CLUB WELCOME

Welcome everyone to our final game of the year against our local rivals Sutherland Sharks.

We always enjoy our games against our local rivals and whilst both teams won't be featuring in finals football, these games are thoroughly entertaining.

From our end, the season has not gone the way we hoped. There are many factors that have contributed to this but we will be doing everything to finish the season on a high before we regroup for next season.

On a brighter note, our under 20's have had a great season and a draw in today's game will see them finish in the top 3. It is a great achievement and pleasingly, the team features a number of our successful under 18 squad from last season who were grand finalists.

Likewise, our under 18's remain in the hunt for semi final football but will require some help from the football gods.

We hope to see a big crowd at today's game.

We again would like to thank our loyal sponsors for their support during the season:

MATCH PREVIEW

Rockdale City Suns and Sutherland Sharks will do battle for local bragging rights as they face off in a Southern Sydney Derby at Ilinden Sports Centre on Sunday.

While both teams have been ruled out of finals contention it doesn't mean they'll be taking this game lightly.

Ninth placed Rockdale and tenth placed Sutherland are split by only a point on the ladder with the winner finishing the season with the highest points tally of the two.

Rockdale come into this game after a narrow 2-1 defeat to Premiers Wollongong Wolves.

Defence again let Rockdale down as the Wolves made the most of their few chances.

With nothing to lose it will be interesting to see what formation the side goes with,

Sutherland come into the match on the back of a comprehensive 4-0 win against Sydney FC last week.

Strikers Jeremy Cox and Charles Lokolingoy were in inspired form as they each scored a brace against an inexperienced Sydney back line.

It will be a bit tougher this week but if anyone can find the back of the net it is these two. Lokolingoy has been linked with a move to the Hong Kong top tier competition with the big marksman hoping he can sign off on a bang come Sunday.

Rockdale will be favourites at home but Sutherland's recent form shows this game could truly go either way.

1ST GRADE REVIEWS

Rockdale City Suns 1 – Wollongong Wolves 2 at Ilinden Sports Centre

Wollongong Wolves have been crowned 2019 National Premier Leagues NSW Men's Premiers after wrapping up the title with a narrow 2-1 win against Rockdale City Suns at Ilinden Sports Centre on Sunday.

The win ended a 32-year Premiership drought for the club and was their first league honour since they took out the 2008 Championship.

Wollongong were determined to secure their place in history from the opening kickoff and took the lead only 17 minutes into proceedings thanks to a thunderous volley from defender Nick Littler.

Star striker Thomas James gave the visitors a 2-0 lead on the cusp of half-time leaving Rockdale all to do if they were to make a stunning upset.

The Suns attempted a gallant fight back when Jonathan Grozdanovski halved the deficit in the 63rd minute but it would prove too little too late as Wollongong clung on for victory and the Premiership.

Sydney FC 0 – Sutherland Sharks 4 at Lambert Park

Sutherland Sharks have snapped a three-game losing streak with an emphatic 4-0 win against Sydney FC at Lambert Park on Saturday.

It was a brilliant performance from the Sharks as Charles Lokolingoy and Jeremy Cox both scored a brace against their former side.

It was one-way traffic from the start as the visitors made the most of their attacking dominance to go into halftime 3-0 thanks to a Cox double and a 45th minute finish from Lokolingoy.

Sydney FC fought their way back into the contest after the interval but it wasn't enough with Lokolingoy claiming his second and Sutherland's fourth of the match.

A late flurry from the home side gave fans hope of a consolation goal yet it never eventuated as the Sharks held on for the 4-0 win.

U20'S MATCH PREVIEW

Rockdale and Sutherland Sharks meet on Sunday afternoon at Ilinden Sports Centre with second place on the line; Rockdale sitting just two points behind their visitors ahead of their Round 22 clash.

Jake Cakovski gave Rockdale a 1-0 win over Wollongong Wolves last weekend, a result which saw his side move up into third place ahead of Sydney FC and APIA Leichhardt.

A defeat to Sutherland here would see Rockdale drop down to fourth if APIA beat Mt Druitt at Popondetta, making this match a must-win for the side from Ilinden.

Sutherland, meanwhile, should head to Rockdale refreshed following a week's rest. The Sharks travel to Ilinden on a run of six straight victories; the most recent a 6-1 win over Mt Druitt at the end of July.
