MATCH PREVIEW

APIA Leichhardt Tiger's Kiwi International Andre de Jong is set for his first match against his former club Hakoah Sydney City East when the two teams go head to head at Hensley Athletic Field on Sunday night.

It will only be de Jong's second match in an APIA Jersey after joining the Lambert Park based club following three successful seasons at Hakoah which included their Waratah Cup win in 2017 and run to the FFA Cup quarter-finals.

Hakoah come into the match after having suffered two losses on the trot and will be determined to get back to winning ways.

They won't want their former club star having a field day at his former hunting grounds with Sydney City East coach Gavin Rae sure to implement a strategy to nullify their one time favourite son.

Solid defensive performances helped deliver back-to-back wins in the opening weeks for Hakoah but the side has been unable to find that defensive steel over the past fortnight to slump to a record of two wins and three losses from their five games so far.

Against APIA they will need to find a way to rediscover that defensive solidarity with de Jong just one of many talented players they will need to contend with.

In contrast to Hakoah, The Tigers have taken their game to a new level over the past two weeks with big wins over competition favourites Sydney United 58 and Rockdale City Suns.

One player they will need to watch for is Chris Payne who has five goals from two matches.

APIA boss John Calleja has his team playing great football and the addition of de Jong to the team is a scary proposition for their opponents.

Hakoah has been a little bit of a bogey team for APIA in recent seasons with a handful of big upsets against the Tigers.

The Eastern Suburbs side know how to get under APIA's skin and shouldn't be underestimated on Sunday.

1ST GRADE REVIEWS

Marconi Stallions 3 – Hakoah Sydney City East 1 at Marconi Stadium

A Mirjan Pavlovic brace has helped inspire Marconi Stallions back into the winners circle as the claimed a 3-1 National Premier Leagues NSW Men's win against Hakoah Sydney City at Marconi Stadium on Sunday.

Pavlovic found the back of the net each side of the interval as his Marconi Side secured only their second win of the 2019 season.

The veteran striker notched his first after 16 minutes to give the Stallions the perfect start but Hakoah's Shohei Okhuno equalised for the visitors sending both sides into the break deadlocked at one apiece.

Marconi lifted their game in the second stanza with Marko Jescic scoring only moments after the restart before Pavlovic wrapped up the result by scoring his second of the night.

APIA Leichhardt Tigers 4 – Rockdale City Suns 0 at Lambert Park

APIA Leichhardt Tigers have heaped extra misery on a struggling Rockdale City Suns outfit with a 4-0 demolition job of they rivals during their National Premier Leagues NSW Men's clash at Lambert Park on Sunday.

It was a one sided display with APIA rarely looking troubled throughout the 90 minutes as they handed Rockdale their third defeat in as many games.

Chris Payne followed on from last week's hat-trick performance by scoring a double in the win while captain Sean Symons and new signing Andre De Jong also finding the back of the net.

It was the third straight game Rockdale's high profile attack failed to score leaving coach Paul Reid with some big decisions to make if he is to help the side resuscitate their season.

U20'S MATCH PREVIEW

Hakoah managed a 3-3 draw away at Marconi Stadium last weekend, but still remain bottom of the ladder after their first five matches.

Last week's draw snapped a three-match losing streak, with Hesan Soufi netting a double to earn Hakoah's second point of 2019. He will need to be in top form again this Sunday, when his side face APIA Leichhardt Tigers at Hensley Athletic Field.

APIA have hit the ground running after returning from an international tournament in preseason and are in third with ten points, having opened up a four-point gap between themselves and Sydney FC in fourth.

Last weekend, they beat Rockdale City Suns 2-1 at Lambert Park.
