BELMORE SPORTS GROUND

CLUB WELCOME

Welcome to Round 15 against Hakoah Sydney City East FC at Belmore Sports Ground.

After a month of disappointing results we return home today for a crucial match in our season's hopes, quite simply we have moved into a situation where all our matches are must win and I am confident we can rise to the challenge. As always we need your support as the boys look to get back to winning ways.

Congratulations to last round's players of the week;

Conquest SAP player of the week – Eve Kavvalos

Special K Women's player of the week – Jess Frampton

Budget Petrol 1st Grade player of the week – Jinya An

Aussie Industries player of the week – Lachlan Conte

Our Women's Senior squads continue to strengthen their position in the NPL NSW Women's, with our senior squads well placed as we approach the final rounds and our youth squads remain very competitive in all matches.

Our Men's Youth squads continue to improve, with Under 13, 14 and 16's all in the top 8 of their competitions, while our Under 15 squad are looking to continue their improvement in the back half of the season.

I would like to thank our season pass holders and fans who truly are the best in the league. It's times like this we need you more than ever, I hope you continue to turn up and get behind our Club.

To our sponsors both new and old, we cannot run our club without you and thank you for being part of the Olympic family, as always I urge you to support all of our sponsors as they support us.

Reminder we are selling tickets at the entry gate to get on the supporter bus to our match against Wollongong Wolves on Sunday 23 June. Join the fun and get on the bus to watch the boys play.

I hope you enjoy what I am sure will be a very exciting day of football, get your friends and family together and come along to cheer on our team. Go Olympic!

MATCH PREVIEW

With only eight games left in the season the time is now for Sydney Olympic to turn their campaign around, starting on Sunday when they host bottom team Hakoah Sydney City East at Belmore Sports Ground.

Olympic snatched a 1-1 draw against Blacktown City and were unlucky to get the win during an thrilling end to end encounter.

However, that has been the story of the reigning premier's season with flashes of excellence undone by moments of madness.

Coach Abbas Saad is surely desperate for answers as he searches for a way to return his team to the heights of last season.

Saad has made a number of small changes to his team in recent weeks including moving Will Angel to a central defensive position while moving incumbent centre back Tom Whiteside out to right back.

These changes have failed to help Olympic find major improvement but don't expect the squad tinkering to end until results start going the Blues way.

One constant has been striker Alex Sanchez who remains a constant threat at the point of the attack.

Their opponent this week is Hakoah Sydney City East who remain anchored to 12th position on the table and are facing relegation.

It has been a horror season for the Gavin Rae coached side who have hit rock bottom in 2019.

Nothing the Eastern Suburbs side do seems to work compounded by the fact their attack has failed to fire scoring a league worst tally of only nine goals from 14 matches this season.

Hakoah historically has frustrated opposition sides with dogged defence and pragmatic football but it's been a gameplay which hasn't quite hit the mark this year.

Olympic will be heavy favourites for this game but with the threat of Relegation looming maybe Hakoah will find a new lease of life to save themselves from the drop.

1ST GRADE REVIEWS

Blacktown City 1 – Sydney Olympic 1 at Lily Homes Stadium

Blacktown City and Sydney Olympic have shared the spoils after an exhilarating 1-1 draw at Lily Homes Stadium on Sunday.

It was a thrilling end to end encounter with Olympic unlucky not to snatch an unlikely victory in a frantic final minutes.

Joey Gibbs fired home for Blacktown midway through the second half, but it was quickly cancelled out when Olympic equalised only two minutes later through Radovan Pavicevic.

Both sides traded chances in crazy closing ten minutes but neither could find the breakthrough as they took only a point away from an enthralling contest.

Hakoah Sydney City East 0 – Rockdale City Suns 4 at Hensley Athletic Field

Rockdale City Suns re-entered the NPL NSW top five and heaped more misery on rock-bottom Hakoah Sydney City East with a 4-0 win at Eastgardens on Sunday.

Nick Porreca's side had dropped out of the finals positions following their five-goal collapse against Marconi Stallions a week ago but returned at the expense of Manly United after strolling past the luckless Hakoah at Hensley Athletic Field.

Jordan Figon and Leigh Egger fired in scrappy first-half goals before Suns striker Figon sealed his double and put the visitors in the clear five minutes after the interval.

Alec Urosevski added a fourth late on, consigning Hakoah – who lost ex-A-League star Predrag Bojic and his replacement James Combes to injury inside the space of 34 first half minutes – to their eleventh defeat of the campaign.

It leaves Gavin Rae's side seven points adrift of eleventh-placed Mt. Druitt Town Rangers at the foot of the ladder.

U20'S MATCH PREVIEW

A 1-1 draw with Blacktown City in Round 14 kept Sydney Olympic in sixth place ahead of this week's match against Hakoah Sydney City East.

Having won just once in their last seven games, Olympic will know the importance of taking maximum points from a fixture against eleventh-placed Hakoah.

Still, the visitors won't be rolling over: Hakoah are now four points clear of last-placed Sydney United following an impressive 3-2 win over Rockdale City Suns last weekend, with goals coming from Zachary Sapsford and Hesam Soufi giving them just their third win of the season.

Hakoah sit eight points off the top five, and remain an unpredictable opponent as they look to close the gap on the teams above them.
