MATCH PREVIEW

Interim boss Nick Porecca will hope to inspire his Rockdale City Suns side to their fourth straight league win when they host Manly United at Ilinden Sports Centre on Sunday.

Porecca has helped transform Rockdale back into a finals contender after the side battled through horror run of results to start the season which cost former coach Paul Reid his job.

The Suns have looked like a different side in their last three matches with more discipline in both attack and defence.

Injury has plagued Rockdale this season but they are slowly returning to full strength with Panny Nikas' comeback from injury the one Suns' fans are anticipating the most.

Alec Urosevski has been kept in cotton wool as he recovers from a groin injury but his impact off the bench, including last week's match winner, has been a big part of Rockdale's recent success. a return to the starting lineup is surely imminent.

Manly have climbed back into the top five and will be determined to stay there with another win.

While a late own goal helped them past Hakoah last round, United have been flying under the radar with solid performances this season to remain in contention for the finals.

Manly coach Paul Dee has been fairly consistent with his selections so far and using Nikola Taneski and Charles Mendy as weapons off the bench.

Expect an exciting clash with a spot in the top five going on the line.

1ST GRADE REVIEWS

Blacktown City FC 0 v Rockdale City Suns 1 at Lily Homes Stadium

A stunning solo strike from Alec Urosevski has lifted Rockdale City Suns to their third win on the trot as they defeated Blacktown City 1-0 at Lily Homes Stadium on Sunday.

Urosevski came off the bench to break the deadlock in the 62nd minute and maintain interim coach Nick Porecca's perfect record since taking over the Rockdale hot seat.

It was a frustrating clash for Blacktown as they were unable to make the most of their multitude of chances with wasteful finishing and lapses in concentration proving costly.

The result catapults Rockdale into the top five while Blacktown drop further away from the finals race.

Manly United FC 2 v Hakoah Sydney City East 1 at Cromer Park

A dramatic last-minute own goal saw Manly United secure a come-from-behind 2-1 victory over an unfortunate Hakoah Sydney City East at Cromer Park on Sunday afternoon.

Following an uneventful first period, the contest sprung to life moments after the interval as Hakoah marksman Amaury Gauthier capitalised on a miscued defensive header from Sam Gallagher, lobbing the visitors into the lead.

Manly struck back on the hour mark thanks to a thumping Brendan Cholakian header, which brought the healthy Northern Beaches crowd to life.

In a see-saw encounter, momentum regularly changed hands as both outfits struggled to stamp authority upon the contest; however one final twist to the tale arrived in the 89th minute.

Just as it appeared they would have to settle for a share of the spoils, Bradley Walker's desperate attempted clearance was misdirected into the back of his net, cruelly handing all three points to a euphoric Manly side.

U20'S MATCH PREVIEW

Rockdale City Suns held Blacktown City to an impressive draw at Lily Homes Stadium last Sunday, with Noah Botic getting his name on the scoresheet to keep the competition leaders from opening up a five-point gap at the top of the table.

Rockdale are fourth ahead of their match against Manly United this weekend, and will be keen to keep a four-match unbeaten streak rolling as they look to make up ground on Blacktown.

Manly United, for their part, travel to Ilinden Sports Centre on the back of a 4-1 win over Marconi Stallions mid-week, a stunning result which helped lift them away from the foot of the table, and up into ninth place.
