CLUB WELCOME

This afternoon we welcome players and officials of Sydney FC to Sydney United Sports Centre.

As always we are expecting an exciting game. Sydney United 58 has had some player changes but are expected to come back from their last game draw and produce a win.

With home ground advantage and energy and enthusiasm, it is time to prove who is Sydney United 58.

COME ON UNITED!

MATCH PREVIEW

A big bounce back performance is on the cards from Waratah Cup runners-up Sydney United 58 as they host Sydney FC on Sunday at Sydney United Sports Centre.

Last week's defeat in the cup final was a heartbreaking result for The Reds but they will need to quickly refocus to ensure they don't slip out of the top five.

It hasn't been the best of runs for United in the league either with three frustrating draws from their past three games.

The Reds outfit has been blunt in attack and it has cost them dearly. They have scored only one goal in their last four league fixtures.

They will be without Uruguayan creator Sebastian Gallegos for their final four matches as he has returned back to his homeland while Matthew Bilic will also miss the match after receiving a red card against Marconi in the Waratah Cup final.

Tomislav Uskok is expected to return to the lineup after a week off.

The pressure will be on Glen Trifiro and Peter Simonoski to discover a solution to the team's scoring woes.

Their opponents Sydney FC come into the match riding high after a big 3-1 win against Sydney FC in the last round.

It ended a five game losing streak for the Young Sky Blues who have struggled over the back end of the competition.

Coach Jim van Weeren has had a tough time playing a full strength squad each week but has done well to make the most of a tough situation.

Sydney FC have remained energetic and enthusiastic in all of their matches but have been let down by moments of inexperience or a drop in concentration.

United 58 will be favourites for this contest but don't write off Sydney FC who have shown they have what it takes to push the league's best teams.

1ST GRADE REVIEWS

Mt Druitt Town Rangers 0 v Sydney United 58 0 at Popondetta Park

A man of the match performance from Carlos Saliadarre has helped Mt Druitt Town Rangers claim a hard fought 0-0 draw against Sydney United 58 at Popondetta Park on Saturday night.

The veteran goalkeeper was in inspired form making numerous saves to keep a fired up United off the scoresheet.

Both teams had their chances but neither could possessed the clinical finishing required in a match which fell victim to the wet and windy conditions it was played in.

It was the third straight week United 58 was held scoreless while Mt Druitt is sure to take solace in the way they responded after last week's 4-1 defeat at the hands of league leaders Wollongong.

Sydney FC 3 – Rockdale City Suns 1 at Lambert Park

Sydney FC have dealt a crushing blow to Rockdale City Suns FC finals hopes with a Marco Tilio brace led 3-1 success tonight at a wet Lambert Park.

The victory was the Sky Blues first since Round 12 when they downed Hakoah Sydney City East.

The Young Sky Blues were made to work for it, coming back from a goal down with a pair of highlight reel strikes from Marco Tilio. Substitute Benjamin Koop added a late chip to confirm the result as they move to 17 points for the season.

Tonight was a tough result for Rockdale City Suns FC. The Suns had the lead through a first half injury time strike from Aleksandar Canak but some errors in the second half have them on the edge of elimination.

U20'S MATCH PREVIEW

Sydney FC sit third ahead of their visit to Sydney United on Sunday afternoon; their spot in the top five as precarious as ever with just three rounds of the regular season remaining.

Sydney are five points clear of Sydney Olympic and seven points ahead of sixth-placed APIA Leichhardt, though both teams below them have games in hand over the Sky Blues (Olympic have two, while the Tigers have three).

Sydney FC won their last match against Sydney Olympic to end a run of consecutive defeats, helping them keep their spot behind Sutherland Sharks after previously occupying second place.

Sydney United, for their part, will simply look to avoid slipping to their sixth defeat in a row. They sit seven points behind eleventh-placed Hakoah Sydney City East, and have a game in hand to play against APIA Leichhardt on Wednesday night.
