LILY HOMES STADIUM

CLUB WELCOME

Blacktown City FC welcomes players, staff and supporters from APIA Leichhardt Tigers to Lily's Football Centre for the round 18 fixture of the NPL NSW Men's competition.

This fixture is always one worth watching with all three grades guaranteed to be tense hard fought battles.

APIA are coming off a solid three nil victory over Hakoah with the evergreen Franco Parisi showing that he still has the silky touch he is renowned for, whilst the City lads are backing up after a good performance against a gallant Sydney FC with Dakota Askew bagging a double and Joey Gibbs with a spectacular bicycle kick.

Don't forget we have the first ever Blacktown City Golf Day next Friday 12th July so get your bookings in and the Black and White night on the 24th August which was a sell-out last year with a great night had by all. Get your tables organised.

With a big crowd expected on Sunday don't forget to come along after the game to the cocktail room in Lily's Function Centre to see the man of the match awarded as well as reports from coaches on the games played that day.

As always stay safe and see you Sunday.

GO THE DEMONS!

MATCH PREVIEW

It will be a clash of the titans at Lily Homes Stadium on Sunday when second placed APIA Leichhardt Tigers travel to take on Blacktown City.

four points separate the two sides on the ladder and a loss in Sunday's match could all but end Blacktown's hopes of a potential top two finish.

A 3-1 win against Sydney FC in round 17 was a big result for City headlined by a highlight reel bicycle kick goal from Joey Gibbs to clinch the result.

Coach Mark Crittenden has used a more conservative game plan this season to help cover the exodus of attacking stars from last season's team and it appeared to stifle their attack all together in the first half of the campaign.

However, Blacktown has found their groove and the goals are now flowing freely with Gibbs closing in on top form.

APIA on the other are in near finals form and three straight wins is proof of that.

A big part of that form is 36-year-old veteran playmaker Franco Parisi who has played the house down in all three matches including a return of three goals and three assists.

The Tiger's defence has also stood up conceding only one goal in their past three games.

Themba Muata-Marlow could be reintroduced to the centre of defence after serving a one game suspension but he will have a tough time to fight his way into the team.

This is the standout match of the round and one not to miss.

1ST GRADE REVIEWS

Blacktown 3 – Sydney FC 1 at Lily Homes Stadium

A spectacular Joey Gibbs bicycle kick has helped Blacktown City claim a dominant 3-1 win against Sydney FC at Lily Homes Stadium on Sunday.

The highlight reel moment from the veteran striker wrapped up the win for Blacktown with a little more than ten minutes left on the clock in a match where they always held the upper hand.

Dakota Askew opened the scoring for Blacktown after only twenty minutes but the visiting Young Sky Blues evened the ledger from the penalty not long before the interval.

However, it was always going to be Blacktown's day with Askew, and then Gibb's incredible overhead finish wrapping up a clinical win for the Mark Crittenden coached side.

APIA Leichhardt Tigers 3 – Hakoah Sydney City East 0 at Lambert Park

A Franco Parisi master class has helped APIA Leichhardt Tigers to a dominant 3-0 win against competition strugglers Hakoah Sydney City East at Lambert Park on Sunday

The veteran midfield maestro scored and set up another as second placed APIA cut the gap between them and league leaders Wollongong Wolves to five points.

Parisi gave the home side the perfect start when he headed home only three minutes in and then showed plenty of finesse with a deft through ball which helped Dom Nasrabadi double the Tigers lead in the 28th minute.

Chris Payne wrapped up the win for the John Calleja coached side late in the contest when he found the bottom corner of the net.

U20'S MATCH PREVIEW

Blacktown City will look to reassert themselves at the top of the table when they welcome APIA Leichhardt to Lily Homes Stadium on Sunday afternoon.

The leaders have dropped points in three of their last five games, including a 2-1 loss to second-placed Sydney FC last weekend, but remain seven points ahead in first with five rounds remaining.

Still, Blacktown will want to improve their form as they head into the finals, and this weekend face a team that should provide as good a challenge as any.

APIA Leichhardt travel to Lily's following a disappointing defeat to Hakoah in Round 17: having led at halftime, the Tigers ultimately lost 2-1 after Anthony Sparacino was sent off after the break. APIA remain fifth despite the defeat, level with sixth-placed Sydney Olympic and with a game in hand.
