The passion for real estate that drove Hakoah FC Gold Sponsor Andre Frack to become a Principal of Richardson & Wrench Bondi Junction has not diminished a fraction in the 20 years since.

With over 25 years' experience, his leadership of one of the largest offices in the network (Andre was recently awarded Number 1 Principal in Australia as well as Bondi Junction being awarded Number 1 Office in the Nation) has been characterised by innovation, communication and an absolute commitment to secure the best result for his clients.

Good communication has been a major factor in Andre's success, keeping clients abreast of campaign progress and negotiating often complex deals to a resolution satisfactory to all parties.

His easy rapport with people from all walks of life makes Andre a natural salesperson with a well-earned reputation for achieving exceptional results in the Eastern Suburbs. And while his portfolio of sold properties includes $8 million plus luxury apartments, $30 million sites, he still derives just as much excitement from getting a $250,000 studio over the line.

Andre's broad experience allows him to fulfil his promise to make every sale a pleasurable, hassle free experience where the vendor can feel confident in getting the right advice - with an agent who knows how to market, how to sell and when to sell.

RWBJ are the Property Experts in sites, development, projects, sales and property management.

Awarded in the top 10 principals nationally in the Richardson & Wrench network since 1997.

MATCH PREVIEW

A third consecutive win will be the objective for Hakoah Sydney City East when they host Sydney Olympic at Hensley Athletic Field this Sunday.

The Eastern Suburbs side is flying high in second spot on the ladder and still flying under the radar after three rounds thanks to back to back wins against Sutherland Sharks and Rockdale Sydney City East.

Last week's 3-0 win against Rockdale was a brilliant display of Hakoah's patience and resilience as they weathered a storm of attack and limited possession to claw out a brilliant victory.

It will take a similar performance this week against the league's reigning champions and coach Gavin Rae will surely have his troops fired up for another big showing.

Ryan Norval has been in amazing form in recent weeks and he is set to be a vital piece of the puzzle in this week's matchup with the goalkeeper set for another busy outing between the sticks.

Amaury Gauthier up front and Adison Sayan in the middle of the park have also been impressive while Nathan Roberts has also provided a solid contribution.

Their opponents Sydney Olympic will be out to see if Hakoah are the real deal.

An incredible 3-3 draw last round against Blacktown City showed that Olympic have plenty of fighting spirit as they battled back from 2-0 down to secure a vital point.

Jason Madonis was the standout for the Abbas Saad coached Blues with his high energy performance.

Star striker Alex Sanchez is returning to top form and will be a handful for the Hakoah defence.

Olympic has not enjoyed the start to the season they would've envisioned but remain favourites for this clash.

Hakoah has shown they can hold their own and more against anyone and it wouldn't be a surprise if they replicate their victory from a week early.

One thing for sure is Hensley Athletic Field is set for a blockbuster this Sunday.

1ST GRADE REVIEWS

Rockdale City Suns 0 – Hakoah Sydney City East 3 at Ilinden Sports Centre

Hakoah Sydney City East have stunned Rockdale City Suns 3-0 in a performance no better described than a smash and grab in their National Premier Leagues NSW Men's clash at Ilinden Sports Centre on Sunday.

It was an incredible result for the Eastern Suburbs based side as they survived wave after wave of Rockdale attack, and less than 30 per cent possession, to snatch three points and a second straight win.

A goal to Nathan Roberts against the run of play helped the visitors take a surprise lead after 40 minutes despite seeing little of the ball for the majority of the first half.

It was more of the same in the second stanza with Gauthier converting from the penalty spot to double Hakoah's lead before securing victory with another at the death.

Ryan Norval was in inspired form for the visitors playing a major role in the win with a number of brilliant saves to deny Rockdale.

It was an unlikely result but one which is sure to be remembered by both sides long into the season.

Sydney Olympic 3 – Blacktown City 3 at Belmore Sports Centre

An incredible Sydney Olympic fightback has stunned Blacktown City as the reigning premiers snatched a dramatic 3-3 draw in their National Premier Leagues NSW Men's clash at Belmore Oval on Sunday.

The home side recovered from a two-goal deficit in the early stages of the game to earn a point in the action-packed clash.

Blacktown would've thought they were on their way to a big victory after only 15 minutes as they took a 2-0 lead thanks to goals from Grant Lynch and Leroy Jennings.

However, Olympic found their groove late in the opening stanza and fought their way back into the contest as Nikola Kuleski and Alex Sanchez both scored to level proceedings.

A Joey Gibbs goal early in the second half had the visitors in the drivers seat, but it wasn't to be with Olympic snatching a point thanks to a Jason Madonis goal 19 minutes from full time.

It was a thrilling encounter but is sure to leave both sides with plenty of questions heading into Round 4.

U20'S MATCH PREVIEW

Hakoah Sydney City East have just one point from three games so far this season, a dismal record on which they will be desperate to improve.

A 3-0 defeat to Rockdale City Suns in Round 3 should have Hakoah raring to go against Sydney Olympic on Sunday afternoon.

Olympic travel to Hensley Athletic Field in impressive form, having won both of their matches in 2019 against imposing opposition: they beat Sutherland Sharks in the opening round, and followed it up with a 3-1 defeat of Blacktown City last weekend.

The score was 1-0 to Hakoah when these sides met in 2018, but Olympic look the team to beat this year.
