HENSLEY ATHLETIC FIELD

Welcome to the Investec Hakoah FC Community Game Day.

This is the third year Investec has been the platinum sponsor of Hakoah FC and we are proud to be involved with a club that has a reputation for spirit, success, and strong community values.

Investec's involvement in the club was ignited by a shared history and a passion to work together to uphold common community values. Hakoah is also one of the most historic clubs in Australian football and it is wonderful to be associated with a club that has such a rich history.

We hope you and your family enjoy today's game and will continue to show your support for the club in the years to come.

Regards
Milton Samios

MATCH PREVIEW

Hakoah Sydney City East will be looking to end a horror season on a high note when they take on Blacktown City at Hensley Athletic Field on Sunday.

The Eastern Suburbs based side has only three wins this season, two of which came in the opening five rounds, suffering through painful defeats time after time.

It proved costly for former coach Gavin Rae who was moved on by the club a fortnight ago as they prepared for their relegation to NPL NSW Men's 2 competition next season.

Hakoah have had a brilliant run in the NSW's top tier competition and will be out to send a message in their final NPL NSW Men's match for at least the next 12 months.

Ryan Norval has been Hakoah's most consistent performer this year while Oliver Green and Harry Jones have also been bright spots in what has been a grim campaign.

The come up against third placed Blacktown City who will be determined to go into the finals on the back of a win.

The Mark Crittenden coached side were stunned 2-0 by Marconi in Round 21 and will be using this game to tweak a few things before the playoffs.

One key figure missing in the line-up will be defender Grant Lynch who was sent off in the match against the Stallions.

The visitors though have a number of quality ready to step in, and with the club taking out the Club Championship title for yet another year, look towards seeing a few rising prospects unearthed in this match.

Blacktown will be favourites for this match but don't write off Hakoah who will be giving everything to go out with a bang.

1ST GRADE REVIEWS

Mt Druitt Town Rangers 4 – Hakoah Sydney City East 0 at Popondetta Park

Mount Druitt Town Rangers secured back-to-back victories in a 4-0 rout of Hakoah Sydney City East on a cold evening at Popondetta Park.

The result was Mount Druitt Town Rangers seventh victory of the season and keeps their slim finals hopes alive.

Alex Boyadjian and Toufic Alameddine scored in the first half hour to give the Rangers a lead 2-0 at the break.

Alameddine completed his brace in the second half alongside a Jacob Esposito goal to bank three more points in their maiden season in the NSW top flight.

For Hakoah Sydney City East, the visitors had their chances through Amauri Gauthier and Joshua Swadling but were wasteful in front of goal. The relegated side added a missed penalty in the second half as they look to next week to finish on a high.

Marconi Stallions 2 – Blacktown City 0 at Marconi Stadium

Two late goals have helped Marconi Stallions snatch a 2-0 win against Blacktown Stallions at Marconi Stadium on Saturday.

The win has all but secured the Stallions their spot in the finals with a round still to play.

With the clock running down substitute Anthony Frangie found the back of the net in the 90th minute with a glancing header before Brandon Vella buried one home to send the home fans into raptures in the 94th minute.

Despite the loss Blacktown hold onto third spot.

U20'S MATCH PREVIEW

Hakoah Sydney City East fought for a 2-1 win at Mt Druitt Town Rangers last weekend; a fiery clash at Popondetta Park leading to three red cards between the two teams at the end of the 90.

Nikita Parkes and Coen Emmenegger were sent off for Hakoah while Mitchell Knight and Ellis Bellos were on the scoresheet, giving Hakoah their fifth win of a difficult season.

It will get no easier against new Premiers Blacktown City, who will travel to Hensley looking for an emphatic win to see out the regular season ahead of the finals.

Blacktown enjoy a five point lead over Sutherland Sharks at the top of the table, having secured the Premiership last weekend with a 2-0 win over Marconi Stallions.

James Demetriou and Alen Aganovic were on hand to score the goals which sealed the title; Blacktown's second in as many seasons.
