LILY HOMES STADIUM

CLUB WELCOME

Blacktown City Football Club welcomes players, staff and supporters from Sydney Olympic to Lily Homes Stadium for our Round 14 NPL NSW Men's fixture.

The First team are entering the fixture on the back of two away wins scoring 4 goals on each occasion, but know they face a stern test against last years champions Sydney Olympic.

BCFC's U20's and U18's are also undefeated during the past two away games and continue to lead their respective competitions.

As always we wish our Youth, SAP and Girls Conference League players the very best and continue to adapt our Demon Motto.

BCFC wishes to thank all sponsors whom we can't do without and as always at the completion of the First grade fixture venture across the bridge, meet the players in the cocktail lounge at Lily's function centre and enjoy a delicious meal from the restaurant.

MATCH PREVIEW

The top of the table is back within reach and Blacktown City will be driven to close the gap even more with a win against Sydney Olympic FC on Sunday.

Third placed Blacktown have hit their straps through the mid season mark and have shook off any doubt in their ability to compete following their off-season player exodus to Marconi.

The big secret to Blacktown's reemergence has been quite simply goals.

The league's worst attack for large parts of the opening 11 rounds, Blacktown has rediscovered their shooting boots scoring eight goals in their past two games.

Blacktown's also feature a handy defence which boasts the second least number of goals conceded behind only league leaders Wollongong.

It sets up a challenging prospect for their opponents Sydney Olympic who are very much in the midst of a Premiership hangover this season.

The Abbas Saad coached team sit in eighth spot on the ladder after 13 weeks four points outside fifth spot and goal of finals football.

While scoring goals hasn't been an issue for Olympic, it has been stopping the other team which has really held them back.

Too many times has Olympic dropped points after taking an early lead.

The round three clash between these two sides was one of the games of the season so far with Olympic fighting back late to snatch a point in a 3-3 draw.

This fixture really could go anyway but if one thing is for sure it will be a must watch.

The Blues will be sweating on the injury to their star Spaniard Alejandro Sanchez who came off injured in last weekend's draw to the Rangers.

1ST GRADE REVIEWS

Sydney United 58 2 – Blacktown City 4 at Sydney United Sports Centre

Blacktown City has roared back into premiership contention after fighting back to claim a 4-2 win at Sydney United 58 on Sunday afternoon thanks to a pair of Daniel Bragg goals from the penalty spot.

Patrick Antelmi put United ahead inside a quarter of an hour, before Bragg equalised from the spot barely three minutes later.

Joey Gibbs nodded Blacktown in front early in the second half before Bragg scored his second, while Leroy Jennings added a fourth before Matt Sim came off the bench to score a late consolation for the hosts.

The result moves Blacktown up to third on the table on 23 points. Only one point behind second placed APIA Leichhardt Tigers and seven behind league leaders Wollongong Wolves.

Sydney Olympic FC 2 – Mount Druitt Town Rangers 2 at Belmore Sports Ground

Mount Druitt Town Rangers has salvaged a point in a 2-2 draw with Sydney Olympic on Sunday evening at Belmore Sportsground.

The home side managed to quintuple the amount of shots had by Mount Druitt, but Carlos Saliadarré's stellar efforts kept them at bay.

Alex Sanchez's double was muffed out by goals to Alex Boyadjian and Jordan Roberts.

The draw comes in stark contrast to the last time the two teams met, where Olympic enjoyed a remarkable 6-2 victory over the Rangers.

U20'S MATCH PREVIEW

Blacktown City stretched their unbeaten run out to ten matches as they overcame Sydney United 58 2-1 last weekend; a goal from Dale Howarth helping tip the balance in favour of the visitors at Sydney United Sports Centre.

Blacktown could lose their next three matches and still be two points clear at the top of the table, but will be eager to keep pushing further out in front of the chasing teams behind them.

This weekend, they welcome Sydney Olympic to Lily Homes Stadium; the visitors arriving on the back of a much-needed 2-1 win over Mt Druitt in Round 13.

Michael Gaitatzis and Dimi Petratos helped their side to its first win since April, as Olympic look to arrest their slide down the table and make their way back into the finals places.

Currently they sit sixth, level on points with fifth-placed Sydney FC but behind on goal difference. A result at Lily Homes Stadium might be too much to hope for, but Olympic must surely be prepared to dig in and fight as they take on the strongest side in the competition.
