CROMER PARK

CLUB WELCOME

Good afternoon and welcome to Cromer Park for this round 18 National Premier Leagues NSW Men's clash between Manly United and Sydney Olympic FC.

Both teams will enter the tussle on Sydney's Northern Beaches desperate for three points.

United were very disappointed to lose 5-0 to Sutherland last start, while Olympic replaced Manly in the top five following a hard fought 1-0 triumph over Rockdale.

Kieren Paull has been a shining light for Manly all season.

The right back always holds his own, and if he produces one of his better games, the hosts will be well on their way to collecting three points.

For the visitors, crafty number 10 Harris Gaitatzis is the man who his team will heavily lean on today.

Gaitatzis has the ability to change the course of a game in an instant and his battle with United skipper Sam Gallagher will be worth the price of admission alone.

Also look for veteran Olympic goalkeeper Paul Henderson to have a say in the final outcome.

The first grade game kicks off at 3pm, and as always, let's go Manly United.

MATCH PREVIEW

A shock thrashing at the hands of Sutherland last week will be the driving force pushing Manly United towards a big bounce back performance against Sydney Olympic on Sunday.

It was the second straight loss for Manly and was a tough reality check for the team from the Northern Beaches.

The pressure will be on coach Paul Dee to spark new life into his hot and cold United team.

Travis Oughtred will slot back into the team after receiving a red card last round as his one match suspension was served during the TAFE NSW Waratah Cup Semi Final match against Marconi Stallions played out on Wednesday.

Sydney Olympic come into the contest after breaking into the top five last round with a win against Rockdale City Suns.

Abbas Saad's side may not be playing the same football which guided them to a premiership and championship double last season but improved form in recent weeks has given them hope of making the finals.

Star striker Alex Sanchez will be a key omission from the squad as he is serving a one week suspension which means a lot of pressure will now ride on the likes of skipper Jason Madonis and Radovan Pavicevic, while look to Nicola Kuleski for a big game in midfield.

It's a match not to miss with plenty riding on the result.

1ST GRADE REVIEWS

Manly United 0 – Sutherland Sharks 5 at Cromer Park

The Sutherland Sharks cruised to a 5-0 demolition job of a ten-man Manly United outfit at Cromer Park on Sunday afternoon.

The hosts were shocked by a straight red card shown to defensive linchpin Travis Oughtred just six minutes in, which brought rise to a significantly one-sided contest.

Raul Romero converted the ensuing penalty, before a delightful Mateo Poljak chip and fierce Jeremy Cox drive put the visitors well and truly in the ascendancy by the interval.

Despite the numerical disparity, Paul Dee's men forged some golden opportunities throughout the first period that could have added some additional spice to the contest.

However, their failure to convert resulted in a rather tame second period where Sutherland eventually compounded Manly's misery courtesy of tidy strikes from Jerry Skotadis and Romero.

The emphatic result secured a crucial three points for Sutherland in the ever-intensifying race for the top five.

Sydney Olympic 1 – Rockdale City Suns 0 at Belmore Sports Ground

An 11th minute Jason Madonis penalty was all it took as Sydney Olympic clung on for a hard fought win against rivals Rockdale City Suns in a physical clash at Belmore Sports Ground on Sunday.

The win was Olympic's first win against Rockdale since 2015 and catapults the reigning premiers into the top five for the first time since the opening weeks of the season

Madonis was clinical from the penalty spot early in the contest to give the home team a lead they would be forced to defend for more than 80 minutes in what was a torrid and chippy encounter.

For Rockdale the loss is another heartbreaking result and is sure to heap more pressure on interim boss Nick Porecca.

U20'S MATCH PREVIEW

Manly United's finals hopes were dealt a severe blow last weekend when they were beaten 3-2 by Sutherland Sharks; opening up a seven-point gap between the sides which might have only been one had Manly managed to win.

Instead, Sutherland are fourth while Manly have dropped to eighth, four points behind APIA Leichhardt and Sydney Olympic, and two behind Marconi.

Manly will feel they have to win this weekend, but can't expect anything easier than in Round 17 as they take on another team chasing a spot in the top five.

Sydney Olympic were beaten 1-0 by Rockdale at Belmore Sports Ground last week; a result which, while not disastrous, was certainly undesirable with only five matches of the regular season remaining – two of those against top five teams.
