MARCONI STADIUM

CLUB WELCOME

The Marconi Stallions are looking to make it two wins in a row when they host Manly United.

A much needed 2-0 win over Sydney FC was the club's first of the season and had everyone breathing much easier after having previously dropped the first two games of 2019.

It was a precious three points away from home and the Stallions will go in full of confidence and will fancy their chances at home.

Manly United have started the season slowly, dropping their first match against Wollongong and following up with draws against Sydney FC and Mt Druiitt.

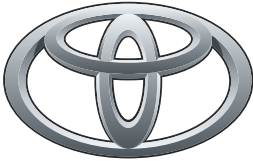

This is the start of four successive home matches for Marconi Stallions who currently sit in eighth spot on the ladder.

If they are to be the big improvers most experts are tipping, they will need to collect maximum points in these matches starting with Manly United.

MATCH PREVIEW

Marconi Stallions found their groove last week and will be out to make it two wins on the trot when they host Manly United on Saturday.

Their round three win against Sydney FC was the first victory of the campaign and a return to form for the Stallions.

New recruit Anthony Frangie had his best game in Marconi colours so far which is sure to excite club coach Peter Tsekenis and their fans.

Frangie isn't the only new recruit at Marconi Stadium making a mark with Girogio Speranza proving to be an inspired acquisition.

With so many talented players on their roster, Marconi will be sure to test any opposition and their opponents this week Manly know they will need to be at their best.

The Northern Beaches based side were held to a 2-2 draw by Mount Druitt last week despite taking an early lead.

It was the second straight draw for Manly who have yet to taste victory this season.

Against Marconi they will look to creative midfielder Brendan Cholakian, who claimed a brace against Mount Druitt, one an absolute pearl of a shot, as well as defensive contributor Kieran Paull.

Desperate for a win, Manly will throw everything at Marconi's star studded squad.

It is sure to be an exciting match with plenty of goals on the menu.

1ST GRADE REVIEWS

Sydney FC 0 – Marconi Stallions 2 at Lambert Park

Marconi Stallions edged a tight game against Sydney FC on Saturday night, scoring a first-half penalty and adding another in the second half to take all three points at Lambert Park.

Marko Jesic kept a cool head under pressure from the spot, and put the visitors into a lead which they would not relinquish.

Sydney FC rarely offered up anything to threaten the scoreboard, and the Stallions scored a second after the break to hold on for their first win of 2019; a valuable result away from home.

Manly United 2 – Mount Druitt Town Rangers 2 at Cromer Park

Manly United and Mount Druitt Town Rangers have played out a dramatic 2-2 draw after a breathless second stanza saw in a storm-affected National Premier Leagues NSW Men's fixture at Cromer Park on Saturday night.

In a clash that was originally scheduled to take place at Mt Druitt's Popondetta Park, mother nature continued to wreak havoc as the devoted Northern Beaches crowd saw kick off delayed by over an hour due to nearby lightning.

And while the contest initially threatened to fizzle out into obscurity, a frenetic final forty-five minutes saw four goals scored in the space of sixteen minutes.

The visitors clawed back Manly on two occasions, as set piece strikes courtesy of Cooper Coskiere and Nick Trimble cancelled out a Brendan Cholakian brace.

It was a gutsy performance from Mount Druitt, who created their fair share of opportunities to win it despite losing three players to injury in the first half and being pinned back by a determined Manly side for extended periods.

U20'S MATCH PREVIEW

Marconi have only played one game in 2019 to date, and will go into their Round 4 clash keen to get their season up and running.

The Stallions were held to a goalless draw by Sydney FC last weekend, and will have a good chance to build on that performance when they take on Manly United at Marconi Stadium on Saturday afternoon.

The visitors come into this one on the back of a 1-0 win over Mt Druitt Town Rangers, having beaten Sydney FC 3-2 the previous weekend.

Marconi won 2-1 when these sides met in Bossley Park in 2018. Both sides would seem similarly matched this season.
