MATCH PREVIEW

Hakoah Sydney City East will be out to end their six game winless run when they host Mt Druitt Town Rangers at Hensley Athletic Field on Sunday.

It's been a frustrating slide for Hakoah who at one point this season were as high as second spot on the ladder.

They come into this clash in ninth position with only two wins from their nine matches.

Goals have been the biggest weakness for Hakoah who have found the back of the net only once in the past five weeks and are tied for the league worst attack scoring only seven goals so far this campaign.

Amaury Gauthier's return to the starting line-up has failed to ignite the Gavin Rae coached side in attack while back up striker Hristijan Tanoski has also struggled when called on.

Winger Shohei Okuna has shown flashes of brilliance but not enough to fix his teams scoring troubles.

Defensively Hakoah has remained difficult to breakdown but without goals they could be destined to find themselves in a battle for the wooden spoon.

Their opponents Mt Druitt Town Rangers have slowly picked up the pace but are in need of a victory.

The Rangers spurned a perfect chance to climb away from the bottom of the ladder last week when they were held 1-1 by the struggling Sutherland Sharks who have not won in eight weeks.

It was a third straight draw for Mt Druitt and coach Aidan Desmond will be pushing his players to claim a much needed win.

The pressure will be on experienced players Toufic Alameddine and club stalwart Matthew Clowes to get the competition new boys over the line.

One player that could prove to be the difference for the Rangers is Uruguayan ace Fabricio Fernandez. The attacker has been in outstanding form for Mount Druitt since his arrival and has added a couple of quality goals to his highlights reel already - Desmond is hoping he can add a few more against at Hensley.

1ST GRADE REVIEWS

Sydney United 58 2 – Hakoah Sydney City East 0 at Sydney United Sports Centre

Sydney United 58 recorded a 2-0 win over Hakoah Sydney City East in the National Premier Leagues NSW Men's at Sydney United Sports Centre on Sunday

United forced their way above Sydney Olympic into third spot thanks to a cracking strike from the dead ball by Matthew Bilic while Glen Trifiro wrapped up the result in the dying stages of the clash with a goal to secure the 2-0 win.

The loss means Hakoah remain in ninth spot and extending their winless run to six matches.

Mt Druitt Town Rangers 1 – Sutherland Sharks 1 at Popondetta Park

Mt Druitt has fought back to claim a valuable point in a 1-1 draw against Sutherland Sharks at Popondetta Park on Saturday night.

Mount Druitt again showed they are meant for this level, as the home side matched it with Sutherland equalising with a moment of magic from Fabricio Fernandez on the hour mark.

The Rangers couldn't find the vital second goal to avoid back-to-back draws.

For Sutherland Sharks, it was a missed opportunity to get themselves off the bottom of the ladder. Jeremy Cox drilled home the opener, as the visitors held sway for the first half but much like the home side, their finishing deserted them.

U20'S MATCH PREVIEW

Hakoah Sydney City East pulled off a 2-0 victory over Sydney United 58 last weekend, moving off the bottom of the ladder with their first win of 2019.

Dominic Cox and Steven Chester found the back of the net for Hakoah as they moved within two points of Marconi Stallions in tenth place, and four points of their Round 10 opponents, Mt Druitt Town Rangers.

Mt Druitt have wobbled after a good run of form, losing their last two games after a three-match unbeaten streak.

Last weekend they were beaten 3-2 by Sutherland Sharks at Popondetta, with goals from Leonard Abdo and Cooper Coskerie not enough to earn a result.
