CROMER PARK

CLUB WELCOME

Good evening and welcome to Cromer Park for this round three National Premier Leagues NSW men's division one clash between Manly United and Mt Druitt Town Rangers.

The match was moved from Popenetta Park earlier this week following the big wet in Sydney but Cromer Park is ready and waiting and Manly United are looking forward to a second consecutive game in front of its home fans.

The match between Manly United and Mt Druitt is the first time the two clubs have met in a competitive fixture for more than a decade but Manly United would like to welcome the boys from Mt Druitt to the top flight and to Cromer park.

Last weekend Manly United shared the spoils 1-1 with a vastly-improved Sydney FC team, which looks stronger and mentally tougher than previous seasons under coach Jimmy van Weeren.

Sam Gallagher made it two from two in front of goal with the defender scoring a fine header from a Scott Balderson cross, that was unfortunately cancelled out less than a minute later with the teams finishing the game 1-1.

Adam Parkhouse was named Premier Automotive Player of the Week last weekend and is starting to find the form that saw him leave Manly United two seasons ago for a stint in the Hyundai A-League with Wellington Phoenix.

For Mt Druitt, they will be hoping to get their season off to a start after going down 1-0 to Blacktown City in the first round before last week's clash with Sydney Olympic was postponed due to the wet weather that lashed the eastern seaboard.

The first grade game kicks off at 7.30pm.

As always, Let's Go Manly United!

MATCH PREVIEW

A maiden win for the 2019 season will be on the cards when Manly United and Mt Druitt Town Rangers face off at Cromer Park on Saturday.

Sydney's recent wild weather has meant the round three fixture has become a home game for Manly with Mt Druitt's Popondetta Park still recovering from the heavy rain.

Manly will be out to make the most of the unexpected return to Cromer and claim all three points after last week being held by Sydney FC 1-1.

Sam Gallagher found the back of the net for Paul Dee's Manly side for the second successive week and will be out to continue his impressive start to the campaign.

The pressure will also be on Manly's attacking stars of Brendan Cholakian, Dejan Pandurevic and Adam Parkhouse to make the most of their chances after being some what stifled by the Young Sky Blues in round two.

Mt Druitt come into the match after an impromptu week off after their game against Sydney Olympic last week was washed out.

The long break between their 1-0 opening round loss to local rivals Blacktown City has given them time to regroup as they set out for their first win in the NSW state league top flight since earning promotion.

Despite the loss against Blacktown, Mt Druitt didn't look out of place and hopefully Toufic Alameddine and Adrian Vranic can fire to help the Rangers on the scoresheet.

It is sure to be an exciting clash with both teams desperate to notch their first three points of the season.

1ST GRADE REVIEWS

Manly United 1 v Sydney FC 1

Manly United and Sydney FC were forced to settle for a share of the spoils following a tense 1-1 stalemate at Cromer Park on Sunday afternoon.

National Premier Leagues NSW Men's football returned to Cromer Park with a bang, with both sides scoring in the 15th and 16th minutes respectively.

The opener arrived courtesy of an impressive Sam Gallagher header, which nestled in the far corner of Thomas Hewerd-Bell's net.

Sydney FC then fired back instantly, as Hamish Lamberton left the Manly backline in his wake, weaving his way through on goal before poking the ball through the outstretched legs of Dylan Mitchell.

Despite the game initially shaping to be a goal-fest, the frequency of opportunities created by both sides progressively declined as the contest endured.

Sydney fcgrew to dominate the latter stages of the first half, culminating in Lamberton striking the crossbar with a well-timed rocket in additional time.

Manly then took the game to their youthful opponents in the second half, however ultimately failed to gather a clinical touch in the final third.

U20'S MATCH PREVIEW

Manly United picked up three points last week with a thrilling win over Sydney FC. Goals from Jack Berte, William Martin and Maximilian Rogers gave Manly their first win of the year, sending them into Round 3 confident of going back-to-back.

Their opposition this week is Mt Druitt Town Rangers, who travel to Cromer Park after their Round 2 match with Olympic was washed out. With a tough run of fixtures ahead, Mt Druitt will be keen to start picking up points to avoid sinking to the back of the pack.
