ROUND 12

ILINDEN SPORTS CENTRE

CLUB WELCOME

We welcome all of our supporters to this round 12 fixture against Sydney United 58 FC.

This week marks the start of the second half of the season.

At the half way point, we are sitting in 3rd position in first grade. It was a slow start to the season but we have picked up steam as the weeks pass by. Last weekend we came away with a hard fought 1-1 draw against local rivals Sutherland. It was a difficult game but a draw away from home was probably a fair result. Our under 18's and 20's both won meaning we picked up some valuable club championship points.

Speaking of which, our under 20's sit in second spot at the half way stage of the season whilst our under 18's continue to improve, currently in 7th.

We know that games against Sydney United 58 are always a battle as they have quality players across the park. This one will be no different. Should be a great game and it follows our 50th anniversary gala ball which took place on Friday night before 550 people, a truly memorable night.

So with that in mind, we hope to see a big crowd on hand to cheer on our boys.

Once again, we would like to thank and acknowledge our wonderful sponsors:

MATCH PREVIEW

An old rivalry is set to reignite when Rockdale City Suns host Sydney United 58 at Ilinden Sports Centre on Sunday.

These two sides have a history of heated encounters and with only two points separating them at the top end of the ladder it is sure to be more of the same this time around.

Rockdale City Suns snatched a hard fought 1-1 draw last round against a much improved Sutherland Sharks outfit but are sure to view the result as an opportunity lost against a side much lower than them on the table.

While the Suns winning streak may have come to an end, they are still unbeaten in their last six league matches and won't want to give up their incredible record against their rivals.

Interim coach Nick Porecca will be buoyed by the team's shrinking injury list with the squad slowly returning to full strength for the second half of the campaign. Porecca's latest string of wins could potentially spearhead the committee to gift him a full-time contract due to his change of fortunes since the Suns parted ways with Paul Reid.

Brayden Sorge was the latest player to make a return to the match day squad which is set to make it a real battle for positions in Porecca's starting team.

Sydney United 58 come into the contest with their tail between their legs after a humiliating 3-0 loss to Manly United.

It was a tough day at the office for the Miro Vlastelica coached side with nothing falling the way of the Reds at Cromer Park in round 11.

However, very few things can fire up a team the way a derby match can so expect United 58 to bounce back in a big way.

Vlastelica had all three of his big name attacking players in Matthew Sim, Peter Simonoski and Patrick Antelmi in the starting line-up against Manly so it will be interesting to see if he goes with a similar attack against the Suns or whether he tinkers with his line-up once more.

In round one, this match was a scoreless stalemate.

Don't expect that to happen this time around.

Rockdale City Suns will be the favourites at home in front of what will be a big crowd, but this game is sure to feature plenty of fireworks so anything could happen.

1ST GRADE REVIEWS

Sutherland Sharks 1 – Rockdale City Suns 1 at Seymour Shaw Park

A costly defensive error has cost Sutherland Sharks a break-through win as they were held 1-1 by Rockdale City Suns.

Suns' striker Jordan Figon fired home to level the scores after Alec Urosevski pounced on a sloppy back pass to extend the Sharks winless streak to 10 games.

A sensational volley from Jeremy Cox had given Sutherland the lead after 37 minutes but it would only last for seven minutes until Rockdale found an equaliser.

It was a frustrating result as well for Rockdale as they missed the chance to move into top spot with a win.

Manly United FC 3 – Sydney United 0 at Cromer Park

Manly United cruised to a comfortable 3-0 victory over Sydney United 58 at Cromer Park on Sunday afternoon.

First-half strikes from flying wingers Charles Mendy and Adam Parkhouse gave the hosts some breathing space at the interval, before Brendan Cholakian sealed the deal with ten minutes to play.

A stubborn defensive effort from Paul Dee's men saw the formidable firepower in United 58's lineup restricted to half-chances for the majority of the ninety.

The result, Manly's first victory in three and United 58's first defeat in five, leaves both sides positioned narrowly inside the all-important top five at the mid-way point of the 2019 National Premier League NSW Men's season.

U20'S MATCH PREVIEW

Alexander Malfara scored the only goal of the game to hand Rockdale City Suns a 1-0 win at Sutherland Sharks last weekend; the victory putting Rockdale clear in second place behind Blacktown City.

Rockdale will be hoping to stretch their winning streak out to three matches – and also, no doubt, a slip-up from Blacktown – when they take on Sydney

United 58 at Ilinden Sports Club in Round 12.

Bottom-of-the-table United present a more straightforward challenge than last week's opponents on paper, but have taken four points from their last two matches, with a 3-0 win over Sydney Olympic a few weeks ago followed by a 2-2 draw with Manly last weekend.
