LILY HOMES STADIUM

CLUB WELCOME

Blacktown City Football Club (BCFC) welcomes its members, supporters, families and players to Round Two of the NSW NPL Men's Competition with a mouth-watering home fixture against Sydney United 58 FC.

Last weekend's Round One fixture was a solid win against local's Mt Druitt Town Rangers, whilst Sydney United 58 FC were held to a scoreless draw against Rockdale City Suns.

We welcome players and supporters from Sydney United 58 FC to Lily Homes Stadium in what will be a tough encounter, with free flowing football sure to be on the menu.

Our Under 20's scored a solid 3-1 victory last week, and our Under 18's will be looking for their first win after conceding in the dying seconds to lose 4-3. Again both these fixtures will be entertaining affairs with quality youngsters in both camps.

The real positive last weekend was the crowd numbers. There is nothing like running into Lily's Football Stadium with a full grandstand supporting the boys from BCFC. I know the lads appreciate the support and I hope to see you all again this week.

After the match we would love to see our supporters and young players, venture into Lily's function centre for the after match presentation of the Man of the Match, and enjoy the ice cold beverages and exquisite food on offer.

Good luck to our Youth teams this weekend against Rockdale City Suns. Last weekend we were victors in the 13's, 15's and 16's, whilst our 14's were held to a 1-1 draw.

We would also like to make special notice of our SAP players and wish them success on their opening weekend. Play well.

Mark Crittenden

MATCH PREVIEW

The Blacktown boys will again seek home comfort as they entertain Sydney United 58 in a hotly contested battle at Lily Homes Stadium on Sunday.

Mark Crittenden's men celebrated its opening win of the NPL NSW Men's season over rivals Mt Druitt Town Rangers courtesy of an own goal, but their performance wasn't their best.

Healthy performances from new recruit Leroy Jennings and midfield maestro Devante Clut rallied Critto's troops in their round one victory, and the pairing should again be involved in all the action against a tough United 58 squad.

Miro Vlastelica's men should have capitalised on a ten-man Rockdale City Suns outfit in their round one clash, but poor finishing let the Reds down.

Glenn Trifiro especially bore the brunt of the club's major chances United 58 had in their opener, with the attacker missing two guilt edge opportunities that should have sent the three points to the home side.

Lacking in an out and out striker, United 58 is set to welcome back Patrick Antelmi from suspension while former Central Coast Mariners attacker Josh

Macdonald is set to make his debut for the side after finalising his contract in the A-Legaue.

Veteran midfielder and skipper Nick Stavroulakis did his very best in keeping his former teammate Panny Nikas quiet during their round 1 clash, and his services will be needed once more when he takes on a midfield outfit full of energy and running.

Traditionally, this match has had a fair bit of fireworks surrounding it and Sunday will be no different as the two go toe to toe in a must watch match.

1ST GRADE REVIEWS

Blacktown City 1 Mt Druitt Town Rangers 0

Blacktown City welcomed new boys Mt Druitt Town Rangers to the National Premier Leagues NSW Mens competition in a scrappy but dominant match at Lily Homes Stadium decided by a solitary own goal to the unfortunate Rangers defender Nick Trimble.

In typical season opener, local derby, the pace was urgent and full bodied with Blacktown City penning their visitors back with the high press that produced several half chances without any clear-cut opportunities.

The spoils went to Mark Crittenden's men though as the final whistle went much to the delight of the home fans.

Sydney United 58 0 Rockdale City Suns 0

Round 1 of the 2019 National Premier Leagues NSW Men's season saw Sydney United Sports Centre play host to a tense stalemate between Sydney United 58 and a ten-man Rockdale City Suns outfit on Sunday night.

The eagerly-anticipated clash between two historic rivals ended scoreless, despite the visitors playing a man down for over an hour following new recruit Sasa Macura's 31st minute dismissal for two cautions.

It was also a return to his former ground with Panni Nikas, the much-hyped signing for the Suns, being kept quiet by his former teammates.

Notably, a frenetic conclusion saw United 58 custodian Thomas Manos stand tall to deny clear-cut chances for Howard Fondyke and substitute Alec Urosevski, whilst his teammate Glenn Trifiro failed to convert two golden opportunities up the other end.

The hosts may well have snatched all three points in second half stoppage time, as Matt Sim's curling effort was denied by the woodwork to the dismay of the spirited Edensor Park faithful.

U20'S MATCH PREVIEW

Blacktown City top the table after Round 1, and will be eager to prove that they're capable of staying there.

They begin 2019 with two matches at home, and welcome Sydney United 58 to Lily's Homes Stadium in Round 2 after a 3-1 win over Mt Druitt Rangers last weekend.

Sydney United face a tough task to avoid suffering another loss this week, having gone down 1-0 to Rockdale last Sunday.

Next week they take on a rested Wollongong Wolves side, with their match against APIA Leichhardt postponed. They will be desperate to pick up points against Blacktown to get a foothold in 2019.
