MATCH PREVIEW

APIA Leichhardt Tigers will be looking to add to the misery of a struggling Rockdale City Suns team when the two sides face off at Lambert Park on Sunday.

The Tigers claimed a huge statement victory last round with a 3-1 triumph against Sydney United 58 thanks to a masterclass from star signing Chris Payne who netted a hat-trick against his former club.

Sunday's performance was APIA's best so far this year and a big statement of intent from last season's Waratah Cup winners.

Payne showed yet again why he has been so successful in this competition and will be salivating at the chance of taking on a defence low on confidence after two sapping defeats.

Coach John Calleja could have some tough selection decisions to make with Paul Galimi excelling at centre back against United 58 in place of usual starter Josh Symons who was on the bench.

Young midfielder Sam McIlhatton has also been a handy player for APIA off the bench and he will also be pushing for a starting berth.

The club will also unearth a new weapon in former Kiwi International Andre De Jong. The ace attacker was one of Hakoah Sydney City East's finest stars and he will certainly add more spark to what is a pretty strong attack.

Rockdale on the other hand have had a horror fortnight and come into the match after two heartbreaking losses to Hakoah Sydney City East and Mount Druitt Town Rangers.

The most frustrating thing for Paul Reid and his team has been that they have dominated both matches and should've claimed big wins if they were able to make the most of their plethora of chances.

Jordan Figon made a return to the starting line-up to replace Jonathan Grozdanovski last week but he too struggled to find the score sheet.

Star signing Panny Nikas missed last week with injury and Rockdale will be hoping he can make a speedy return – however early prognosis has hinted that he may be spending a weeks on the sidelines.

Reid will be desperate to find the answer to his side's struggles but a grudge match against a high flying APIA won't give him much room for error.

Rockdale will need to get out of their funk fast if they're to take home any points from this encounter especially with a fired up APIA looking stronger by the week.

1ST GRADE REVIEWS

Sydney United 58 1 – APIA Leichhardt Tigers 3 at Sydney United Sports Centre

A sensational Chris Payne hat-trick has buried his former side Sydney United 58 as APIA Leichhardt claimed a 3-1 win in a blockbuster National Premier Leagues NSW Men's clash at Sydney United Sports Centre on Sunday.

It was a fairytale return to the ground where Payne called home for three seasons with the veteran front man delivering a striking masterclass in front of his former fans.

An absolute screamer on the bounce from an Ivan Necevski goal kick opened Payne's account on the cusp of half time.

United 58 levelled the score thanks to some clinical finishing from Patrick Antelmi but it was Payne's day with the former A-League striker finishing off a sublime Franco Parisi assist to give APIA a 2-1 lead in the 68th minute.

Payne wrapped up the result, and his hat-trick, in the dying stages of the match when he converted from the penalty spot to condemn United 58 to their first defeat of the season.

Rockdale City Suns 0 – Mount Druitt Town Rangers 2 at Ilinden Sports Centre

A superb performance from Mount Druitt Town Rangers goal keeper Carlos Saliadarre has helped his side to their maiden National Premier Leagues NSW Men's victory as they defeated Rockdale City Suns 2-0 at Ilinden Sports Centre on Sunday.

Saliadarre pulled off countless saves to keep his side in the tie after Jordan Gomez netted from the spot and a stoppage time winner from Cooper Coskerie secured the points.

It was all Rockdale for much of the match and if it wasn't for the display of the visiting glove man they would surely have secured the points.

The result was Rockdale's second straight home defeat in as many games and their second straight match without a goal. It's sure to have coach concerned moving forward.

U20'S MATCH PREVIEW

APIA Leichhardt Tigers will be looking to bounce back against Rockdale City Suns this weekend following a disappointing loss to Sydney United in Round 4.

The Tigers have four points from three games in 2019 to date, and sit seventh with a game to make up against Wollongong.

This weekend they host Rockdale at Lambert Park; the Suns no doubt still stinging after a crushing defeat at home to Mt Druitt last week. Still, the visitors remain third with a game in hand, and could begin to consolidate their spot in the top-half of the table with a win here.
