MARCONI STADIUM

CLUB WELCOME

Tipped to be the “big improvers” in 2019, the Marconi Stallions FC are starting to find form and will be full of confidence when they welcome “cellar dwellers” Sutherland Sharks tonight.

The “star studded” Stallions are starting to show why they are a popular pick to be there at the finish this season. The strong recruiting drive is starting to show dividends.

The Stallions played their best football so far, when they “demolished” neighbours and arch rivals Sydney United 58, it was all over at half time with the Stallions strikers tearing the opposition to pieces having found the net five times in 45 minutes of brilliant attacking football.

Marconi Stallions strike pair Mirjan Pavlovic and Marko Jelic are becoming a formidable duo having netted 10 of the teams 12 goals so far this season between them - five each - and they will be a real headache for the Sutherland Sharks defence which is missing captain Marc Warren due to suspension.

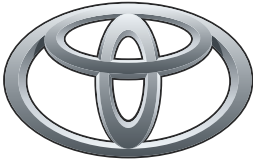

It has been a tough start for the Sutherland Sharks, after winning their opening game, they have gone winless for five weeks. They did earn a respectable scoreless draw with Manly United last round.

Adding to what could be a difficult night for the Sutherland Sharks they are backing up from a mid-week FFA Cup match against Gerringong Breakers FC.

MATCH PREVIEW

Full of confidence and hitting top form, Marconi Stallions will be on a mission to collect nothing less than all three points when they host Sutherland Sharks on Saturday night at Marconi Stadium.

The Stallions put on a show of brilliant attacking football in the first half of their clash against Sydney United 58 last week on the way to claiming an incredible 5-0 drubbing of their local rivals.

Coach Peter Tsekenis will be hoping it is a sign of things to come from his side after a less than perfect start to the campaign which earmarked them as the early favourites to take out the title thanks to a number of high profile off-season signings.

It appears as if the star studded Stallions squad is starting to develop some chemistry with improved performances week after week.

Striker Mirjan Pavlovic's hot run in front of goal in recent weeks will make him one of the first on the team sheet as Marconi look to climb their way up the ladder. Pavlovic has formed a deadly partnership with Marko Jesic with the two hitting a purple patch at the moment.

Sutherland earned some respite from their horror campaign so far when they claimed a 0-0 draw against Manly United last week.

However, Sharks gaffer Terry Palapanis will be hoping for much more from his players as they look to end a five week winless streak.

They will have to do so without key defender and club captain Marc Warren who was sent-off in the dying stages last round.

An injury to Quivi Fowler is also cause for concern for Palapanis with the young attacking midfielder one of a few bright spots for the Sharks so far this season.

Palapanis is hoping his Spanish connection of Juan Carlos Heras Romero and Raul Beneit Romero will spur his side on with the aid of marksman Jeremy Cox.

It could be a tough day at the office for Sutherland if they are below their best this week up against a Marconi outfit flying high and full of confidence.

1ST GRADE REVIEWS

Marconi Stallions FC 5 – Sydney United 58 0 at Marconi Stadium

A first half demolition job from Marconi Stallions have condemned Sydney United 58 to a humiliating 5-0 loss at Marconi Stadium on Saturday Night.

The Stallions star studded line-up was at their destructive best as they scored five unanswered goals in the first half to claim an emphatic victory against their local rivals.

New recruit Mitch Mallia opened the scoring inside the first 60 seconds before braces to Marko Jesic and Mirjan Pavlovic secured the five goal drubbing.

It was a shock result for third placed United 58 who had no answers in a tough day at the office for the Miro Vlastelica coached outfit.

Sutherland Sharks 0 – Manly United FC 0 at Seymour Shaw

A ten-man Sutherland Sharks have ended their four game losing streak after holding on for a scoreless draw against Manly United at Seymour Shaw on Saturday.

It was a hard earned point for the bottom of the table Sharks who were lucky to not concede a late goal after captain Marc Warren was sent for an early shower after receiving a second yellow card.

Both sides had their chances but paid the price for poor finishing in front of goal.

Goalkeepers Anthony Bouzanis and Dylan Mitchell were stand out performers as the Sharks and United ensure they took something away from an at times dour contest.

U20'S MATCH PREVIEW

Marconi are in tenth place after picking up their first win of the season in Round 6, and could yet rocket up the ladder with two games in hand.

Andrew Holder and Martin Fernandez gave Marconi the edge in a comeback win over Sydney United 58 last weekend.

This week, the Stallions host Sutherland Sharks, who moved up into sixth place with a 3-2 win over Manly United in Round 6. The Sharks have been inconsistent in the opening weeks of the season, and will need to find form soon if they are to establish themselves in the finals positions.
