CROMER PARK

CLUB WELCOME

Good afternoon and welcome to Cromer Park for this round 15 National Premier Leagues NSW men's clash between Manly United and Marconi.

Both teams will enter the tussle on Sydney's Northern Beaches desperate for three points as the race for finals football intensifies.

United were disappointed to lose 2-1 to Mt Druitt last start, while the Stallions were impressive in their 5-2 win over Sydney FC.

Brendan Cholakian has been a shining light for Manly all season.

The attacking ace is scoring goals for fun this season, and if he continues his electric form, the hosts will be hard to contain.

For the visitors, striker Mitch Mallia is the man who his team will heavily lean on today.

The former Hyundai A-League star finished with a hat-trick versus the Sky Blues last weekend and no doubt he will be keen for a repeat performance.

Also look for x-factor striker James Andrew to have a say in the final outcome.

The first grade game kicks off at 3pm, and as always, let's go Manly United!

MATCH PREVIEW

Manly United will be determined to claim a big bounce back win to keep their finals hopes alive when Marconi Stallions come to Cromer Park on Sunday.

Manly are only three points outside the top five in sixth place, but hold only a one point advantage over seventh placed Marconi Stallions.

Sunday's match could prove to be vital match in the finals race with pressure on both sides to take home the three points.

Manly suffered a shock 2-1 loss to Mt Druitt Town Rangers last round despite taking an early 1-0 lead.

It was a frustrating result for Paul Dee's side who have struggled to string back to back wins this season.

Against Mt Druitt, Manly took too long to hit their straps and were forced into a late scramble which proved unsuccessful.

Dee has made few changes to his starting squad this season and expect that to continue this week.

Marconi come into this game in devastating form scoring ten goals in their past two matches.

The Stallions have threatened this sort of dominant attacking football without delivering consistently so it could be bad timing for Manly if Marconi have finally hit their straps.

Mitch Mallia played his best game for Marconi since joining the club this season after he scored a hat-trick in the 5-2 win against Sydney FC.

The former Malta international will be a key cog to the Stallions Success moving forward.

Expect plenty of goals in this match with both teams playing to keep their finals hopes alive.

1ST GRADE REVIEWS

Mt Druitt Town Rangers 2 – Manly United 1 at Popondetta Park

Mt Druitt Town Rangers backed up their midweek FFA Cup heroics to upset Manly United 2-1 at Popondetta Park

Aidan Desmond's men fought gallantly and never gave up even though Manly struck first via a Travis Oughtred header as a Toufic Alameddine penalty and John Roberts strike were enough to see the boys from Mt Druitt claim maximum points at home.

Alameddine netted from the spot in the final minute of the first-half to level the scores after Oughtred opened the scoring in the 34' minute when meeting a corner to head home.

But it wasn't enough as Roberts netted what turned out to be the winner in the 54' minute with a sweetly struck shot that flew past Dylan Mitchell.

Marconi Stallions 5 – Sydney FC 2 at Marconi Stadium

A Mitch Mallia hat trick has helped Marconi Stallions to a dominant 5-2 win against Sydney FC at Marconi Stadium on Sunday.

Mallia was at his devastating best scoring twice in the first half and again in the third as the Stallions scored five goals for the second straight week.

The former Blacktown City star gave Marconi a perfect start with goals in the 16th and the 36th as they claimed a 2-0 lead at the interval.

The home side went from strength to strength in the second stanza as Mallia snatched his third before James Andrew and Damian Tsekenis also found the back of the net.

Sydney FC claimed two goals in the second half but they proved to be mere consolation as a rampant Marconi outfit claimed their second win in as many weeks.

U20'S MATCH PREVIEW

Manly United will be desperate to get on the field against Marconi Stallions on Sunday afternoon after a frustrating ninety minutes against Mt Druitt in Round 14.

United were given penalties in the minutes after kickoff and with the clock ticking down at the end of the match, but missed both and left Popondetta with only a point despite having held the lead over the ten-man Rangers.

They will be keen to make up for lost points this week when they take on Marconi, who travel to Cromer Park in ninth place after a 1-1 draw with Sydney FC in Round 14; the Stallions stretching their unbeaten run to four consecutive matches.

Marconi sit just four points outside the top five ahead of this match, but will do well to stay unbeaten for another week, having lost 4-1 at home when these sides met in April.
