LAMBERT PARK

CLUB WELCOME

Good evening everyone and welcome to Lambert Park for another massive match against locals APIA Leichhardt Tigers.

Tonight we take on one of the frontrunners in the competition, but it's a game our young stars should not fear as we continue to take it to our opponents each week.

I saw many positives in last week's game against Sydney United 58, and it will be those positives that we look to build on tonight at our home.

We'd like to thank all our Members and fans for their backing and we're looking forward to seeing everyone in the stands tonight.

MATCH PREVIEW

It will be a battle for Lambert Park bragging rights as Sydney FC take on APIA Leichhardt Tigers at Lambert Park on Saturday.

The Young Sky Blues will be out to shock their more favoured rivals and break a run of three straight defeats.

While Lambert Park is intrinsically linked to APIA, Sydney FC have performed well at the ground they have used as their home since earning promotion to the NSW top tier in 2018 and will be out to stake their claim.

Jimmy van Weeren's team showed early promise last round scoring early against Sydney United 58. However, they were unable to maintain the intensity conceding three goals in a 3-1 loss.

Thomas Heward-Belle has been in spectacular form for Sydney with the gloveman delivering impressive performance in his last two matches.

Van Weeren may have to shuffle his attacking options this week with Jordan Swibel suffering an injury against United 58. Hamish Lamberton has shown he is up to the task of leading the line and may be called upon once again.

Ryan Teague will need to be on his game in midfield as he takes on a pretty solid Tigers outfit.

While it might be a bit bizarre for APIA to use the away locker rooms, it shouldn't deter them from getting back to winning ways after a three game slump of their own.

The Tigers suffered a painful 2018 grand final flashback last week as they were stunned by Sydney Olympic 3-1 while John Calleja's had only managed draws against Hakoah and Blacktown City in the previous two matches.

Calleja will have some selection issues of his own with club stalwart Franco Parisi likely earning a return to the starting line-up. The APIA boss will need to find the best way to get Parisi and Kiwi international Andre de Jong on the park at the same time with the pair so fair being used as interchange for each other.

There are whispers that former Golden Boot award winner and APIA fan favourite Blake Powell may be on his way to the Tigers which will only boost the club's scoring stocks albeit forming a deadly partnership with Chris Payne.

Despite being the away side, expect APIA to be the favourites for this clash but Sydney FC could easily catch them by surprise.

1ST GRADE REVIEWS

Sydney FC 1 v Sydney United 58 3 at Lambert Park

Peter Simonoski has continued his incredible return from injury scoring twice to help Sydney United 58 to a 3-1 victory against Sydney FC at Lambert Park.

Simonoski hit the back of the net on each side of the half-time break to take his tally to five goals in two games and lift United 58 to consecutive wins.

The victory catapults Sydney United to third on the ladder but tied on points with second placed APIA Leichhardt.

A lightning start from Sydney FC gave them the lead after only eight minutes but they were unable to maintain the intensity as the Sydney United took control of the contest.

A sensational solo strike from Uruguayan import Sebastian Gallegos gave them a 2-1 lead at the break before Simonoski wrapped up the win only seven minutes after the restart.

Sydney Olympic 3 v APIA Leichhardt Tigers 1 at Belmore Sports Ground

Sydney Olympic returned to winning ways with a 3-1 victory over APIA Leichhardt Tigers in a Grand Final rematch on ANZAC Day.

The reigning champions managed to replicate the result from their Grand Final victory last season, with Spanish star Alex Sanchez again scoring a double.

Sanchez's two goals accompanied one from Jinya An, to thwart APIA's one goal to Chris Payne.

The win gives Olympic a much-needed lift after a slow start to the season, while diminishes APIA's chances of catching up to league leaders Wollongong this round.

U20'S MATCH PREVIEW

Tyson Savas scored a hatrick at Lambert Park last weekend to keep Sydney FC in eighth place ahead of Round 9, with Callum Talbot adding to the scoresheet to round out a 4-2 comeback win over Sydney United 58.

This week they take on APIA Leichhardt; the Tigers returning home after a 2-0 win over Sydney Olympic in Round 8. Goals from Michael Trajkovski and Lachlan Hughes helped APIA over the line, and up into third place on the ladder.

APIA could move second if Sydney Olympic drop points at Marconi, while Sydney FC will be looking to string together successive wins for the first time this season.
