CLUB WELCOME

Good afternoon and welcome to Cromer Park for this round five National Premier Leagues NSW Men's clash between Manly United and Blacktown City FC.

Both teams will enter the tussle on Sydney's Northern Beaches in a confident mood following impressive victories last weekend.

Attacking ace Brendan Cholakian was the hero for Manly, slotting home a dramatic injury time penalty to beat a shell-shocked Marconi 2-1 on the road.

Mark Crittenden's Blacktown also sang their team song, grinding out a 1-0 win against Sutherland at Lily Homes Stadium.

Travis Oughtred was the standout for United at Marconi Stadium, and look for the experienced defender to again limit the away side in the final third at every opportunity.

For the visitors, Joey Gibbs is the man who his team will heavily lean on.

The Manly United junior always seems to excel against his old club, scoring goals for fun at Cromer Park in recent campaigns.

The first grade game kicks off at 3pm, and as always, let's go Manly United.

MATCH PREVIEW

Back to back wins will be the goal for Manly United when they host Blacktown City at Cromer Park this Sunday.

Buoyed by their last minute win against Marconi last week, the boys from the Northern Beaches will be full of confidence as they take on a City outfit still finding its feet after an off season roster overhaul.

It's been a mixed start to the season for Manly but they've shown plenty of promise and have only lost one game from their opening four.

Coach Paul Dee will want more consistency from his troops as well as improved composure on match day.

Defender Travis Oughtred was a rock at the back against the Stallions and a similar performance will be needed to stop Blacktown.

In attack Manly boast plenty of options with the return of Dejan Pandurevic and Adam Parkhouse, as well as the signing of Charles Mendy, giving the team multiple ways to sting their opponent.

The ever elusive Brendan Cholakian has also been a menace for Manly in the front third and he will be in and amongst all the action on Saturday.

Their opponents Blacktown City will be up for this match and determined to keep their winning form alive.

While resilience and a little bit of luck was the secret to their narrow 1-0 win against Sutherland Sharks last week, Blacktown has shown their roster overhaul has not seen them drop their standards on the pitch.

Leroy Jennings has been a shrewd acquisition for the Seven Hills based side while club veterans Matt Lewis, Grant Lynch and Joey Gibbs continue to perform.

Both teams have the players to turn the game into a shootout so goals could be on the menu in Manly this Sunday.

1ST GRADE REVIEWS

Marconi Stallions 1 – Manly United 2 at Marconi Stadium

A dramatic added-time penalty has helped Manly United snatch a dramatic 2-1 victory in their National Premier Leagues NSW Men's clash against Marconi Stallions at Marconi Stadium on Saturday.

The spot kick secured an incredible result for Manly who appeared likely forced to settle for a share of the spoils thanks to a second half Marconi resurgence.

An Adam Parkhouse goal on the cusp of halftime had the visitors in control of the fixture but a Marko Jesic finish 15 minutes into the second stanza squared the ledger.

However, that wasn't to be the final act as Midfielder Brendan Cholkian showed incredible composure to despatch his penalty in the final seconds of the match after Nikola Taneski was taken down in the box by Sean O'Connell.

It was a heartbreaking way to lose the match for the Stallions and it's sure to be a defeat which won't be forgotten by the side anytime soon.

Blacktown City 1 – Sutherland Sharks 0 at Lily Homes Stadium

A second half Leroy Jennings goal has helped lift Blacktown City snatch a hard fought 1-0 win against Sutherland Sharks in their National Premier Leagues NSW Men's clash at Lily Homes Stadium on Sunday.

Jennings made the most of a breakaway run from Joey Gibbs to tap in from close range at the far post to claim the match winner.

It was the sort of clinical finishing required in a match which at times struggled to excite with quality chances at a premium.

The win keeps Blacktown in the finals places while Sutherland suffer a frustrating defeat for the second straight week.

U20'S MATCH PREVIEW

Manly United are in a promising position heading into their Round 5 clash with Blacktown City at Cromer Park on Sunday.

The hosts are tracking fourth with a game in hand against Marconi after a washout last weekend, but face a real test of their credentials when they take on Blacktown City in Round 5.

Blacktown are top after the first four rounds of fixtures, having dropped just one game for nine points. They continued a solid run of form with a 3-0 defeat of Sutherland Sharks last weekend, and will be determined to put in another good performance here to avoid slipping behind Sydney Olympic.
