1ST GRADE MATCH PREVIEW

Marconi Stallions have the chance of securing finals football in their first season back in the National Premier Leagues NSW with a win against Wollongong Wolves the Sunday all that stands in their way.

Peter Tsekenis' team have found form in the later stages of the season as shown in their 3-2 win against Sutherland Sharks last week.

Their opponents Wollongong Wolves were easily swept away last round as they suffered a 4-0 loss to Sydney Olympic.

Marconi will look to Sean Rooney and Marko Jesic in attack to break down Wollongong's experienced midfield.

The Wolves have had another underwhelming season and will be eyeing a win to close out the season.

The match could potentially be a swan song for a number of their veteran players so their will be inspiration for the Jacob Timpano coached side despite no longer being in finals contention.

A win should be enough for Marconi to wrap up a fifth placed finish but they will keep a close eye on the scoreline in Rockdale's match against Sydney FC as the Suns will try to close their three goal goal difference deficit.

It is sure to be a huge game to close out what has been a massive season for both teams.

Sutherland Sharks 2 – Marconi Stallions 3 at Seymour Shaw

Marconi Stallions have claimed a crucial 3-2 National Premier Leagues NSW Men's win over Sutherland Sharks.

The visitors bounced back from conceding in the first minute with goals to Michael Beauchamp, Sean Rooney and Marko Jesic ensuring the pressure remains on Rockdale City Suns in fifth position.

For Sutherland on the other hand, it's a period of transition and Grant Lee's troops put in a performance which nearly saw them take points off their visitors with goals to Nic Olsen and Hristijan Tanoski.

Wollongong Wolves 0 – Sydney Olympic 4 at Hooka Creek Park

Sydney Olympic has kept their premiership push alive with a dominant 4-0 win against Wollongong Wolves at Hooka Creek Park on Sunday.

A brace from Alejandro Sanchez-Lopez helped get the visitors over the line, with Nikolas Tsattalios and Max Burgess also getting on the scoresheet in a productive afternoon for the travelling side.

The result ensures the Abbas Saad coached side remains neck and neck with APIA Leichhardt Tigers for the Premiership and sets up a dramatic final round next week.

Sadly for Wollongong the loss means they finish yet another season outside the top five and out of contention for finals football.

Wollongong Wolves sit in fourth place heading into the final round of the regular season after a 1-0 win over Sydney Olympic last weekend, but will need a win against Marconi on Sunday to be absolutely certain of their place in the top five.

The Wolves have a better goal difference than both Hakoah and Sydney United below them but arguably face the toughest opponent of any of the three teams in Round 22, travelling up to Marconi Stadium to take on the Stallions.

Marconi narrowly missed out on the finals and have won four of their last five matches, their latest result a stunning 1-0 win over Sutherland Sharks which helped secure the Premiership for Blacktown City.

Wollongong won 3-0 when they hosted Marconi at WIN Stadium back in May. A league double over the Stallions in 2018 would surely be the perfect way to head into the finals.
