Round 4 of the National Premier Leagues NSW Men's competition has arrived and it is sure to be another huge week of fixtures.

Sydney Olympic's flawless start to the campaign has them in top spot but the chasing pack is hot on their tail.

It is the same in the contest for finals places with only one game between first and ninth.

This week's matches will kick off with two games on Friday night as APIA Leichhardt host Sydney FC, while Manly United take on Sydney Olympic.

On Saturday, Marconi Stallions go up against Western Sydney Wanderers and Mt Druitt face off against Sydney United 58.

The round wraps up with two games on Sunday afternoon as Wollongong play host to North Shore Mariners and Rockdale Ilinden close out the weekend's action against Blacktown City.

APIA Leichhardt FC v Sydney FC, 7pm Friday at Lambert Park

APIA Leichhardt has had a tough start to the rebooted season and will be determined to get back on track with a win against a high-flying Sydney FC at Lambert Park on Friday.

The John Calleja coached side secured their first win since the restart last weekend with a hard-fought 2-1 victory against Western Sydney Wanderers.

However, they will need to take their game to a new level this week as they take on a free-scoring Young Sky Blues outfit.

Defence will be the key message from Calleja coming into this contest and APIA's struggling defence will need to find it's A-game to stop the league's best attack.

Thankfully APIA has plenty of talent in the backline with Paul Galimi and Josh Symons all available for selection but the club is sweating on the availability of Themba Muata-Marlow who came up lame following the club's first victory last Friday.

Nick Stavroulakis was given his marching orders last week leaving the veteran midfielder suspended for this week's match-up alongside David D'Apuzzo who is also suspended while Sean Symons may miss the match as his partner is due to give birth.

Keep an eye out for Mitchell Gibbs, a player with huge potential after impressing in his debut for APIA against the Wanderers.

Shot-stopper Luke Turnbull could be in for a busy match against Sydney FC's in-form frontman Patrick Wood.

Wood scored four goals in Sydney's 6-1 drubbing of North Shore Mariners in Round 3 taking his season tally to 6.

Sydney FC suffered their first defeat of the season on Wednesday night as they went down 2-0 to Sydney Olympic in their rescheduled Round 2 clash where they played the remainder of the forty minutes after their round 2 clash was postponed due to wet weather.

Coach Jim van Weeren will have his young squad ready to go despite the short turnaround as they look to return to winning ways.

APIA will be favourites for this match but Sydney FC have shown they can match it with every team in the competition.

Manly United v Sydney Olympic FC, 7.45 pm Friday at Cromer Park

With home ground advantage on their side,

Manly United will be out to cause an upset when ladder leaders Sydney Olympic come to Cromer Park on Friday night.

Big news from the Manly camp was Paul Dee stepping down from his head coach role, being replaced by assistant and former Socceroo Adam Griffiths.

It will be Dee's final match in charge against the Blues and he is hoping the boys can send him off on a winning note.

The Paul Dee coached side have not scored a goal in three games since the season reboot and are desperately searching for answers for their scoring woes.

The pressure will be on attacking stars Brendan Cholakian, Dejan Pandurevic, Marley Peterson to find their touch.

It couldn't be any more different for their opponents Sydney Olympic who are scoring and winning with ease.

Olympic defeated Blacktown City 2-1 in Round 3 with striker Charles Lokolingoy finding the back of the net twice and backed it up on Wednesday night with a 2-0 win against Sydney FC.

Goals from Hagi Gligor and Peter Kekeris sealed the victory for Ante Juric's squad who have been the team to beat thus far.

Not only will Manly need to stop Lokolingoy, but they will also need to contain Fabio Ferreira and Adam Parkhouse.

Olympic will be favourites for this match but Cromer Park is a hard place to play and Manly will use that as much to their advantage.

Marconi Stallions v Western Sydney Wanderers, 4 pm Saturday at Marconi Stadium

It will be a Western Sydney derby as Marconi Stallions host Western Sydney Wanderers at Marconi Stallions on Saturday.

