MATCH PREVIEW

Sydney United 58 will be looking to add to Hakoah Sydney City East's struggles when they face off at Sydney United Sports Centre on Sunday.

The 5-0 loss to Marconi has been long forgotten by United 58 as they've climbed up to third position with a run of much improved performances.

Peter Simonoski has been a major addition to Miro Vlastelica's squad with five goals in two games after his return from injury.

Uruguayan Sebastian Gallegos had his best game in a Sydney United jersey last week against Sydney FC and has gone a step further to cement his spot as a must start player.

Hakoah has gone off the boil after a strong start to the campaign and coach Gavin Rae will be doing everything he can to return the team to winning ways.

Last week's defeat to Manly after Hakoah scored a late own goal was a heartbreaking result and is sure to have had a big hit to team confidence.

Amaury Gauthier's return to the point of the attack has given Hakoah some extra bite back when they go forward and Rae would likely be looking to feed the frontman as much as possible.

Shohei Okuna is another man to keep an eye on with his dribbling skills able to open up a game and create chances fro Hakoah.

United 58 will be favourites at home but Hakoah have the formula to frustrate opponents and could be able to pull off an upset.

1ST GRADE REVIEWS

Sydney FC 1 v Sydney United 58 3 at Lambert Park

Peter Simonoski has continued his incredible return from injury scoring twice to help Sydney United 58 to a 3-1 victory against Sydney FC at Lambert Park.

Simonoski hit the back of the net on each side of the half-time break to take his tally to five goals in two games and lift United 58 to consecutive wins.

The victory catapults Sydney United to third on the ladder but tied on points with second placed APIA Leichhardt.

A lightning start from Sydney FC gave them the lead after only eight minutes but they were unable to maintain the intensity as the Sydney United took control of the contest.

A sensational solo strike from Uruguayan import Sebastian Gallegos gave them a 2-1 lead at the break before Simonoski wrapped up the win only seven minutes after the restart.

Manly United FC 2 v Hakoah Sydney City East 1 at Cromer Park

A dramatic last-minute own goal saw Manly United secure a come-from-behind 2-1 victory over an unfortunate Hakoah Sydney City East at Cromer Park on Sunday afternoon.

Following an uneventful first period, the contest sprung to life moments after the interval as Hakoah marksman Amaury Gauthier capitalised on a miscued defensive header from Sam Gallagher, lobbing the visitors into the lead.

Manly struck back on the hour mark thanks to a thumping Brendan Cholakian header, which brought the healthy Northern Beaches crowd to life.

In a see-saw encounter, momentum regularly changed hands as both outfits struggled to stamp authority upon the contest; however one final twist to the tale arrived in the 89th minute.

Just as it appeared they would have to settle for a share of the spoils, Bradley Walker's desperate attempted clearance was misdirected into the back of his net, cruelly handing all three points to a euphoric Manly side.

U20'S MATCH PREVIEW

Sydney United 58 scored twice in the first half in their match against Sydney FC last weekend, but left Lambert Park empty-handed after conceding four goals in the second half to go down 4-2.

United are bottom of the table, but could move up a place into eleventh should they manage to win their Round 9 match at home to Hakoah Sydney City East.

Hakoah sit above Sydney United on goal difference, with a further three points up to Manly United in tenth.

Nathan Roberts and Hesam Soufi helped Hakoah to a 2-2 draw at Manly United last weekend giving them their fourth point of the season.
