CLUB WELCOME

Welcome to the start of the 2019 season, a season which we hope will be very fruitful. Last season we fell one step short of a Grand Final appearance and are determined to make an amends this season.

We have retained Miro Vlastelica as coach and appointed Jerry Bilokapic as his assistant.

We welcome players, fans and officials of Rockdale and anticipate a competitive encounter.

MATCH PREVIEW

What a mouth-watering clash we have in stall as Sydney United 58 take on the Rockdale City Suns in a match that has so many dominating headlines pre kick-off.

The major one being Panny Nikas returning to his old stomping ground with the new colours of the Suns.

The question remains, will Nikas be able to replicate his golden form he once had at United 58 with his new troops?

Head coach Paul Reid who hung the boots last year will no doubt look towards Nikas for that magic alongside some other big players the club has managed to snare with ex-Manly United star Sasa Macura being another.

The club lost influential midfielder Blake Ricciuto who will no doubt be a huge loss for the club but Reid will have players such as skipper Daniel Petkovski, Alec Urosevski, Alec Canak, Idris El Hafiane and Jordan Figon to spearhead the side to glory.

United 58 coach Miro Vlastelica will need to cope with the loss of not only Nikas but another goal getter in Chris Payne who made the off-season switch to APIA.

The Reds will be down on numbers on opening day as their new signings in former Uruguayan youth international Sebastian Gallegos and former Wolves attacker Peter Simonovski have been ruled out through injuries sustained during the off-season.

Former Australian youth international Liam Rose will hope he can spearhead his playing career once more with his coming to the club while Vlastelica will rely heavily on the shoulders of inspirational captain Nick Stavroulakis as well as the experience of Yianni Fragogiannis, Petar Markovic, Yianni Perkatis, Matthew Bilic and Glenn Trifiro to get their season off to a good start.

Club keeper Tom Manos will once again pull the strings underneath the goal posts while Patrick Antelmi, although suspended for this game, will hope he can regain his 2017 form by hitting the back of the net for the club in more ways than one.

Expect fireworks at Edensor Park, a huge clash to kick things off.

NPL SEASON LAUNCH

EXCITING SEASON AHEAD

The National Premier Leagues NSW 2019 Season was launched by Football NSW at Ultra Football in Alexandria on Saturday where media and representatives from the NPL community attended.

A cocktail function for 120 guests with Master of Ceremonies and Fox Sports' very own Adam Peacock took control of proceedings which also included representatives from all Football NSW National Premier League Clubs, FFA, Football NSW Board Members and Major Sponsors.

A player's panel representing both top tier National Premier Leagues NSW Men's and Women's competitions took shape as Marconi Stallions coach Peter Tsekenis, Sydney FC's rising young gun Luke Ivanovic, Sydney Olympic's Spanish sensation Alejandro Sanchez, Football NSW Institute coach Leah Blayney, Sydney University's W-League star Taren King and former Socceroo ace Scott Chipperfield who is now the Illawarra Stingrays coach all promoted the key role the NPL has played with the continual development of the world game in NSW.

The launch also played way to Football NSW announcing its landmark three-year live stream deal that will see all six NPL NSW Men's and Women's matches live streamed as well as a match of the round for the NPL 2 NSW Men's competition on top of each of the NPL NSW Men's 20's matches.

Football NSW Chief Executive Officer Stuart Hodge stated that the event accomplished its intention in celebrating the launch of all National Premier Leagues NSW competitions.

"I'm thrilled to be able to enjoy the launch of this season with so many of those that champion this competition.

"The NPL in New South Wales is a very important part of the football landscape and player pathway in Australia and I know it will continue to strengthen with what will be a solid 2019 football season for all involved.

"Season launches are wonderful occasions to come together socially and catch up with old friends, and even adversaries, but in football terms they are a time for optimism, for positivity, for anticipation, for expectation and hopefulness for the coming season.

"It's a great way to launch the year with our blockbuster live stream deal that will see us watch a plethora of football action each and every NPL weekend from both top tiers of our NPL as well as a match of the round in the NPL 2 NSW Men's.

"I would like to wish all the clubs the best of luck as I know we will be treated to some fantastic football this year."

Both the National Premier Leagues NSW Men's and Women's competitions commence on Sunday the 10th of March with some huge clashes that are sure to light up both leagues to kick off round 1 proceedings.

Sportswear giant MITRE will once again support the competition as the Official Ball of the NPL NSW Men's and Women's Competitions using the Delta Max for each of the respective matches this season.

U20'S MATCH PREVIEW

Sydney United 58 will be looking to build on an impressive 2018 season this year, following a fourth placed finish during the regular season and a run to the semi finals which ended in defeat against eventual champions Sutherland Sharks. They face a tricky first round fixture against last year's wooden spooners Rockdale City Suns, who are set for a much improved 2019 after strengthening in preseason.

The Suns have kept two players from last season's 20s squad while bringing eight up from the 18s, while coach Steve Zoric says there'll be five new faces at the club this season. He says preseason has been very promising despite a few disappointing results due to heavy rotation, and says he expects Rockdale will be firing on all cylinders and ready to compete with the top sides once they get back into the groove of competition football.

FOOTBALL NSW ANNOUNCEMENT

LANDMARK LIVE STREAMING SCHEDULE FOR NPL NSW

In a major boost for football fans, Football NSW today announced a landmark broadcast schedule for National Premier Leagues (NPL) competitions in NSW.

As part of a three-year production arrangement, NPL NSW fans will see an astonishing 445 matches broadcast, live and free across various platforms in 2019.

This will include all NPL NSW Men's top tier matches, all NPL NSW Women's and all NPL NSW Men's U20 matches.

A "match of the round" from the NPL 2 NSW Men's competition will also be shown.

Football NSW's centrepiece matches including both the NPL NSW Men's and Women's Finals Series as well as the historic Waratah Cup Final will also be broadcast live for fans.

Fans will also be able to watch highlights and games on-demand via Football NSW's NPL social media channels.

In addition to the live coverage, participating clubs, coaches and referees will also have access to vision both live and on-demand throughout the year for ongoing development and analysis.

Football NSW CEO Stuart Hodge was thrilled to announce the plans.

"This is fantastic news for football and our fans," Hodge said.

"Over the past two seasons, we have seen the impact and growth of our live streamed matches and we are delighted to be able to further extend on that success in 2019"

"The broadcast of 445 NPL NSW live matches will be a game-changer for the sporting and commercial profile of the NPL competitions and our clubs."

"Football NSW has continued to enhance our streaming capabilities over the past couple of years. Further growth in this area will harness the growing interest in the NPL competitions."

"Never before has football viewing been more accessible. I'm excited that our top-tier competitions will be available to a worldwide audience."

The live broadcast will commence with the Match of the Round in the opening NPL 2 NSW Men's competition round as Blacktown Spartans take on Bonnyrigg White Eagles on Saturday 2nd of March while all 6 NPL NSW Men's top tier and 20s matches will be streamed live on the 10th of March.
