MATCH PREVIEW

A big bounce back performance should be on the cards for Sydney United 58 as they return home to Sydney United Sports Centre to take on Sutherland Sharks this Sunday night.

United 58 paid the price for not making the most of their opportunities last round as they suffered a heartbreaking 1-0 loss to a 10-man APIA Leichhardt Tigers side.

It's been a tough month for Miro Vlastelica and his Reds team as they've won two and lost three from their past five matches.

The addition of former Melbourne Knights defender Tomislav Uskok has helped solidify the United 58 defence and it will be needed against a Sharks team which has gone from easy beats to competition dark horse.

Goals remain an issue for Sydney United 58 as Peter Simonoski remains as the leading scorer on 7 for the year.

Their opponents Sutherland have made the most of the mid-season transfer window to transform their team.

Liam McGing, Jerry Skotadis, Bai Antoniou and Charles Lokolingoy all now call Seymour Shaw

Park home with the former Sydney FC youth stars combining in a big way for coach Terry Palapanis.

Antoniou was the form player last week as the Sharks stunned Blacktown City to stretch their unbeaten run to an incredible 8 weeks including three wins from their past four matches.

The Sharks know that they've turned the screws for the second half of the year and have come into it as a team on a mission in making a late surge for finals football.

This match has potential to be the best of the weekend and one you shouldn't miss.

1ST GRADE REVIEWS

APIA Leichhardt Tigers 1 – Sydney United 58 0 at Lambert Park

10-man APIA Leichhardt Tigers have claimed an incredible 1-0 win against all odds at Lambert Park on Sunday.

Former Sydney United 58 striker Chris Payne pulled a Rabona kick from his bag of tricks which deflected off a defender into the back of the net to give APIA the incredible, yet unlikely, victory.

The home side was forced to play a man down after only 24 minutes when Themba Muata-Marlow was sent for an early shower for a tug on the shirt of United striker Peter Simonoski.

It made for a tense and thrilling match with neither side giving an inch.

However, United 58 could never take advantage of their extra player and paid the price in the dying stages of the match.

The result keeps APIA in second spot on the ladder while United 58 stay in fourth.

Sutherland Sharks 2- Blacktown City 1 at Seymour Shaw Park

Sutherland Sharks has knocked Blacktown City's premiership hopes with a shock 2-1 win at Seymour Shaw on Saturday.

It was only the Sharks fourth win of the season but extends their current unbeaten run to eight games.

Raul Romero scored from the penalty spot to give Sutherland the perfect start before Jordan Morfitis doubled their advantage to 2-0 with only 11 minutes left on the clock.

Lachlan Campbell netted late for Blacktown City to set up a nervous close to the match but it wasn't enough for the visitors as the Sharks hung on for a confidence boosting win.

U20'S MATCH PREVIEW

Sydney United 58 will stay at the bottom of the table for another week regardless of the result against Sutherland Sharks on Sunday afternoon, but have room to improve with a game in hand.

Heavy rain across Sydney saw United's match against APIA Leichhardt Tigers called off last weekend, keeping them four points adrift of Hakoah Sydney City East (whose match was also cancelled).

With two defeats preceding United's washout in Round 15, there must surely be concern at Sydney United Sports Centre ahead of this week's visit of Sutherland Sharks, who will be on the hunt for nothing less than three points after a recent drop in form.

Sutherland drew 1-1 with Blacktown City last weekend; a good result against the competition's best side but one which left them clinging to their place in the top five.

The Sharks are just one point ahead of Manly United and Sydney Olympic (with a game in hand) in sixth and seventh place respectively. With just two wins in their last six, they'll need to improve soon if they're to hold off the teams below them.
