MATCH PREVIEW

Expect plenty of fireworks on Saturday afternoon as fierce rivals Sydney United 58 and Marconi Stallions face off for finals football survival at Sydney United Sports Centre.

There has been a lot of feeling between these two teams this season and the extra pressure of finals elimination will only turn the heat up even more on these two historic opponents teams

Saturday's match will be the fourth time they have clashed in 2019 with their most recent being Marconi's 2-1 Waratah Cup final win last month.

The Stallions have had the upper hand winning two of three matches against United this season including a 5-0 thrashing at Marconi Stadium back in April

Sydney United 58 come into this game full of confidence after snatching fourth spot from Marconi to secure a home final with a 3-1 win in their final regular season game against Manly United last weekend.

The victory was a real message of intent from a Reds outfit which has struggled for consistency over the back end of the campaign.

Coach Miro Valstelica could have a few tough selection decisions to make with the possible loss of star midfielder Glen Trifiro to injury who will be touch and go.

The former Central Coast Mariners player struggled to limp off the field after suffering what appeared to be a serious knee injury during the second half.

Tariq Maia could be the man brought in to replace him with Patrick Antelmi returned to the starting line-up to fill Maia's spot.

Defeat last week proved costly for Marconi Stallions as they lost the chance to host this match but they have still been one of the form teams during the back half of the campaign.

Coach Peter Tsekenis has his star studded Stallions side firing when it matters most and if they can continue that form are a dark horse to go all the way.

A few of Marconi's big names didn't play last week including Mitch Mallia while former Hakoah attacking dynamo Anthony Frangie is slowly working his way back from injury giving the Stallions another weapon going forward.

With the loser eliminated from the finals expect both teams to give everything to avoid a premature end to the season and their Championship hopes.

If their previous match-ups are anything to go by this game is must see football.

1ST GRADE REVIEWS

Sydney United 58 3 – Manly United 1 at Sydney United Sports Centre

Sydney United 58 has clinched fourth spot and a home final with a brilliant 3-1 win against Manly United at Sydney United Sports Centre on Sunday.

The win sets up a thrilling clash against fierce rivals Marconi Stallions back at Edensor Park in week one of the playoffs.

First half goals to Matthew Bilic and Peter Simonoski set the tone for United 58 with substitute Patrick Antelmi securing a vital three points when he volleyed home in the 81st minute.

Manly looked to put a spanner in the works when Scott Balderson scored against the run of play on the cusp of half time, but it proved to be nothing more than a flash in the pan.

The match also marked retiring United 58 great Petar Markovic's final regular season match after the veteran defender announced he was calling a close to his playing career which has spanned 22 years at the club.

Wollongong Wolves 1 – Marconi Stallions 0 at WIN Stadium

Premiership winners Wollongong Wolves gave their fans the victory lap they craved with a 1-0 win against Marconi Stallions at WIN Stadium on Sunday.

A late Thomas James penalty ensured the victory for the hosts rifling his effort into the bottom left-hand corner.

Marconi put up a tough fight but they were unable to secure the point required to secure a home final, instead finishing the season in fifth.

The result capped off an incredible regular season campaign for the Wolves who led the competition from start to finish.

U20'S MATCH PREVIEW

Sutherland and Rockdale met only a week ago at Ilinden Sports Centre; Rockdale going ahead through Jake Cakovski before being reined back in by a penalty from James Temelevski only ten minutes from time.

They played out a similarly tight match when they faced each other in May, too; Cakovski scoring the only goal of the game to secure a 1-0 win for Rockdale at Seymour Shaw in Round 11.

Both sides finished the regular season in top form, with neither having lost since the second week of June.

Since then, Sutherland have picked up 20 points in eight games to finish second, while Rockdale earned 18 points in the same space of time to ultimately finish just two points behind their preliminary semi final opponents.

With a place in the major semi final against Blacktown next Tuesday on the line – and with a second chance for the loser – both sides should feel free to play with the same attacking instincts that have served them so well all year. It promises to be a cracker.
