LAMBERT PARK

CLUB WELCOME

Good evening everyone and welcome to Lambert Park for another massive match against Hakoah Sydney City East.

The fruits of our labours are beginning to pay dividends and the result against Olympic last week shows exactly what our squad is capable of and the standards we believe we've set for the remainder of the season.

The players continue to rise to the challenge each week and it was fantastic to see a number of them play against Kawasaki in the AFC Champions League on Tuesday night. They're our stars of tomorrow and that was a perfect learning experience for them.

We'd like to thank all our Members and fans for their backing and we're looking forward to seeing everyone in the stands tonight.

MATCH PREVIEW

Back to back wins will be the order of the day when Sydney FC host Hakoah Sydney City East on Saturday at Lambert Park.

The Young Sky Blues pulled off a massive upset last week with a brilliant back to the wall 3-2 win against Sydney Olympic and confidence is sure to be high for Jimmy van Weeren's side.

Another upside for van Weeren is the end of the A-League season which means he could be set to have rising stars Joel King and Luke Ivanovic more readily available over the second half of the campaign.

Both King and Ivanovic found themselves on the scoresheet last week and are only going to get better as the season goes on.

Ryan Teague was another impressive performer in last week's win and the holding midfielder will be expected to star against a struggling Hakoah attack.

It's been a tough run for Hakoah over the past two months with the Gavin Rae coached side finishing the first half of the season anchored to the bottom of the table with only two wins from 11 matches.

Their struggles finding the back of the net continued last round in a 1-0 loss to Blacktown City with Amaury Gauthier spurning a chance to equalise from the penalty spot.

The threat of relegation is becoming more and more real for Hakoah with the club needing a major turn around if they are to rescue their season.

Sydney FC will be favourites for this match at home but perhaps the second half of the season is the time Hakoah reignites their stuttering campaign.

1ST GRADE REVIEWS

Sydney Olympic 2 – Sydney FC 3 at Belmore Sports Ground

It was a hard-fought battle at Belmore Sports Ground on Friday night between Sydney Olympic and Sydney FC, with the young Sky Blues coming away with a shock 3-2 victory over last year's Premiers and Champions.

Sydney FC were clinical in their execution, with Benjamin Koop, Luke Ivanovic and Joel King all scoring their goals through their fast-paced attack, while Olympic struggled to convert their chances, with Alex Sanchez's double not enough to match the energetic young Sky Blues.

Olympic's defeat means they drop out of the top five while Sydney FC climb up to ninth.

Blacktown City FC 1 – Hakoah Sydney City East 0 at Lily Homes Stadium

A Daniel Araujo strike has helped Blacktown City to consecutive wins as they edged Hakoah Sydney City East 1-0 at Lily Homes Stadium.

It was a match defined by the chances which were missed as both sides spurned penalties before City clung on for a hard fought three points.

Araujo found the back of the net early in the second half with a clinical headed finish from a Matthew Lewis cross.

The visitors had a chance to snatch a point when they were given a late penalty but it wasn't to be for Hakoah as Amaury Gauthier's spot kick was saved.

U20'S MATCH PREVIEW

Sydney FC came away from Belmore Sports Ground last weekend with all three points after beating Sydney Olympic 2-1.

A goals from Patrick Wood put the visitors in front late in the first half before Olympic equalised with fifteen minutes remaining. Sydney FC took the lead back barely two minutes later, as Jake Hollman won a penalty before converting from the spot to give his side the win.

The Sky Blues return to Lambert Park on Saturday afternoon to face Hakoah Sydney City East, who were thrashed 5-0 by Blacktown City last Sunday.

Although that scoreline was perhaps more disappointing than the result given Blacktown's current form, Hakoah can only hope for improvement in Round 12.
