evening in a crucial Round 18 clash.

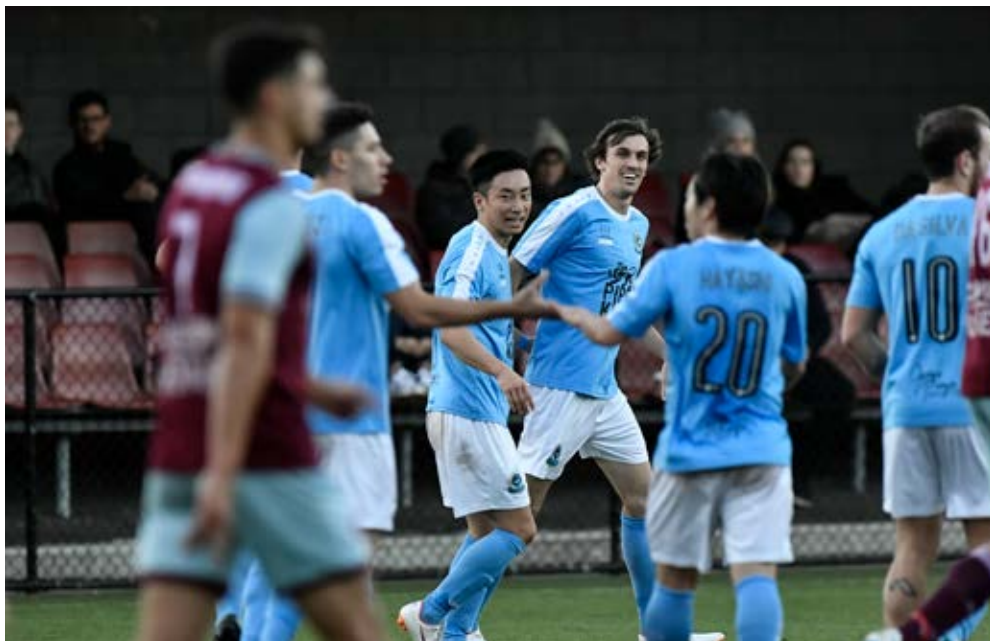

A Brendan Cholakian header inside the opening half an hour proved decisive in what was a tight tactical battle.

The visitors had their opportunities, but were denied by a couple of trademark Dylan Mitchell saves.

It was the victory the defending Champions were craving, having failed to secure maximum returns on their previous six outings.

However they were made to work for it by a stubborn Sydney FC outfit, who had only returned from the Free Trade Port International Football Tournament in Haikou City, China last Tuesday.

The win boosted Manly United's Club Championship points which is sure to come in handy come end of the season.

FEATURE STORY

ENGLISH OFFICIALS TO HIT THE NPL NSW MEN'S COMPETITION

Overseas talent is nothing new on the fields of New South Wales football, but in Round 20 of the National Premier Leagues NSW Men's competition there will be a different kind of elite foreign talent.

Former English Premier League referees Michael Salisbury and David Webb will be officiating two of Round 20's top-tier NPL NSW Men's matches with Manly United taking on Wollongong Wolves and Blacktown City hosting Rockdale City Suns penned in as the matches the duo will take over.

Salisbury will take charge of the clash at Cromer Park while Webb will oversee the big encounter at Lilys Football Stadium.

They will also be officiating in the NPL Victorian Premier League as part of their Australian visit.

One of Salisbury's major achievements as an official was getting his first taste of officiating at Wembley Stadium in May 2010 when he was appointed onto the National League play-off final as an assistant for the match between Oxford United v York City.

As a result from his performances as an assistant referee, he was then promoted into the professional game with his first appointment coming at Macclesfield Town.

After his time in the English lower leagues, Salisbury was then promoted into the English Premier League for the 2014/15 season and was an assistant referee for two seasons as well as achieving a position on the FIFA International list in 2016.

One of his finest moments was ironically his final appointment before being promoted onto the EFL National Group of Referees where he was an assistant referee in the 2016 FA Cup Final between Manchester United and Crystal Palace.

Webb also comes with some quality pedigree.

After beginning his journey as a referee in 1999, he progressed through non-league football in the North East of England before being promoted to the EFL Assistant Referees list and the National League referees in 2008/09

The last nine years has seen Webb referee in the Championship, League 1 and League 2 matches as well as major English Cup competitions.

Reflecting on his career, his major highlight thus far was officiating in the recent League 2 Play-Off Final at Wembley Stadium in front of 52,000 fans when Coventry City took on Exeter City.

This isn't the first time English Premier League referees have graced our football pitches in Sydney.

In 2016, Englishmen Stuart Atwell and Peter Banks both officiated in the NPL NSW Men's competition kick starting the relationship between our elite competition and the English game.

Sutherland Sharks slipped to a stunning defeat at the hands of APIA Leichhardt a fortnight ago, going down 3-1 to the Tigers at Lambert Park.

The Tigers blew their opponents away in the first half hour, with Thomas Hilton's second half strike little more than consolation for the Sharks as they missed the chance to push three points in front of Blacktown City FC at the top of the table.

Manly United, meanwhile, come into this weekend's match at Seymour Shaw on a high after a surprise result of their own, overcoming Sydney FC 4-1 at Cromer Park two weeks ago to minimise the damage for Sutherland.

It ended 3-1 to the Sharks when Manly United played host to this fixture back in April, thanks to goals from Ryoga Suyama, Blake Currey and James Temelkovski.