Marconi have won two of their first three games including a gritty away victory against Wollongong Wolves last round.

Stallions attacker Anthony Frangie is playing some of his best football at the moment and will be someone the Wanderers will need to keep an eye on.

Mitch Mallia is another player finding form for Marconi and was unlucky not to have found himself on the scoresheet in Round 3.

The Speranza brothers Giorgio and Roberto are also showing their experience at this level balancing the squad in the backline alongside Nathan Millgate while the club was happy to see Marty Fernandez return back from injury.

Western Sydney have had a frustrating first three games with only one point to show for their efforts but have played some fantastic free flowing football under the watchful eye of coach Arthur Diles.

The Wanderers have been slow starters but have bounced back in each of their games with great form in the final twenty minutes.

If the Wanderers can find their feet early then they could be able to cause an upset with a number of young guns in their corner, Rory Jordan, Dean Pelekanos, Mohamed Al Taay, Noah Pagden and Kosta Grozos to name a few, they are sure to give it their all come Saturday.

Mt Druitt Town Rangers v Sydney United 58, 7 pm Saturday at Popondetta Park

It has been a difficult start to the rebooted season for Mt Druitt Town Rangers and they will be determined to get their campaign back on track with a win at home against Sydney United 58 on Saturday.

The Rangers suffered a 3-0 loss against Rockdale in Round 3 and were outclassed in both attack and defence.

Coach Franco Cosentino will be hoping he can get his team firing on all cylinders to bounce back this week.

Experienced defender Travis Oughtred should be in for a big game as he leads the backline against United 58 side which is full of confidence after a run of good results.

United claimed their second win from as many games last week with a 2-0 victory against Manly.

Their midfield trio of Glen Trifiro, Tariq Maia and Matt Sim has found another level in recent weeks and it has shown in the club's performances while Matthew Bilic has also found some form.

The Zjelko Kalac coached side will believe they can make it three wins in a row and will be hard to stop.

Wollongong Wolves v North Shore Mariners, 2.30 pm Sunday at Albert Butler Memorial Park

A return to the winner's circle will be the goal for Wollongong Wolves when they host North Shore Mariners at Albert Butler Memorial Park on Sunday.

The Wolves went down 1-0 against Marconi Stallions last week in what was their first defeat of the rebooted season.

Coach Luke Wilkshire would've not been impressed with his side's lapses in concentration in the loss and is sure to hammer home the importance of keeping composed for the full 90 minutes.

After being held scoreless against the Stallions, Wollongong's attacking trio of Bul Juach, Lachlan Scott and Takeru Okada will be all pushing to rediscover the teams' goal-scoring touch against a struggling North Shore defence.

The club is also hoping to get back their star striker Thomas James from his short-term Perth Glory stint.

The Mariners were on the wrong side of a 6-1 drubbing in Round 3 as Sydney FC ran riot at Illinden Sports Centre last Sunday night.

It was a horror performance from North Shore, and coach Joe Haywood will surely be asking some pretty tough questions of his players in an attempt to find answers for the dismal showing.

They will be hungry to show the loss was only a blip by delivering a huge performance against the Wolves.

Rockdale Illinden Blacktown City FC, 4 pm Sunday at Illinden Sports Centre

The battle for top spot on the ladder is heating up and Rockdale Illinden will be determined to stake their claim for first place with a win against Blacktown City on Sunday.

Rockdale finished last round in first place, however, face stiff competition from Sydney FC and Sydney Olympic who still have a game in hand.

The Steven Zoric coached side has yet to lose a game from their opening three matches of the rebooted season and flexed their attacking muscle last round with a 3-0 victory against Mt Druitt.

Nikola Taneski has stepped up his game since the reboot of the competition commenced while Japanese imports Tomoki Wada and Banri Kanaizumi have quietly become two of the teams most consistent performers.

