LILY HOMES STADIUM

CLUB WELCOME

Blacktown City FC welcomes home players and spectators along with our visitors from Rockdale City to what will be a typical hard fought fixture between the two clubs in round eight of the NPL NSW Men's competition.

Blacktown are coming off a strong performance away to APIA Leichhardt Tigers which ended in a 1-1 draw, whilst Rockdale have won their past two after a change in coaching staff.

Our 20's and 18's continued their good form with the 18's winning 4-1 and the 20's winning 1-0.

We wish our Girls Conference League, Youth and SAP players all the best for the weekend.

Blacktown City thanks our sponsors for their continued support, and don't forget at the completion of today's fixture to venture across the bridge to Lily's Function Centre and enjoy an ice cold refreshment and a quality menu of fine foods.

Blacktown City will be hosting our Corporate night on Saturday 8th of June, so check out our FaceBook page for details. You can contact Claudia at claudia@lilysfootballcentre.com.au for enquiries and to book your tables.

MATCH PREVIEW

Blacktown City will be hoping to reclaim third spot on the ladder with victory against a resurgent Rockdale City Suns outfit at Lily Homes Stadium on Sunday.

Blacktown fought back to snatch a draw against APIA Leichhardt Tigers last week thanks only seven days after snatching a win with some more heroics in the late stages against Sydney FC.

Mark Crittenden's side has maintained the never say die attitude which helped the veteran coach lead the club to numerous titles this decade.

Expect few if any changes to his side for this match but if any player possibly earning themselves a promotion to the starting side it is James Demetriou who has scored twice in as many weeks after coming off the bench.

Star midfielder and former A-League player Devante Clut was an unused substitute against APIA so he may be another player who could be elevated into the line-up.

Rockdale come into the game on the up and up with two straight wins under interim coach Nick Porecca.

Much improved performances from the Illinden Sports Centre based side has given hope to Rockdale fans and they will be determined to stretch their new success as far as possible.

However, one headache for Porecca will be managing star player Alec Urosevski's groin injury which has limited the prolific winger's involvement in recent weeks.

Expect an exciting contest which could go down to the wire.

1ST GRADE REVIEWS

APIA Leichhardt Tigers 1 – Blacktown City FC 1 at Lambert Park

A late Corey Biczo goal has helped APIA Leichhardt Tigers snatch a point as they were held to a 1-1 draw in their National Premier Leagues NSW Men's clash against Blacktown City at Lambert Park on Good Friday.

Biczo's goal helped APIA take home a point from a tentative display from both sides with the match only coming alive in the final stages of the clash.

Blacktown's James Demetriou would've have thought he'd won it for his side when he scored off the bench at Lambert Park for the second week in a row, but Biczo was on hand a few minutes later to save the day for the hosts.

It was the second low scoring draw in as many weeks for the Tigers who once again missed the chance to take top spot.

Rockdale City Suns FC 2 v Sydney FC 1 at Ilinden Sports Centre

A two-goal flurry inside three second half minutes has helped Rockdale City Suns to a confidence boosting 2-1 win against Sydney FC at Ilinden Sports Centre on Sunday.

Aleks Canak and Alec Urosevski's strikes midway through the second stanza lifted the Rockdale faithful and helped interim coach Nick Porecca to his second straight National Premier Leagues NSW Men's win.

A first half dominated by the goalkeepers opened up after the break with Rockdale desperately pushing for an opening goal.

However, with 20 minutes let on the clock Canak broke through the resilient Sydney defence and Urosevski followed only moments later.

A late goal to Marco Tilio for the Young Sky Blues made for a tetchy closing minutes but a dramatic equaliser wasn't to be as Rockdale climbed up the table with a big home victory.

U20'S MATCH PREVIEW

Blacktown City take on third-placed Rockdale City Suns on Sunday afternoon, with the visitors eager to avoid falling further behind the competition leaders.

A 1-0 win over APIA Leichhardt Tigers in Round 7 helped Blacktown hold their two-point lead over Sydney Olympic, and five-point lead over Rockdale below them.

Rockdale drew 1-1 with Sydney FC last weekend; Jake Trajkovski scoring the only goal for his side. Rockdale have struggled for consistency in recent weeks, and can't afford to have a poor game at Lilys on Sunday afternoon.
