ILINDEN SPORTS CENTRE

CLUB WELCOME

Welcome everyone to this round 12 game against Marconi. Today's game is the second consecutive home game to start the second half of the season.

This game also marks the second leg of the Legea Cup with both sides being supplied by Legea. We would like to thank Legea for their support of football and of our Club.

Last week, our boys were desperately unlucky not to secure the win against Sydney United after coming from 2 goals down, only to concede deep into stoppage time. We will be looking to get back into the winners circle this Sunday against Marconi. We all know the quality within the Marconi playing group and so expect a fierce battle as both teams look to get back into the winners circle.

Our under 18's and 20's both secured draws last weekend and will be looking for the three points. Our under 20's also conceded in the last minute last week as otherwise they would of secured the three points.

Last week we celebrated our 50th anniversary with a spectacular gala ball at Doltone House before a full house of 550 guests. Our all-star team was announced and we pay our respects to those legends from yesteryear and to every single person who has ever played a role, in whatever capacity, with the Club over 5 memorable decades.

Photos from the event are now online via our Facebook page. A big thank you to our key event corporate partners: Pauls Customs and Forwarding Solution, Marco Polo Foods, MKD Transcorp, and Cityview Group.

Once again, would like to thank all of our major regular season partners at the Club:

MATCH PREVIEW

Rockdale City Suns will be determined to return to winning ways when they host Marconi Stallions at Illinden Sports Centre on Sunday.

The Suns had their unbeaten run stopped last round thanks to a last minute Sydney United 58 winner which was sure to rankle the club and it's players.

They will be driven to make up for that defeat against the struggling Stallions and get back in the race for the premiership.

Interim coach Nick Porecca has had success with a similar line-up in since taking the reigns in round six and expect that to continue.

Panny Nikas was absent yet again for Rockdale against United with Alec Urosevski left to do most of the heavy lifting for the Suns.

Urosevski remains Rockdale's most important player and will once again be a good chance of finding his name on the score sheet.

Their opponents Marconi come into this match searching for answers after yet another big defeat.

The Stallions have slumped to eighth on the ladder and out of the finals spots because of their recent poor form.

Coach Peter Tsekenis is sure to put the pressure on his high profile stars to lift the team now that they need it most.

Marko Jesic has been somewhat of a Jekyll and Hyde for Marconi of late with the talented striker trading moments of brilliance with moments of madness in each of his last two matches.

Rockdale will head to Marconi Stadium as favourites but Marconi's squad of stars makes them a side you can never really write off.

1ST GRADE REVIEWS

Rockdale City Suns 2 – Sydney United 58 3 at Ilinden Sports Centre

A dramatic last minute Patrick Antelmi strike has ended Rockdale City Suns unbeaten streak as Sydney United 58 claimed a 3-2 win at Ilinden Sports Centre on Sunday.

Rockdale paid the price for an off-colour start to the match as their rivals United 58 snuck in to snatch all three points and hand Suns' interim head coach Nick Porecca his first defeat since taking on the top job in round five.

United 58 struck early through Matt Sim before Peter Simonoski gave the visitors a 2-0 advantage at the interval.

Alec Urosevski led from the front for Rockdale scoring twice in the second half to seemingly secure at least a point from the contest.

However, United 58 would have the last laugh with Antelmi finding the back of the net in dramatic style to clinch an incredible victory for the visitors.

The result catapults United 58 into third spot on the ladder while Rockdale cling onto a top five place in fifth.

Marconi Stallions 2 – APIA Leichhardt Tigers 4 at Marconi Stadium

APIA Leichhardt have put a major dent in Marconi's finals hopes with a emphatic 4-2 win at Marconi Stadium on Saturday.

A whirlwind opening from the Tigers helped them all but secure the victory inside the opening 25 minutes as they raced to a 3-1 lead at the break.

Sean Symons took only three minutes to give APIA the lead before his Brother Josh Symons and Corey Biczo got in on the act during a dominant first half performance.

Marconi's best efforts were goals to Mitchell Mallia and Marko Jesic but a penalty miss from Jesic too didn't help matters for the home side.

Chris Payne then added a fourth to all but gift John Calleja the three points.

The win helps APIA hold onto second spot on the ladder but it's bad news for eighth placed Marconi who fall further away from the top five.

U20'S MATCH PREVIEW

Rockdale were held to a 3-3 draw with Sydney United in Round 12, with goals from James Cakovski and Noah Botic not enough to beat the worst-placed team in the competition.

A win would have seen Rockdale move within six points of Blacktown City, but instead they remain eight points behind the leaders in second as they prepare to take on Marconi Stallions in Round 13.

Marconi sit tenth following a 1-1 draw at home with APIA Leichhardt; Paolo Laxamana's first half goal cancelled out by Zeke Prisuda after the break.

The Stallions are four points from the bottom of the table, and five from the finals places. A result at Illinden Sport Centre on Sunday afternoon could go a long way towards helping Marconi find their place in a congested mid-table.
