MATCH PREVIEW

A clash against fellow strugglers Mt Druitt Town Rangers could be just what the doctor ordered for Sydney Olympic when the two sides face off at Belmore Sports Ground on Saturday

Olympic slumped to their worst defeat of the year last round as Sutherland Sharks ended their ten match winless streak with a 3-0 victory against the reigning champions.

Star striker Alex Sanchez has lacked the service he had last season following the departure of Max Burgess, with the rest of the Olympic attack also unable to find their way.

Expect plenty of changes this week as Abbas Saad looks to re-ignite his struggling troops.

Its been a similar story out west with Mt Druitt also doing it tough after a 4-1 loss to local rivals Blacktown City last round.

The Rangers have the worst defence in the league and will need to focus all their attention on fixing that if they are to turn their campaign around.

One bright spark has been Uruguayan import Fabricio Fernandez who has been able to provide his teammates plenty of chances as he operates out of his preferred attacking midfield position.

New signing John Roberts looked good early on against Blacktown but faded late. With more time to train with his new teammates expect the former Wanderers NYL star to have a bigger impact on matches for Mt Druitt.

Sutherland Sharks 3 – Sydney Olympic 0 at Seymour Shaw Park

Sutherland Sharks have ended their 10 game winless streak in emphatic fashion thrashing Sydney Olympic 3-0 at Seymour Shaw Park on Saturday.

The win is only Sutherland's second of the season with their other three pointer coming against Olympic all the way back in round 1.

Goals to Raul Romero, Jeremy Cox and Charles Lokolingoy were unanswered by Olympic, leaving the home side with all three points from the match.

It was a listless performance from the visitors who looked nothing like the side who dominated the competition less than 12 months ago.

Mt Druitt Town Rangers 1 – Blacktown City FC 4 at Popondetta Park

Blacktown City has rediscovered their eye for goal in a dominant 4-1 demolition of local rivals Mount Druitt Town Rangers at Popondetta Park on Saturday.

It was a huge performance from City with the win catapulting them up to third on the ladder and reigniting their race for the premiership.

Mani Gonzalez and Lachlan Campbell in the opening 45 minutes gave Blacktown the perfect platform before a stunning long range strike from Rhett Desilva, as well as a late tap in from Joey Gibbs, wrapped up the victory.

Mt Druitt pushed hard all match but lacked the discipline in defence and in possession to top their rivals.

Fabricio Fernandez claimed a consolation goal for the home side midway through the second stanza but it wasn't the Rangers night as they slumped to their sixth defeat of the season.

U20'S MATCH PREVIEW

Sydney Olympic come into their Round 13 match with Mt Druitt Rangers in poor form, having suffered their fourth defeat in five matches to Sutherland Sharks last weekend.

Olympic went behind in the first half at Seymour Shaw in Round 12 but were unable to level in the remaining hour and have dropped to sixth, a point behind fifth-placed Sutherland.

Mt Druitt travel to Belmore Sports Ground following a wild 2-2 draw with runaway leaders Blacktown City last weekend. Trailing at the break, Mt Druitt had a man sent off before making a second-half comeback to lead with minutes remaining.

Another dismissal saw Mt Druitt end the match with nine men, before Blacktown equalised with a penalty kick in the final seconds of the match. The result leaves the Rangers in seventh ahead of this week's match against Olympic – just one point behind their Round 13 opponents.
