MATCH PREVIEW

Hakoah Sydney City East will be hoping to stop a horror run of nine straight defeats when they host Marconi Stallions on Sunday night.

It has been the season from hell for Hakoah with their strong results from the opening four weeks seeming like an eternity ago with the team slumping to one of the worst run of results in the club's history.

Coach Gavin Rae will be hoping a return to the familiar surround of their Hensley Athletic Field home ground is the formula to help his side snatch a much needed win.

Hakoah has made two big signings in recent weeks with the addition of Pedj Bojic and Adrian Vranic bolstering Rae's options in both attack and defence.

Goals have been the Eastern Suburbs based club's biggest weakness and they will be desperately hoping that Vranic is the answer to their goalscoring woes.

They come up against a side which hasn't had those problems this season in Marconi Stallions.

The Stallions boast one of the most deadly attacks in the competition but suffer from a bad case of inconsistency which struck last week as they suffered a 1-0 loss on the road against Manly United.

Marconi will have a point to prove this week and will have their eyes set on a big win against the league's bottom team.

Currently in eighth spot, the Peter Tsekenis coached Marconi team have to finish the season on a high note if they are any chance of snatching a spot in the finals.

Anthony Frangie returns to take on his old side in Hakoah and will want to put in a big performance at the ground where his breakthrough performances helped him become one of the leagues rising stars.

Marconi will be out to inflict a huge loss on Hakoah so expect the visitors to race out of the blocks.

Hakoah will be in for a tough test but if they can snatch a point from this contest it could be the building block for sunnier times over the back end of the campaign at Eastgardens.

1ST GRADE REVIEWS

Sydney Olympic 1 – Hakoah Sydney City East 0 at Lambert Park

Peter Kekeris starred as Sydney Olympic arrested their mid-season NPL NSW slump by edging bottom-placed Hakoah Sydney City East 1-0 at Lambert Park on Sunday evening.

Kekeris' early strike – the winger's first for Olympic after signing on from A-League's Central Coast Mariners last month – was the telling effort, one which boosts the reigning champions in their hunt for a top-five finish.

Olympic's finals ambitions had been dampened over a run of five matches without a win prior to the Round 15 clash in Leichhardt but the club now move above fellow contenders Marconi Stallions and Sutherland Sharks into seventh position.

Manly United 1 – Marconi Stallions 0 at Cromer Park

A Charles Mendy strike in first-half stoppage time proved decisive as Manly United edged out Marconi Stallions 1-0 at Cromer Park on Sunday afternoon.

In a fiery affair, the visitors will be left scratching their heads as to how they emerged empty-handed following the raft of opportunities they forged throughout the ninety.

Despite James Andrew and last week's hat-trick hero Mitch Mallia giving Manly some early defensive headaches, the solitary goal of the match arrived courtesy of a former Stallion Charles Mendy deep into first-half added time.

A tense second stanza ultimately saw the scoresheet remain as it were, allowing for a courageous Manly performance to earn them a valuable three points in the race for the top 5.

HAKOAH/GROWTHBUILT PINK SPORTS WEEKEND

Dear Hakoah Community

On the weekend of 22nd and 23rd of June, Hakoah and Growthbuilt are hosting a Pink Sports Weekend. The primary objective of the weekend is to help raise funds and awareness for Breast Cancer Network Australia (BCNA). We would like to thank Growthbuilt for supporting Hakoah with this initiative, it is really appreciated.

BCNA supports around 20,000 families each year who are affected by breast cancer. <https://www.bcna.org.au/about-us/who-we-are/>

Please show your support over the weekend by coming and watching our teams play, and donating to a very worthy cause. It would also be appreciated if you could encourage friend and family to do the same.

You can make a donation by clicking on the link below which goes to the Hakoah donation page with BCNA.

https://bcna.secure.force.com/Donations/CICD__Fundraise?id=7010y0000016orv

We will be decorating Hensley with a splash of Pink over the weekend, and our youth and senior teams will be wearing pink arm bands.

Let's all have a fun weekend and show our support.

Thank you all for your generosity, Hakoah Board.

Striding forward with Hakoah into their 80th year

U20'S MATCH PREVIEW

Hakoah Sydney City East should be raring to go against Marconi Stallions on Sunday afternoon, having gone a week without a match after their Round 15 clash with Sydney Olympic was washed out.

Hakoah remain four points ahead of last-placed Sydney United 58; their last result a 3-2 win over Rockdale which snapped a three-match losing streak. They could find themselves level with tenth-placed Mt Druitt should results go their way on Sunday, potentially opening the door to a late run at the finals.

Their opponents this weekend, Marconi, travel to Hensley Athletic Field after a 3-1 defeat to Manly United in which Lachlan Sepping scored the Stallions' only goal.

Marconi have struggled for consistency in recent weeks, and have dropped to ninth place after winning only two of their previous seven matches. This fixture ended in a 3-3 draw when these sides met at Marconi Stadium in April.
