CROMER PARK

CLUB WELCOME

Good afternoon and welcome to Cromer Park for this round eight National Premier Leagues NSW Men's clash between Manly United and Hakoah Sydney City East FC. Both teams will enter the tussle on Sydney's Northern Beaches wanting to return to winning ways.

United led twice at Belmore Sports Ground on Good Friday following quality strikes from Dejan Pandurevic and Scott Balderson, but were unable to deny a fast finishing Sydney Olympic FC, with the end result 2-2 after 90 gripping minutes.

Hakoah hosted league leaders Wollongong at Hensley Athletic Field last Sunday afternoon, with the Wolves running out 2-0 winners.

Balderson has been a shining light for Manly in recent weeks. Coach Paul Dee opted to shift the veteran up top as a classic number nine, and the one time Newcastle Jets player has responded accordingly, causing opposition defenders plenty of headaches with his intelligent runs and physicality.

For the visitors, Ollie Green is the man who his team will heavily lean on today.

The Manly United junior is always dangerous in the middle of the park, and his partnership with the classy Amaury Gauthier will go a long way to deciding the outcome.

The first grade game kicks off at 3pm, and as always, let's go Manly United.

MATCH PREVIEW

Manly United will be hoping to give their fans plenty to cheer about when they return to Cromer Park on Sunday to take on Hakoah Sydney City East.

Last week Paul Dee's side were agonisingly denied a win by Sydney Olympic who snatched a 1-1 draw with a goal only two minutes from full-time.

The boys from the Northern Beaches have been solid so far this season but have been unable to turn their performances into consistent results.

Dee has made few changes to his starting team in recent weeks so expect a similar looking side to the one which ran out onto Belmore Sports Ground on Good Friday.

Charles Mendy and Nikola Taneski are dangerous players off the bench and could be the game changers in this clash against a stout Hakoah defense.

Gavin Rae's Hakoah team pushed APIA all the way in Round 6 but had no answers for league leaders Wollongong last round.

Bradley Walker's return to the centre of defence has helped steel the back line of the Eastern Suburbs outfit.

Amaury Gauthier's return last week also provided extra spark to the attack.

Hakoah can be a prickly customer and Manly won't want to slip up if they are secure the win in front of their fans.

1ST GRADE REVIEWS

Sydney Olympic 2 v Manly United 2 at Belmore Sports Ground

A Dimi Petratos goal in the dying minutes has helped Sydney Olympic rescue a 2-2 draw with Manly United in their National Premier Leagues NSW Men's clash on Friday evening at Belmore Sportsground.

With Olympic eyeing off another crushing defeat with less than four minutes left on the clock, Petratos saved the day with a well hit strike from outside the 18 yard box.

Manly took the advantage twice in the game through Dejan Pandurevic and Scott Balderson, but Olympic cancelled out both of their goals through Mitchell Stamatellis and then Petratos at the death.

It was yet another frustrating result for either side who have struggled to make the most of their chances so far this season.

Hakoah Sydney City FC 0 v Wollongong Wolves 2 at Hensley Athletic Field

Two 'golden eggs' from Thomas James were enough for competition front-runners Wollongong Wolves to overcome Hakoah Sydney City East 2-0 at Hensley Athletic Field on Easter Sunday.

The hosts were denied any opportunities to take a stranglehold of the contest by an energetic Wolves side, whose rapid counter-attacking game proved to be successful yet again.

The sides were ultimately split by two moments of brilliance from emerging Golden Boot favourite Thomas James, who found the back of the net on either side of half time with a precise flicked header on 22 minutes and a 55th minute low drive which nestled in the bottom corner.

Hakoah experienced brief periods of dominance, particularly late in the second half, however were often let down by their final pass on a frustrating day for the Eastgardens faithful.

Overall it was a professional showing from the ladder leaders, who continue to go from strength to strength under new boss Luke Wilkshire.

U20'S MATCH PREVIEW

Maximilian Rogers gave Manly United a first-half lead at Sydney Olympic last week, but the visitors were unable to maintain their level after the break and were beaten 3-1 at Belmore Sports Ground in Round 7.

Manly return to Cromer Park in search of their first win since they edged Mt Druitt in Round 3. This week, they take on Hakoah Sydney City East, who would appear a less challenging opposition than that faced last week.

Hakoah lost 3-1 to Wollongong Wolves in Round 7; their fourth defeat of a season in which they're yet to win a match. Despite a disappointing start to 2019, they could still overtake Manly should they win at Cromer Park on Sunday afternoon.
