BELMORE SPORTS GROUND

CLUB WELCOME

Welcome to our Good Friday Round 7 fixture V Manly United FC at Belmore Sportsground.

We are looking to get back to winning ways after a disappointing day last round away to Rockdale.

Please mark down in your diaries our huge "Anzac Day Double Header Blockbuster" where for the first time in the Club's history we will have our Mens 1st Grade playing APIA at 4.45pm and our Women's 1st Grade following against Manly United FC. What a way to spend your Anzac Day evening.

Congratulations to last round's players of the week;

Conquest SAP player of the week – Isaac Giunta (Under 10's)

Special K 1st Grade player of the week – Teresa Polias

Budget Petrol 1st Grade player of the week – Harris Gaitatzis

Aussie Industries player of the week – George Daniels (Under 16's youth)

Our Under 11, 13 and 15 squads have arrived in Mallorca and have commenced the ME Cup, with our Under 15's and 13's drawing FC Barcelona and Athletic Club Bilbao respectively in round matches. The squads enjoyed a very successful training camp at Bundesliga Club FC Schalke 04 headquarters earlier in the week.

I must thank our season pass holders and fans who truly are the best in the league. We need your help more than ever and with the next two matches on Public Holidays we ask you to get your friends and family together to come along and support the team.

To our sponsors both new and old, we cannot run our club without you and thank you for being part of the Olympic family, as always I urge you to support all of our sponsors as they support us.

I hope you enjoy what I am sure will be a very exciting day of football and don't forget the Anzac Day Double Header. Go Olympic!

MATCH PREVIEW

Sydney Olympic will be determined to end their Premiership hangover when they take on Manly United at Belmore Sports Ground on Friday.

It's been a less than ideal start for the reigning premiers who slumped to yet another defeat last week at the hands of Rockdale City Suns.

Abbas Saad's side has failed to replicate the brand of football which elevated them to an incredible Premiership and Championship double in 2018.

Saad will likely be forced to make a number of changes to his starting side this week with key players Hagi Gligor and Alex Sanchez succumbing to injury against Rockdale while Nikola Kuleski saw red against the Suns.

It will be a great chance for Olympic's fringe players, like last week's goal scorer Dimi Petratos, to make a name for themselves as the club battles to keep their season on track.

Their opponents Manly United have had a solid yet unspectacular start to the campaign but would be happy with their fifth spot on the ladder after six weeks.

Manly have only lost one game this season but have had their fair share of drawn matches and collecting a win on the road could be a turning point for Paul Dee's side.

Last week's scoreless draw against a 10-man Sutherland Sharks team will be seen as an opportunity lost by Manly with this week's game a chance to makeup for the dropped points.

Dee has been fairly set with his starting side so far this season, one player that continues to grow in confidence week by week is attacker Dejan Pandurevic who is hoping he can sting the back of the net this Friday.

Olympic are in desperate need of a win but their struggle to find consistency and a growing injury ward could open the door for Manly to cause an upset on Good Friday.

1ST GRADE TEAM LISTS

1ST GRADE REVIEWS

Rockdale City Suns 2 – Sydney Olympic 1 at Illinden Sports Centre

Rockdale City Suns secured their second win of the season over a 10-man Sydney Olympic at Illinden Sports Centre on Sunday evening.

A goal to Khanh Hoon Cho and a penalty to Patrick Savor cancelled Olympic's lone goal from Dimi Petratos to secure the victory for the home side.

The win was crucial to the Suns campaign after the departure of coach Paul Reid earlier in the week.

For Olympic the result could prove costly with the loss of Hagi Gligor to Injury a major blow.

Sutherland Sharks 0 – Manly United FC 0 at Seymour Shaw

A ten-man Sutherland Sharks have ended their four game losing streak after holding on for a scoreless draw against Manly United at Seymour Shaw on Saturday.

It was a hard earned point for the bottom of the table Sharks who were lucky to not concede a late goal after captain Marc Warren was sent for an early shower after receiving a second yellow card.

Both sides had their chances but paid the price for poor finishing in front of goal.

Goalkeepers Anthony Bouzanis and Dylan Mitchell were stand out performers as the Sharks and United ensure they took something away from an at times dour contest.

U20'S MATCH PREVIEW

Sydney Olympic suffered their first defeat of 2019 in Round 6, and have dropped points in each of their last two games. They might have been top of the competition had they won their game in hand, but instead sit two points behind Blacktown City heading into their match against Manly United on Friday.

Still, five dropped points is hardly disastrous given

Olympic remain second. This week, they take on Manly United, who arguably present less of a challenge than Rockdale did last weekend.

The visitors travel to Belmore Sports Ground in eighth place, having only narrowly lost to Sutherland Sharks last Saturday. With a game in hand after a washout a few weeks ago, a win here could put Manly in a very promising position as the season progresses.
