BELMORE SPORTS GROUND

CLUB WELCOME

Welcome to Round 11 Friday Night Football against Sydney FC at Belmore Sportsground.

On the back of two wins and a draw in the last three rounds we return home to take on Sydney FC in a very important clash. The Club has changed the fixture to Friday night to avoid a fixture clash with the Hyundai A-League Grand Final.

Congratulations to last round's players of the week;

Conquest Sap player of the week – Julia Meaker (Under 10's Girls)

Special K Women's player of the week – Natalia Grasso

Budget Petrol 1st Grade player of the week – Tom Whiteside

Aussie Industries player of the week – Lucas Pezzano (Under 15's youth)

I must thank our season pass holders and fans who truly are the best in the league. We hope you support our Friday Night Football and get your friends and family together to come along and cheer on the team.

To our sponsors both new and old, we cannot run our club without you and thank you for being part of the Olympic family, as always I urge you to support all of our sponsors as they support us.

I hope you enjoy what I am sure will be a very exciting night of football. Go Olympic!

MATCH PREVIEW

Friday night football at its best as NPL NSW Men's fever hits Belmore Sports Ground.

Sydney Olympic have hit a purple patch of form and will be out to step up their title defence when they host Sydney FC.

Olympic have broken free of the shackles which held them back in the opening weeks and have gone undefeated in their past four matches.

It's been an impressive turnaround by the Abbas Saad coached side which has helped them to fifth on the ladder and back in the race for finals football.

The return to fitness, and form, of Spanish striker Alex Sanchez has played a big part in Olympic's recent success and he will once again be a leading light against Sydney FC.

His strike partner Radovan Pavicevic finally got off the mark against Sydney United 58 in round 10 and will be hoping to hit the back of the net on Friday.

Veteran custodian Paul Henderson has also turned back the clock once more producing some fine goalkeeper displays all of which have kept the Blues at bay.

Looking to stop Olympic's firing front pair will be a Sydney FC side desperate to end a five game run without a win.

For another week they missed out on all three points due to a lapse in concentration and it is surely something coach Jimmy Van Weeren will be looking to sort out sooner rather than later.

Van Weeren was able to include A-League rising stars Luke Ivanovic and Joel King in his team against Sydney FC and their addition is surely something which will only strengthen the Young Sky Blues outfit.

Hamish Lamberton has done a good job covering the striking position since the injury to Jordi Swibel and he was once again on the scoreboard after coming off the bench.

It will be a tough contest for Sydney FC against an inform Olympic team but a full 90 minute performance could be enough for them to claim an upset.

Sydney United 1 – Sydney Olympic 1 at Sydney United Sports Centre

An inspired performance by shot stopper Thomas Manos has helped Sydney United 58 claim a point against rivals Sydney Olympic after a 1-1 draw at Sydney United Sports Centre on Sunday.

The United goalkeeper made save after save to stop a relentless Olympic attack in a thrilling match between the traditional rivals.

Peter Simonoski's 60th minute goal saw the home side take the lead early in the second half.

However, Olympic was quick to respond, with Radovan Pavicevic equalising for the visitors in the 63rd minute to finish the game square.

A late flurry from the visitors threatened to pinch all three points but United 58 clung on to secure a hard earned point.

Sutherland Sharks 1 – Sydney FC 1 at Seymour Shaw

A last gasp goal from Charles Lokolingoy has stunned his former side to help Sutherland Sharks to a 1-1 draw against Sydney FC at Seymour Shaw on Saturday.

It was the former Sydney FC ace's debut match in Sharks colours after only joining the club this week and what a maiden performance it was.

The match was a story of missed opportunities for the home side but Lokolingoy's strike helped the NPL NSW cellar dwellers to a vital point.

For Sydney FC, it was almost the perfect game plan. Substitute Hamish Lamberton nodded home a goal to get them ahead in the 82nd minute but they weren't able to hold on for the three points, leaving them enough to work for for next week.

U20'S MATCH PREVIEW

Sydney Olympic are in desperate need of a win to stop their slide down the table and keep within touching distance of Blacktown City.

Olympic haven't won a match since mid-April, and will be especially keen to fight for a result after two losses in their last three games.

This weekend they'll turn their attentions to Sydney FC, who arrive at Belmore Sports Ground on the back of a 1-1 draw with Sutherland Sharks in Round 90; a goal from Jake Hollman earning the Sky Blues a point on the road at Seymour Shaw.

Olympic were defeated 3-0 by Sydney United 58 last week as they fell into fourth place, eight points behind the leaders.
