CLUB WELCOME

Welcome to our inaugural Anzac Day Double Header, which will see our Men's and Women's 1st Grade squads take on APIA and Manly United respectively.

Sydney Olympic Football Club is honoured to be playing on Anzac Day and creating an event the local community can attend and show their respects.

Anzac Day goes beyond the anniversary of the landing on Gallipoli in 1915. It is the day on which we remember all Australians who served and died in war and on operational service past and present.

We thank Jayden Mifsud from the Fire Brigade Band who will lead the small Anzac commemorative service prior to kick off in our NPL NSW Men's 1st grade match in front of both our teams, officials and crowd.

A big welcome to our Sydney Olympic junior and youth players and their families who have shown their support to attend and watch our Senior squads today.

I would like to thank the Belmore Eagles Football Club, we welcome these players and their families to Belmore and hope they enjoy walking out with the players, being ball boys and entertaining the crowd at half time with some small matches.

I must thank our season pass holders and fans who truly are the best in the league. We need your help more than ever and we ask you to get your friends and family together to come along and support the team.

To our sponsors both new and old, we cannot run our club without you and thank you for being part of the Olympic family, as always I urge you to support all of our sponsors as they support us.

I hope you enjoy what I am sure will be a very exciting day of football and support both our Men's and Women's 1st Grade squads today in our Double Header.

MATCH PREVIEW

APIA Leichhardt Tigers will be out to seek some revenge from the 2018 Grand Final defeat to Sydney Olympic when the two sides face off at Belmore Sports Ground on Thursday.

While it was Olympic who were all smiles after taking the win on Grand Final day last season, their start to the 2019 season has been less enjoyable with good results proving hard to come by.

APIA on the other hand are in second spot after seven rounds but have slipped up in their chase for first with back to back draws.

One positive for Olympic has been the discovery of dynamic forward Dimi Petratos who has been in inspired form scoring in consecutive matches.

Cousin to Dimi Petratos at the Newcastle Jets, Olympic's Petratos has been in fine form coming off the bench.

The Abbas Saad coached side could be without striker Alex Sanchez and midfielder Haji Gligor who both missed last week's clash due to injury.

Despite taking only two points from their past two matches, APIA are unlikely to make any big changes to their side for this clash.

Josh Symons made a return to the starting lineup last week moving the in-form Paul Galimi out from his preferred central defensive position to right back.

Tynan Diaz was dropped to the bench against Blacktown but the veteran's speed and crossing ability could be preferred by APIA coach John Calleja against Olympic.

Andre de Jong has had a solid start to his time in Leichhardt but is being eased into the team with three appearances off the bench. Calleja could very well feel the time is now to unleash the Kiwi international from the opening whistle while getting fan favourite Franco Parisi to come off the bench to run havoc.

Matches between these two sides are always packed with excitement and drama with this match likely going to be no different.

It will be a big day for the Blues who have labelled this the "Anzac Day Double Header" as following the Men's match the NPL NSW Women's clash will showcase Sydney Olympic taking on Manly United at 6:45pm.

There will also be a special Anzac Day service set to take place at 4:35pm.

Sydney Olympic 2 v Manly United 2 at Belmore Sports Ground

A Dimi Petratos goal in the dying minutes has helped Sydney Olympic rescue a 2-2 draw with Manly United in their National Premier Leagues NSW Men's clash on Friday evening at Belmore Sportsground.

With Olympic eyeing off another crushing defeat with less than four minutes left on the clock, Petratos saved the day with a well hit strike from outside the 18 yard box.

Manly took the advantage twice in the game through Dejan Pandurevic and Scott Balderson, but Olympic cancelled out both of their goals through Mitchell Stamatellis and then Petratos at the death.

It was yet another frustrating result for either side who have struggled to make the most of their chances so far this season.

APIA Leichhardt Tigers 1 – Blacktown City FC 1 at Lambert Park

A late Corey Biczko goal has helped APIA Leichhardt Tigers snatch a point as they were held to a 1-1 draw in their National Premier Leagues NSW Men's clash against Blacktown City at Lambert Park on Good Friday.

Biczko's goal helped APIA take home a point from a tentative display from both sides with the match only coming alive in the final stages of the clash.

Blacktown's James Demetriou would've have thought he'd won it for his side when he scored off the bench at Lambert Park for the second week in a row, but Biczko was on hand a few minutes later to save the day for the hosts.

It was the second low scoring draw in as many weeks for the Tigers who once again missed the chance to take top spot.

U20'S MATCH PREVIEW

Sydney Olympic host APIA Leichhardt on Anzac Day as they look to keep pace with competition leaders Blacktown City, who sit two points in front of the side from Belmore heading into Round 8.

A 3-1 defeat of Manly United last weekend put Olympic back on track after a heavy 3-0 loss to Rockdale the week before. Olympic could move top – at least temporarily – should they beat APIA on Thursday.

The Tigers are fresh from a narrow home defeat to Blacktown last weekend but put in a promising performance in spite of the result, and are well-placed to surprise their hosts this week. APIA sit fifth, level on points with Mt Druitt above them and Sutherland Sharks below.
