MATCH PREVIEW

Hakoah Sydney City East will be out to unsettle the league leaders when they host Wollongong Wolves at Hensley Athletic Field this Sunday.

Hakoah has had a solid start to the campaign but performances like last week's 0-0 draw against APIA Leichhardt Tigers is sure to give them the confidence to take it to the competition front-running Wolves.

Bradley Walker's return to the centre of defence last week was a big addition for Hakoah while Shohei Okuna showed flashes of brilliance playing on the flanks.

The absence of Amaury Gauthier at the point of the attack was felt last week with his replacement Hristijan Tanoski unable to challenge APIA's back line.

Goals are one thing which has been lacking for Hakoah and if they are to stand a chance against Wollongong they will need to pinch a goal or two.

The Wolves come into the match on a six game unbeaten streak after a late comeback last week helped them avoid defeat in a 1-1 draw against Mt Druitt.

Striker Thomas James has been a revelation for the South Coast side and it was the English-born front man who came to the rescue from the penalty spot in Round six.

Coach Luke Wilkshire is sure to be concerned with how his side allowed Mt Druitt to dictate proceedings despite playing away from home.

Hakoah has shown they have a knack of suffocating opposition attacks especially at their home den and that will be needed if they are to shock Wollongong on Sunday.

1ST GRADE REVIEWS

Hakoah Sydney City East 0 – APIA Leichhardt Tigers 0 at Hensley Athletic Field

A dogged Hakoah Sydney City East has denied APIA Leichhardt Tigers from taking top spot after holding their opponents to a 0-0 draw at Hensley Athletic Field on Sunday.

Hakoah fought hard for 90 minutes to silence APIA's high profile attack doing enough to claim a point and deny their opponents the chance to finish the round on top of the ladder.

Both sides had their chances to break the deadlock but the combination of determined defence and sloppy finishing proved costly for Hakoah and APIA.

Wollongong Wolves 1- Mount Druitt Town Rangers 1 at WIN Stadium

A late Thomas Jane penalty has helped Wollongong Wolves keep their unbeaten start to the season alive after they fought back to claim a 1-1 draw with Mount Druitt Town Rangers at WIN Stadium on Sunday.

The home side looked like their impressive start to the campaign was set to come to an end at the hands of a inspired Rangers team but Jane's 77th minute finish from the spot saved the day in front of the Wolves faithful.

Wollongong had more of the chances in the first half but it was the visiting side who took the lead when a quick Alex Boyadjian counter-attack gave Mt Druitt a 1-0 advantage after 53 minutes.

However, Wollongong's fighting spirit came through late with Mt Druitt sure to rue what could've been.

U20'S MATCH PREVIEW

Hakoah Sydney City East remain at the foot of the table after a 2-2 draw in their Round 6 clash with APIA Leichhardt; goals from Harry Jones and Nathan Roberts not enough to get the edge over the Tigers.

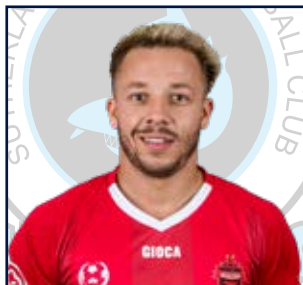

This week, Hakoah face Wollongong Wolves at Hensley Athletic Field, with the visitors in similarly form to their hosts. The Wolves have lost each of their last four matches, and sit only three points ahead of Hakoah in ninth place.

Wollongong should be especially keen to pick up a result in this match, with tougher fixtures against Sutherland and Blacktown City to come over the next few weeks.
