MATCH PREVIEW

A desperate Rockdale City Suns outfit will be determined to keep their season alive when they host third placed Blacktown City at Ilinden Sports Centre on Sunday.

The Suns have slumped massively since the midway point of the competition suffering through a run of humiliating defeats.

However, their early season success has them still with a slim chance of making the finals but they'll need a huge turn around and fast.

One positive for the Suns is the return of experienced defender Trent McClenahan after a lengthy stint on the sidelines. He return couldn't come at a better time with Rockdale's defence screaming out for a leader to help end the constant leak of goals. While there may be a chance Panny Nikas may return to the field this Sunday after recovering from a long injury lay-off.

Their opponents Blacktown City have quietly been going upon their business this season and are starting to find their groove when it matters most.

Coach Mark Crittenden has a knack for getting the most from his players and he has done that again this season especially after losing so many of his regular starters in the off-season.

Defence has been the corner stone of Blacktown's success this campaign and they will rely on stars Grant Lynch and Matt Smith to help marshal the back line.

Striker Joey Gibbs is starting to rediscover his eye for goal after a lean start and he will play a big role moving forward.

Blacktown go in favourites for this clash and should take home the points if Rockdale is unable to shake off their recent struggles.

1ST GRADE REVIEWS

Sydney FC 3 – Rockdale City Suns 1 at Lambert Park

Sydney FC have dealt a crushing blow to Rockdale City Suns FC finals hopes with a Marco Tilio brace led 3-1 success tonight at a wet Lambert Park.

The victory was the Sky Blues first since Round 12 when they downed Hakoah Sydney City East.

The Young Sky Blues were made to work for it, coming back from a goal down with a pair of highlight reel strikes from Marco Tilio. Substitute Benjamin Koop added a late chip to confirm the result as they move to 17 points for the season.

Tonight was a tough result for Rockdale City Suns FC. The Suns had the lead through a first half injury time strike from Aleksandar Canak but some errors in the second half have them on the edge of elimination.

Blacktown City 1 – APIA Leichhardt Tigers 1 at Lily Homes Stadium

A second half Grant Lynch goal has helped Blacktown City claim a 1-1 draw against APIA Leichhardt Tigers at Lily Homes Stadium on Sunday.

The City central defender fired home from the penalty spot after 71 minutes to ensure the Mark Crittenden coached side took home a point from a hard fought contest.

Franco Parisi helped give APIA the lead when he delivered a perfect pass to set up Josh Symons for the opener just after the restart.

However, it didn't last for long with Mason Versi taken down in the penalty area soon after to set up Lynch for the equaliser.

Despite the result APIA and Blacktown City maintain their second and third positions on the ladder.

U20'S MATCH PREVIEW

Rockdale City Suns should be confident of finishing their season among the top five, but the next three weeks will be crucial to their season.

Rockdale have three matches at home to see out the regular season, including fixtures against Wollongong Wolves and Sutherland Sharks. This weekend, they welcome Blacktown City to Ilinden Sports Centre; an opponent clear in first place but struggling for form as the finals approach.

Blacktown have won just one of their last five matches, a run which includes three draws and a shock defeat to Sydney FC. Still, the leaders are four points clear of second-placed Sutherland Sharks and have a game in hand.

These sides drew 1-1 when they met at Lily's earlier in the season, with Daniel Colosimo and Noah Botic trading goals.
