LAMBERT PARK

CLUB WELCOME

Good evening everyone and welcome to Lambert Park for tonight's clash against Blacktown City FC.

We're thrilled with the boy's application so far this season and their attitude to come back from two goals down against Mt. Druitt Town Rangers last weekend is testament to that. It was a great win and one that will fill us with confidence heading into this clash against another mainstay of the competition.

We can see a lot of positive development in this squad as each week goes by, and I have no doubt we'll continue to take it to teams as the competition continues.

We'd like to thank all our Members and fans for their backing and we're looking forward to seeing everyone in the stands tonight.

MATCH PREVIEW

Back to back wins will be on the agenda for Sydney FC when they host Blacktown City at Lambert Park this Saturday.

The Young Sky Blues put four past Mount Druitt in an inspired second half performance.

The Jimmy van Weeren coached side have shown they are no walkovers and will be looking for nothing less than all three points this weekend.

Midfielder Hamish Lamberton was named man of the match despite coming on as a substitute last week and is sure to be considered for a starting berth against Blacktown.

One player young Sky Blues fans are sure to have their eye on is Luke Ivanovic.

The winger made his debut for the senior A-League side earlier this year and even scored in a match against Melbourne City. He will be hoping to replicate that form in the NPL.

Sydney FC's opponents Blacktown City come into this week's match off the back of a narrow 1-0 loss to Manly United.

Currently in seventh position with two wins, two losses and a draw from their first five matches, Blacktown have had a mixed start to their campaign.

One player Crittenden will be hoping to see a greater contribution from is former A-League midfielder Devante Clut.

The one time Brisbane Roar and Newcastle Jets player has yet to truly get the most out of his talents since joining the Seven Hills based side in 2018.

Able to unlock a defence with pinpoint passing ability, Clut could be a game changer for City.

Blacktown City will be determined to break back into the top five with a win as will sixth placed Sydney FC.

Blacktown will go into the game as favourites but don't be surprised if Sydney FC claim yet another big win.

1ST GRADE REVIEWS

Mount Druitt Town Rangers 2 – Sydney FC 4 at Popondetta Park

A Jordan Swibel double has spurred Sydney FC Sydney FC to a stunning second half comeback to defeat Mount Druitt Town Rangers 4-2 at Popondetta Park on Saturday.

An inspired substitution from Young Sky Blues coach Jimmy van Weeren lifted the side in the second half as the injection of Hamish Lamberton helped them to four second half goals and the win.

Lamberton entered the game in the 62nd minute, produced a fierce strike with his first touch then assisted a pair of goals for Jordan Swibel and a deflected own goal to give Sydney FC their second victory of the season.

For Mount Druitt Town Rangers, they leaked four goals after Cooper Coskerie and Jordan Gomez had given them a 2-0 half-time lead.

Once the Sky Blues got a foothold in the contest, the home side panicked and made it ten goals shipped within a week for the promoted side.

Manly United 1 – Blacktown City 0 at Cromer Park

Manly United laboured their way to a valuable 1-0 victory over a fast-finishing Blacktown City at Cromer Park on Sunday afternoon.

The match's sole strike arrived just prior to the hour mark, as Adam Parkhouse pirouetted inside the penalty area and clinically tucked the ball home past Tristan Prendergast.

However, the vocal Northern Beaches crowd were forced to endure a nail-biting finale, as the visitors heaped on the pressure in spades.

But Manly's ever-reliable shot-stopper Dylan Mitchell was up to the task time and time again, producing a hatfull of remarkable saves to secure himself a treasured maiden clean sheet for the campaign.

U20'S MATCH PREVIEW

Sydney FC welcome Blacktown City to Lambert Park on Saturday afternoon in a rematch of last season's first semi-final, a game won 2-0 by this week's hosts.

Sydney sit six points behind Blacktown City coming into this one, following a disappointing 2-2 draw with Mt Druitt Rangers in Round 5.

Blacktown City, for their part, recorded a 3-0 win over Manly United at Cromer Park.

Both sides should view this match as an opportunity to stake a claim to the finals positions, even this early in the season.