They will take on a Blacktown City side which will be desperate to get their season back on track after some early wobbles.

While defeat last week against Sydney Olympic was their first loss of the season, City are still yet to win a match after being held to draws in their first two matches of the season.

It's a record which is sure to concern Blacktown coach Mark Crittenden who had his team firing before the competition shut down in March.

Clinical finishing in front of goal has been lacking from Blacktown with the pressure on Charles Mendy, Mario Shabow and Leroy Jennings to start making the most of the teams' chances.

Blacktown are a tough team and have enough quality to bounce back but they will need to find their form if they are to slow down Rockdale.

Round three of the National Premier Leagues NSW Men's competition is in the books with Rockdale Ilinden on top of the ladder after the weekend's action.

Rockdale was in fine fettle on Saturday night to keep their unbeaten start to the rebooted season alive and take a one-point advantage in first place.

Sydney FC is quickly proving to be the surprise packet of the competition after the restart with Jim van Weeran's young side flying high in second after another comprehensive display.

APIA Leichhardt, Sydney Olympic, Marconi Stallions and Sydney United 58 were also winners in week three as the race for finals football begins to take shape.

APIA Leichhardt 2 (Payne 27', S Symons 61') – Western Sydney Wanderers 1 (Jordan 79) at Lambert Park

A fast-finishing Western Sydney Wanderers was unable to stop APIA Leichhardt from claiming their first win of the season as they triumphed 2-1 at Lambert Park on Friday night.

A first-half goal to Chris Payne and a 61st-minute goal to Sean Symons was the difference for APIA as they clung on against a dangerous Wanderers outfit.

Western Sydney had the best of the early chances but it was APIA who took the lead when Payne tapped home from close range midway through the opening stanza to give the home side the lead.

Payne turned provider early in the second stanza as Symons doubled APIA's lead with a powerful strike from inside the penalty area.

The Wanderers refused to give up and opened their account 10 minutes from time courtesy of a clinical finish from young gun Rory Jordan.

Luke Turnbull was required to make a number of key saves late for the home side and there was even more late controversy when APIA substitute Nick Stavroulakis was given a straight red for a challenge in the 90th minute.

The Wanderers had one last roll of the dice but Turnbull was up to the task ensuring APIA took home all three points.

Blacktown City 1 (Mendy 87') – Sydney Olympic 2 (Lokolingoy 31', 46')

A Charles Lokolingoy brace has helped Sydney

Olympic to a 2-1 win against Blacktown City at Lily Homes Stadium on Friday night.

The former Sydney FC striker was in supreme form for Olympic, opening his account for the 2020 season in the first half before claiming a second only moments after the restart.

Blacktown striker Charles Mendy nabbed a penalty in the dying stages to set up an exciting finish but it was Olympic's night as they held on for all three points.

Olympic had a fast start to the match with Adam Parkhouse proving dangerous down the left wing.

It was a Parkhouse run and pass which put Lokolingoy into space for him to fire past the keeper and give the visitors the lead in the 31st minute.

Lokolingoy was at it again only seconds into the second half, when he picked the pocket of Blacktown midfielder Daniel Collins on the edge of the penalty and fired a rasping shot into the back of the net to make it 2-0.

Olympic was unlucky not to make it 3-0 in the second half with Blacktown keeper Shaun Catlin making a handful of clutch saves to keep his team in the game.

The home side won a penalty in the 86th minute and Mendy converted from the spot to set up a thrilling finish.

However, it wasn't to be as Olympic clung on until the final whistle to keep them at the top end of the table.

Mt Druitt Town Rangers 0 – Rockdale Ilinden 3 (Gauthier 66', 83', Taneski 72')

A whirlwind second-half performance from Rockdale Ilinden has helped them to a comprehensive 3-0 win on the road against Mt Druitt Town Rangers at Popondetta Park on Saturday.

