Mount Druitt Town Rangers FC host Sydney United 58 FC in the NPL NSW Men's at Popondetta Park. Rangers warmly welcome our members, players, supporters and valued sponsors of Mount Druitt Town Rangers FC and we extend this welcome to our opponents, to what again promises to be another awesome night of Football at Popondetta Park, tonight proudly brought to you by our fantastic sponsor GLOBAL Projects Kitchen & Joinery - THANK YOU!

Rangers Way Review

With just four rounds of the League to play out, Rangers will hit the road for the next fortnight, so critical Club Championship points MUST be banked tonight! Maintaining the Club Championships 6th rung after last weekends fixtures, there was movement all around, indeed the CC reveals just 11 points separate 6th to 11th - with 21 points on offer each matchday one slip-up could see a decline in standings. Tonights games are critical with just 4 points between Rangers 6th and SU58 in 9th position.

Tonights 18s fixture promises so much with high flying Rangers 2nd v SU 4th place. Both 20s have struggled for consistency, 9th place Rangers are presented with an opportunity for back-to-back wins against SU 12th place. The main course on tonight's feast of football our Rangers in 10th are just 6pts behind SU in 4th - that is 7 teams split by 2 wins! What a great competitive league we have for Season 2019!

An update on the FFA Cup, following FOX SPORTS live draw for the Round of 32, with a healthy vocal gathering in the clubhouse it was a fun night. FOOTBALL4ALL

NOVA EMPLOYMENT FOOTBALL4ALL, NEXT KANGA CUP, PIONEERING PORTUGUESE ALGARVE CUP

Focus on disAbilty and this GREAT news story... the famous Portugese ALGARVE Cup Tournament will forever have a special touch thanks to Mt Druitt's very own Inclusive/AWD/Special Needs pioneer Helen Stevens. Helen reached out and asked if they would consider introducing an Inclusive league - a firm YES will see our 2020 SAP 12s joined by our amazing NOVA EMPLOYMENT and IAN CUBITT'S CLASSIC HOME IMPROVEMENT Inclusive team.

Such initiatives are nothing new out Rangers way! In late 2011 a group of special needs players were 'training' on CHARLIE LOWLES LEISURE CENTRE (ELC) when some Rangers players (including young Sean & Callum Payer who are still Rangers) lent a hand, quickly these 'KINGZ' were adopted as 'Rangers' who successfully rallied for inclusion into the Football NSW Futsal program - a precedence!

With the backing of the outstanding local business

NOVA EMPLOYMENT focus on disability a great partnership was forged, an extension of their Football NSW football4all Gala Day, another outstanding success last weekend - Helen, and players still with us have competed in all 11 years of this Gala event proudly sponsored by NOVA EMPLOYMENT.

Please get behind this indeed 'special' group of Rangers members as they again head to the KANGA CUP in Canberra where in 7yrs they have 6 gold and 1 silver medal. Kanga Cup squad for 2019 is Dallas, Dan, Farzarna, Jake, John, Josh, Mitchell, Nathan, Will, and of course Tom will lead the song!

Frequently at Popondetta cheering on our Rangers NPL please when you see our Inclusive players at @POPondetta be sure to encourage them - their joy and excitement will truly humble you!

MATCH PREVIEW

A four game winning streak may have come to an end but Mt Druitt Town Rangers shouldn't be written off when they host Sydney United 58 on Saturday.

The Rangers were on the wrong side of a Wollongong Wolves onslaught in round 17 4-1 defeat.

This week will be about a bounce back showing and they will look to veterans Mirjan Pavlovic and Fabricio Fernandez to deliver the X-factor required.

Coach Aidan Desmond will need to make a few changes after the send-off of Blake Thompson last week meaning he will be unavailable for this clash.

United 58 come into the game after a frustrating 0-0 draw with rivals Marconi last round.

Despite the Stallions playing most of the match with only ten-men, United couldn't break them down and had to settle for a point in a match they probably should have won.

Reds gaffer Miro Vlastelica will have big decisions to make to help re-ignite his team's season after their recent stumbles.

United 58 will be favourites but the result is far from a sure thing with Mt Druitt at home a tough team to beat.

Mt Druitt Town Rangers 1 – Wollongong Wolves 4 at Popondetta Park

A whirlwind second half performance has helped Wollongong Wolves fightback from an early deficit to clinch a comprehensive 4-1 win against Mt Druitt Town Rangers at Popondetta Park on Saturday night.

After a below par first 45 minutes, the Luke Wilkshire coached Wolves hit top gear after the break to end Mt Druitt's four game winning streak and stretch their lead at the top of the competition to eight points

Mt Druitt thought they were a chance of a shock upset when Mirjan Pavlovic struck after 18 minutes to give the home side a shock 1-0 lead.

But it was a different story after the interval with Wollongong striking twice through Darcy Madden and Thomas James to take a 2-1 lead only 12 minutes into the second half.

A bizarre brain snap from Rangers defender Blake Thompson meant the home side were forced to fight on with only ten men and the Wolves took full advantage with former Western Sydney Wanderers front man Lachlan Scott scoring a brace to wrap up a 4-1 win.

Sydney United 58 0 – Marconi Stallions 0 at Sydney United Sports Centre

A gutsy 10-man Marconi Stallions has clung on to claim a 0-0 draw against Sydney United 58 at Sydney United Sports Centre on Sunday.

Reduced to 10 men on the cusp of half-time, the stallions dug in to stem the tide of a relentless United attack and snatch a vital point against the odds.

The home side had chance after chance to find a winner but lacked the finishing touch required to break the deadlock.

It was a result which keeps Marconi in the finals race while for United 58 it was yet another opportunity lost.

U20'S MATCH PREVIEW

Mt Druitt are down, but they're not yet out. The Rangers sit six points off fifth place – and it could yet be more should APIA win their game in hand – but win against Sydney United this week, and a late run begins to look like a possibility.

Mt Druitt beat Wollongong Wolves 2-0 last weekend; their first win in five weeks coming courtesy of goals from Emmanuel Peters and Luke Clifford. Now, they turn their attention to Sydney United, who travel to Popondetta Park seven points adrift at the bottom of the table, and with four losses in their last four games.

United were beaten 1-0 by Marconi Stallions in Round 17, and have picked up only two points on the road this season. Up against a determined Mt Druitt side, they will be in for another fight at Popondetta on Saturday.
