CLUB WELCOME

Good evening everyone and welcome to Lambert Park for another massive match against Sydney United 58 FC.

There's no easy games in the NPL and tonight's opponents are certainly ones not to be taken lightly. We've prepared well this week, the players know the challenge ahead and we're all excited about what's in store this evening.

Each week we can see a lot of positive development in this squad and there is more growth ahead as the season progresses. This squad is one that excites me and are a joy to coach.

We'd like to thank all our Members and fans for their backing and we're looking forward to seeing everyone in the stands tonight.

MATCH PREVIEW

Sydney FC will be gunning for a shock upset when they host Sydney United 58 at Lambert Park this Saturday.

The Young Sky Blues were let down by a lapse midway through the second half of their 2-1 loss to Rockdale City Suns last week and will be determined to make up for what was a frustrating result.

Jimmy van Weeren's players showed plenty of resilience to hold out a surging Suns attack for most of the match with shot stopper Thomas Heward-Belle seemingly unbeatable for large portions of the clash.

Marco Tilio was another Sydney player who stood up with his silky dribbling skills and explosive first step creating plenty of headaches.

Van Weeren could be tempted to give Ryan Teague more minutes with the talented midfielder delivering an impressive cameo off the bench at Ilinden Sports Centre.

Sydney FC will have it's hands full against United 58 who are flying high after a 3-1 win against Mt Druitt Town Rangers.

Peter Simonoski marked his first full match after injury for United with a hat-trick and will be in the mood for goals on Saturday.

Coach Miro Vlastelica will also be pleased with the improvement of Uruguayan playmaker Sebastian Gallegos who on Monday delivered his best performance in a Sydney United shirt.

Club captain Nick Stavroulakis also provided that experience the team was missing when the Reds were humiliated by the Marconi Stallions 5-0.

The short five day turnaround could be a factor for Vlastelica's players and the coach may want to reshuffle his line-up and reinstate Patrick Antelmi, Mat Sim and Glen Trifiro to the starting team.

Sydney FC are no easy beats and an upset could very well be on the cards if United 58 don't bring their 'A' game.

1ST GRADE REVIEWS

Rockdale City Suns FC 2 v Sydney FC 1 at Ilinden Sports Centre

A two-goal flurry inside three second half minutes has helped Rockdale City Suns to a confidence boosting 2-1 win against Sydney FC at Ilinden Sports Centre on Sunday.

Aleks Canak and Alec Urosevski's strikes midway through the second stanza lifted the Rockdale faithful and helped interim coach Nick Porecca to his second straight National Premier Leagues NSW Men's win.

A first half dominated by the goalkeepers opened up after the break with Rockdale desperately pushing for an opening goal.

However, with 20 minutes let on the clock Canak broke through the resilient Sydney defence and Urosevski followed only moments later.

A late goal to Marco Tilio for the Young Sky Blues made for a tetchy closing minutes but a dramatic equaliser wasn't to be as Rockdale climbed up the table with a big home victory.

Sydney United 58 3 v Mt Druitt Town Rangers FC 1 at Sydney United Sports Centre

A sensational Peter Simonoski hat-trick has lifted Sydney United 58 back into the winners circle as they defeated National Premier Leagues NSW Men's newcomers Mt Druitt 3-1 at Sydney United Sports Centre on Monday.

It was the perfect response from United 58 after last week's drubbing at the hands of Marconi with Simonoski's display exactly the performance coach Miro Vlastelica would've had in mind when he signed the striker in the off-season.

The former Wolves front man opened the scoring midway through the first half before giving the Edensor Park based side a 2-0 buffer at the interval.

Mt Druitt hit back early in the second-half but despite their efforts to get back into the game they couldn't stop United 58 and Simonoski who wrapped up the win and his hat-trick 10 minutes from the final whistle.

The result keeps Sydney United 58 on track with the rest of the top five and settles the ship after a few bad results in recent weeks.

U20'S MATCH PREVIEW

Sydney FC are without a win since the end of March, and slipped a place in the table to eighth after their 1-1 draw away to Rockdale City Suns in Round 7 – their fourth draw of the season to date.

They will welcome a return to Lambert Park this week where they host Sydney United 58, who arrive as the second-lowest team on the ladder after a 3-1 loss to Mt Druitt Town Rangers last weekend.

United picked up their first points of the season in Rounds 5 and 6 but last week's defeat – their fifth of 2019 – can hardly give them much confidence as they head to Leichhardt for a clash with Sydney FC.
