CLUB WELCOME

Good evening everyone and welcome to Lambert Park for tonight's clash against the Wollongong Wolves.

Last weekend's result against Marconi was disappointing but it's one our players will learn from and one that fills us with optimism for the season ahead. The boys stood up to the more physically mature Marconi and held their own and now we work on the final third to create more chances to score in games.

We can put to the test tonight what we've been working on this week and I'm confident of another assured showing against more strong opposition in the Wolves.

We're looking forward to a thoroughly enjoyable encounter this evening.

We'd like to thank all our Members and fans for their backing and we're looking forward to seeing everyone in the stands tonight.

MATCH PREVIEW

Sydney FC will be out to upset the competition leaders on Saturday when they host Wollongong Wolves at Lambert Park.

The Young Sky Blues were given a reality check last round as they suffered a 2-0 loss to Marconi Stallions.

It was a tough day at the office for Sydney FC who struggled to find their way in attack.

They will need to work on their effort in the final third if they are to get the win this weekend.

Once again Marco Tilio was the main outlet in attack but he will need some assistance.

Their opponents this week is a Wollongong side flying high at the top of the table.

New coach Luke Wilkshire has the team excelling and unbeaten in three games.

One of the star players has been striker Thomas James who just can't stop scoring and added to his tally once again last week against Sydney United 58.

He really has been the talk of the NPL NSW Men's competition.

Japanese Midfielder Takeru Okada also had a breakthrough performance last round against Sydney United 58 and will be full of confidence for a another big showing.

Wollongong have set the pace this season so far and they will be tough to beat.

However, Sydney's young players shouldn't be written off and if they can put in a strong performance they will be in with a shot of pulling off an upset.

1ST GRADE REVIEWS

Sydney FC 0 – Marconi Stallions 2 at Lambert Park

Marconi Stallions edged a tight game against Sydney FC on Saturday night, scoring a first-half penalty and adding another in the second half to take all three points at Lambert Park.

Marko Jesic kept a cool head under pressure from the spot, and put the visitors into a lead which they would not relinquish.

Sydney FC rarely offered up anything to threaten the scoreboard, and the Stallions scored a second after the break to hold on for their first win of 2019; a valuable result away from home.

Sydney United 58 2 – Wollongong Wolves 2 at Sydney United Sports Centre

Sydney United 58 FC has put an end to Wollongong Wolves winning start to the season as they fought back to snatch a 2-2 draw in their National Premier Leagues NSW Men's clash at Edensor Park on Sunday.

It was a determined performance from United 58 who twice fought back from a goal behind to deny the Wolves a third win on the trot.

Thomas James added to his incredible scoring run to break the deadlock after 38 minutes to give the visitors a 1-0 lead at the break.

The game exploded into action in the second half as Jordan Roberts equalised for the home side 58 minutes in, before Nikola Djordjevic hit back for Wollongong moments later to return the South Coast side to the lead.

However, United 58 would have the last laugh with Tariq Maia finding the back of the net with only seven minutes left on the clock to secure a vital point for the Miro Vlastelica coached side.

U20'S MATCH PREVIEW

Sydney FC could only grind out a scoreless draw with Marconi last weekend, giving the Sky Blues their second point of 2019.

They will be keen to catch up with the leading pack sooner rather than later, and will welcome the opportunity to host Wollongong Wolves at Lambert Park on Saturday afternoon.

Sydney FC beat Wollongong 4-1 when these sides came together here last season, but will face a team in the ascendancy this weekend.

The Wolves overcame Sydney United 58 in Round 3 to record their second win of the year, and travel to Lambert Park in fourth place with a game in hand.
