SEYMOUR SHAW

CLUB WELCOME

It is with great anticipation that we welcome last year's grand finalists APIA Leichhardt Tigers to Seymour Shaw. It was great to see the spectator support for the Sharks last week despite the terrible weather. After defeating last year's premiers, Sydney Olympic 1-0 in the opening round the Sharks 1st grade team were unable to repeat the dose against Hakoah Eastern Suburbs last week.

This should be an exciting contest. The Tigers will be eager to avenge their defeat last week when the Wollongong Wolves caused a 3-0 upset. The Sharks will be looking to their experienced players like Mateo Poljak, Marc Warren, Raul Romero & Juan Carlos to guide them against a seasoned Tigers outfit. Under 20's player Alexander Lopez is showing great promise and after coming "off the bench" against Olympic made his starting debut for the Sharks last week.

The 20's bounced back to the winners circle with a game 2-1 defeat over Hakoah. Jarrad Wiley got himself on the scorers list with the other being an own goal. The team is showing great potential and will hopefully prove to be a most formidable outfit.

The 18's were disappointed not to get the points, going down 1-0 to Hakoah. Coach Vince Milicevic and assistant Alex Anagnostasiadis will be looking forward to the team continuing their good form showed in round 1.

We are lucky to have such a strong juniors in the Shire and tonight the under 9 SAP teams will provide some entertainment in the breaks so we should cheer them on. The SAP under 11's have the ball boy duties tonight. All SAP teams are showing significant improvement and are among the top.

As always, fingers crossed for more shark victories tonight!!!

MATCH PREVIEW

Sutherland Sharks will be determined to prove last week's shock loss was a rare lapse and not a sign of things to come when they host APIA Leichhardt Tigers at Seymour Shaw on Saturday.

The Sharks made a fast start to the 2019 season with a stunning 1-0 win on the road against reigning premiers Sydney Olympic, but a loss to Hakoah Sydney City East last week was a sudden crash back to earth for the boys from the Shire.

Coach Terry Palapanis will be looking to Marc Warren to help marshal the defence as he did in week one, while the combination between Spanish midfield duo Juan and Raul Romero with Jeremy Cox up front will be the cornerstone of Sutherland's attack.

Their opponents APIA Leichhardt Tigers come into the game with a similar point to prove.

John Calleja's side was on the wrong side of a 3-0 thumping from Wollongong and are driven to bounce back in quick fashion.

New signing Chris Payne is hoping he can kick start his goal scoring tally with his new club against the Sharks after he had a number of flawed changes in the team's humbling 3-0 loss to the Wollongong Wolves last Sunday.

Aside from Payne, Calleja is hoping his defence will keep it water tight as they were in 2018 so expect big games from Themba Muata Marlow and Josh Symons while expect the return from suspension of Paul Galimi to hype up his troops.

Early season results are important in setting the standard for the year ahead so expect nothing less than an all out grudge match when these sides face off.

1ST GRADE REVIEWS

Sutherland Sharks 0 v Hakoah Sydney City East 1

A solitary Jack Green strike proved the difference for Hakoah Sydney City East against Sutherland Sharks in a tight encounter at Seymour Shaw on Saturday night.

In an end-to-end contest that could well have produced more goals, both sides were at times wasteful in the final third.

The defining moment of the night arrived six minutes into the second half as Hakoah fullback Jack Green won the ball back on halfway and marauded into the Sharks' penalty area, before lashing home a thunderous half-volley at the front post.

Whilst the hosts tried as they might to conjure a response, they were repeatedly denied thanks to an outstanding display from their former shot-stopper Ryan Norval.

The result signaled a turnaround in fortunes for both clubs: the hosts were ultimately unable to replicate the form that saw them topple reigning premiers Sydney Olympic last time out, while Hakoah recorded their first victory of the campaign following a disappointing Round 1 display against Sydney FC.

APIA Leichhardt Tigers 0 v Wollongong Wolves 3

APIA Leichhardt Tigers fell to their first defeat of the season on Sunday afternoon as Wollongong Wolves' Englishman Thomas James ran rampant on a slick surface at Lambert Park hitting a hat-trick with a 3-0 victory.

The hosts started slowly, and were ultimately undone by individual mistakes which were duly punished by a striker in form.

James opened the scoring midway through the first half, before adding a second and a third to complete his hat trick with twenty minutes remaining.

APIA pushed in the closing stages but couldn't apply a finishing touch to encouraging build-up work, and are left with work to do at the end of the second week of the season.

It's been a promising start for Luke Wilkshire's troops who after two rounds have been the talk of the league hoping that they can further their victories with a tricky away trip to Sydney United 58 in round 3.

U20'S MATCH PREVIEW

Sutherland rallied for their first win of 2019 in Round 2, and will be looking to string a few results together when they take on APIA Leichhardt on Saturday afternoon.

The Sharks beat Hakoah Sydney City East 2-1 last weekend, while APIA are playing their first match of the year after taking part in the Viareggio Cup.

Saturday's match gives the Tigers an opportunity to demonstrate early improvement this season, having lost this fixture 4-1 in 2018.
