ROUND 02

Sunday
17 MARCH 2019

CROMER PARK

CLUB WELCOME

Good afternoon and welcome to what promises to be an entertaining round two National Premier Leagues NSW Men's clash at Cromer Park this Sunday.

Manly United play in front of their loyal fans for the first time in 2019, and they will no doubt be hoping for one way traffic across 90 minutes.

Sydney FC, coached by former Manly United identity Jimmy van Weeren, will provide a stern test.

The confidence of the talented youngsters will be sky high after they opened their campaign with a gritty 2-1 win over Hakoah Sydney City East last weekend, while Manly will be keen to bounce back following their disappointing 2-1 defeat at the hands of Wollongong Wolves.

Sam Gallagher is the player to watch for Manly United.

The experienced defender showcased his versatility on the NSW south coast, scoring what will no doubt be one of the goals of the season last from 30 yards, which helped him pick up the Premier Automotive Player of the Week award last Sunday.

Look for the hard-nosed stopper to also combine well next to Manly's "Mr Consistency"- Travis Oughtred.

For the visitors, young gun Harry Van Der Saag will be fired up for a big game.

He grew up on the northern beaches and would love to find the back of the net in front of family and friends for the Baby Sky Blues.

See you at the game, with kick-off at the slightly later time of 3.30pm.

As always, go you mighty Manly United FC!

MATCH PREVIEW

Cromer Park will see its first NPL NSW Men's clash of the season as the hosts Manly United entertain Sydney FC.

The Northern Beaches side are hoping that Paul Dee's return to the club will spark finals series talk and why not with the likes of Adam Parkhouse, Dejan Pandurevic, Brendan Cholakian and Sam Gallagher on their roster. The latter would be brimming with confidence after scoring a belter of a goal in the club's unfortunate 2-1 loss to the Wollongong Wolves, but the signs are there that Dylan Mitchell and co will be up for the task against a hungry Sydney FC outfit.

Jimmy Van Weeren's boys sent out an early message to the rest of the NPL NSW Men's competition that they won't be no pushovers after a 2-1 victory over Hakoah Sydney City East.

The talk of the weekend was the performance of striker Marco Tilio.

He was too hot to handle for the Hakoah squad and is hoping he can continue his good form against Manly United.

Another shining light for the Sky Blues was the performance of defender Harry Van Der Saag while Jordi Swibel showed his class in front of goal with the striker wanting to add to his goal scoring tally on Sunday. Van Der Saag in particular will be pumped for this match as the promising youngster hails from the Northern Beaches and is hoping that he can pull out a good performance in front of his friends and family as well as the FC faithful.

A quality match will be on display at Cromer Park with two energetic teams ready for battle.

1ST GRADE REVIEWS

Wollongong Wolves 2 Manly United 1

A new-look Wollongong Wolves kicked off their 2019 National Premier League NSW Men's campaign off in the best possible way with a 2-1 win over Manly United at Albert Butler Memorial Park on Sunday.

In coach Luke Wilkshire's first competitive game in the Wollongong dugout, the Wolves netted all three points thanks to goals from Thomas James and Jordan Nikolovski, while an early goal of the season contender from Manly's Sam Gallagher gave the travelling fans something to cheer for.

Hakoah Sydney City East 1 Sydney FC 2

Sydney FC proved they won't be pushovers in this season's National Premier Leagues NSW Men's competition claiming the scalp of Hakoah Sydney City East FC at Hensley Athletic Field as new coach Jimmy Van Weeren started off his campaign on the right note.

Goals on either side of half time to young gun Marco Tilio and the winner from Jordan Swibel ensured that they came away with the spoils.

For home side Hakoah Sydney City East, it was clear that their combinations haven't quite yet clicked. Despite this Amaury Gauthier was able to score from the spot and did show signs of getting in to the match but it wasn't to be as the Sky Blues claimed all three points.

U20'S MATCH PREVIEW

Manly won this fixture 4-1 when these two sides met at Cromer Park in 2018, and the hosts will be hoping they're able to repeat history when Sydney FC visit on Sunday afternoon.

Manly were dealt a 2-0 defeat by Wollongong Wolves last weekend, and will see this match as an ideal opportunity to properly get their season underway.

Sydney FC play their second consecutive match on the road at the start of the 2019 season, and should be satisfied with a result at Cromer Park before travelling back to Lambert Park next weekend.

They picked up a point from a 1-1 draw with Hakoah Sydney City East in Round 1, leaving last season's losing finalists still looking forward to their first win of the year.
