MATCH PREVIEW

Rockdale City Suns have the chance to spoil the premiership party of Wollongong Wolves when the two sides come head to head at Ilinden Sports Centre on Sunday.

The Suns need to take all three points from the match if they are to keep their finals hopes alive and will look to their last match against the Wolves where they were shock 2-0 winners as inspiration.

A 2-0 win against Manly in Round 20 was Rockdale's only win from their past five matches with the side struggling at the back end of the campaign.

Despite this they are still in with a chance of a top five finish but it will require two wins from their final two games.

It hasn't been the season Panny Nikas would've envisioned when he made his high profile move to the Suns in January but the mercurial attacker has the chance to make an impact in these crunch matches.

Alec Urosevski and young striker Jonathan Grozdanovski are other key contributors to watch for.

For The Wolves a draw is enough for them to claim the Premiership and coach Luke Wilkshire is sure to have the team fired up especially after their shock defeat last round.

It was a rare poor performance from Wollongong and with the chance of securing history it is unlikely they have another bad showing this week.

Striker Thomas James will be looking to extend his lead in the Golden Boot race with a few goals after APIA front man Chris Payne closed the gap to only one strike.

A lot is riding on this match for both teams so expect a thrilling clash with plenty of attacking football.

1ST GRADE REVIEWS

Manly United 0 – Rockdale City Suns 2 at Cromer Park

Rockdale City Suns snapped their five-game losing streak with a clinical 2-0 victory over fellow finals hopefuls Manly United at Cromer Park on Sunday afternoon.

In what was a fiery, high-stakes affair from the outset, both sides forged their fair share of opportunities during a scoreless first period.

After the interval, deadly strikes from Jonathan Grozdanovski and substitute Aleksander Canak were enough for the visitors to overcome a wasteful Manly outfit.

The result inflicted a dent within Manly's finals hopes, whilst concurrently launching the Suns right back into contention as they join Paul Dee's men on 26 points.

Blacktown City 2 – Wollongong Wolves 0 at Lily Homes Stadium

Blacktown City FC have temporarily placed a spanner in the works of Wollongong Wolves' hopes of claiming an early Premiership after shocking the league leaders with a 2-0 win at Lily Homes Stadium on Sunday.

The celebrations for the South Coast based side will have to wait another week as a first half goal from Grant Lynch and a second half strike from Joey Gibbs made the difference in a tight contest.

It was a huge result for Blacktown who are now in with a shot of a top two finish after APIA's shock draw to Sydney FC on Saturday.

U20'S MATCH PREVIEW

Rockdale City Suns take on Wollongong Wolves on Sunday afternoon knowing a victory will take them above Sydney FC as high as third depending on APIA's result at Manly United.

Rockdale return home to Ilinden Sports Centre following a 2-1 win over United; a Jake Cakovski double giving his side the edge as they came from behind in the second half to seal their place in the finals.

This week, they welcome Wollongong to Ilinden, with the Wolves making the trip up the coast on the back of a 1-0 defeat to Blacktown City in Round 21.

Like several teams around them, Wollongong cannot finish higher than seventh at the end of 2019, though they could yet drop as low as eleventh should they drop points in their next two games.