A brace from Amaury Gauthier and a Nikola Taneski penalty during a 15-minute flurry midway through the second stanza secured the win for Rockdale and catapulted them into the top spot on the ladder.

The visitors had the best of the early running and tested Rangers keeper Carlos Saliadarré with a number of shots on goal.

Mt Druitt held on until the break, but after the restart, Mt Druitt finally found a breakthrough when Gauthier headed home from a dangerous cross.

Taneski was taken down in the penalty area only minutes later before stepping up to convert from the spot.

Gauthier wrapped up the win in the final minutes of the game with a sublime finish after a slick Rockdale breakaway.

The result ensures Rockdale remain undefeated since the competition restart, while Mt Druitt finished the week at the bottom of the ladder.

Wollongong Wolves FC 0 – Marconi Stallions FC 1 (Frangie 71') at Albert Butler Memorial Park

A second-half strike from Anthony Frangie has helped Marconi Stallions claim a 1-0 win against Wollongong Wolves at Albert Butler Memorial Park on Sunday afternoon.

Frangie's 71st-minute finish helped the visitors snap Wollongong's unbeaten start to the season and claim the Stallions second victory of the rebooted season.

Windy conditions made the going tough for both sides as they struggled to move the ball upfield.

Mitch Mallia was a constant threat for Marconi in the opening stanza creating chance after chance for the visitors.

Wolves shot-stopper kept the home side in the game after the restart denying Marconi with a handful of quality saves.

However, the Stallions finally found the breakthrough with 20 minutes left to play as Martin Fernandez set up Frangie to score after some neat footwork on the byline.

Wollongong pushed hard for an equaliser but it wasn't to be as Marconi secured a hard-earned three points on the road.

It's believed former 2019 Player of the Year and Golden Boot award winner Thomas James will be rejoining his Wolves teammates shortly following a short term contract stint with Perth Glory.

Sydney United 58 FC 2 (Bilic 44', Maia 83') – Manly United 0 at Sydney United Sports Centre

It is back to back wins for Sydney United 58 after they claimed a 2-0 victory against Manly United at Sydney United Sports Centre on Sunday.

The home side scored a goal in each half courtesy of Matthew Bilic and Tarik Maia to claim all three competition points.

With the game seemingly headed to the interval locked scoreless, a moment of Matt Sim brilliance in the 44th minute broke the game open.

The veteran midfielder unleashed a looping cross into the back post for Bilic to tap into the back of the net unobstructed.

Manly pushed for an equaliser but struggled to get the best of the United defence and an in-form Thomas Manos who played arguably his best game of the season so far.

Sydney United secured the result in the 83rd minute when Maia found the back of the net from just inside the penalty area after some determined dribbling from Michael Ruhs.

The result moves Zjelko Kalac's side level with Marconi Stallions on six points after three games.

Sydney FC 6 (Wood 10', 17', 28', 50', Simmons 67', Segecic 93') North Shore Mariners 1 (Smith 84) at Ilinden Sports Centre

A dominant Sydney FC have thrashed North Shore Mariners 6-1 with a comprehensive performance at Ilinden Sports Centre on Sunday night.

Patrick Wood was the star of the show for the young Sky Blues, scoring four goals in the one-sided affair while Aidan Simmons and Adrian Segcic each claimed a goal.

Sydney made a whirlwind start to the contest with Wood claiming a brace within 17 minutes and his hat-trick before the half-hour mark,

The Mariners had no answers and hoped the half-time break would help stem the tide.

However, the second stanza had more of the same with Wood again finding the back of the net before Simmons joined in on the glut of goals to make it 5-0 after 67 minutes.

The Mariners clawed one back in the 84th minute through Mitchell Smith but it wasn't enough to stop Sydney's domination as substitute Segcic added insult to injury with another Sky Blues goal deep into added time.

The result catapults Sydney FC into second place only one point behind Rockdale and with a game in hand.
